A SEA TRAGEDY
THE news of ten or more fishermen drowned at their work had come to Gloucester, Mass., on the 1st of November.

NAVIES FOR SERVICE
THERE is a new spirit abroad in the world when the British Navy League, which for years has been committed to the advocacy of the Imperial Navy.

OUR ORCHESTRA IN COTHAM
THE instrument upon which he played was a grand old one, and the music that he played was a grand old one.

HARD-BOILED WATSON SPEAKS
MORRELY because the charge is made by Senator Tom Watson of Georgia, it will not do to push aside without question or inquiry the fresh allegations of brutality and cruelty in the army which Congress is asked to consider.

THE CURSE AND THE GLORY
THE prodigies performed in battle by Sergeant Woodfill, designated by General Pershing to represent the infantry branch of the army at the Armistice Day ceremonies, smack almost of fiction.

fighter, nor it may be thought more ruthless in valor.
Woodfill's officially recorded exploits in warfare are at once glorious and terrible.

A SPIRITUALLY MINDED WORLD CAN FIND THE WAY TO PEACE

President Harding's Thanksgiving Proclamation is a Significant Reminder of His World Conference Purposes
THE people of the United States are contemplating the approaching conference in Washington in a very different mood from that in which they regarded the Versailles Conference.

THE GOOD SLEUTHS
ONE by one the detectives whose talents, methods and exploits kept brightly alive the traditions of their calling, established in the literature of Nick Carter and Old Sleuth, are passing.

NAVIES FOR SERVICE (continued)
The more significant than this is the resolution in the President's Thanksgiving proclamation that he also has been thinking of the utility of material readiness.

OUR ORCHESTRA IN COTHAM (continued)
The instrument upon which he played was a grand old one, and the music that he played was a grand old one.

HARD-BOILED WATSON SPEAKS (continued)
If Senator Watson believes that American soldiers were "executed without even the formality of a court-martial" he ought to do one of two things.

THE CURSE AND THE GLORY (continued)
The prodigies performed in battle by Sergeant Woodfill, designated by General Pershing to represent the infantry branch of the army at the Armistice Day ceremonies, smack almost of fiction.

AS ONE WOMAN SEES IT
America is handicapped in dealing with foreigners because of inability to get another's point of view
By SARAH D. LOWREY
I WAS talking with a young Italian friend of mine not long ago about his recent trip to South America.

ADVISERS OF EVERY BRAND

A DIVERSIFIED and representative as the personnel of the recent national unemployment conference, though numerically smaller than that body, is the Advisory Committee of Twenty-one named by the President to assist the American delegation to the disarmament treaty.

THE GOOD SLEUTHS (continued)
There are two ways of catching criminals. You can use your wits, an instinctive knowledge of human nature, a knowledge of psychology, or you can blunder along noisily with a club in one hand and a gun in the other.
