Nancy Wynne Tells of the Successful Advance of the Young Men's Petition for Early Hours at Parties. Many Philadelphians at Adams-Peyton Wedding

I HEAR that the petition for early hours is going the rounds beautifully. It has been taken to several parties where boys, girls and hostesses held it up and the idea is taking hold all around the city.

Miss Janet Holt Strawbridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Holt Strawbridge, of Spring Valley, is the petitioner. She is giving a party on Wednesday evening at the Acon Club. Miss Strawbridge is one of the season's debutantes. Miss Helen Strawbridge will spend the week-end of November 12 in Boston.

Miss Virginia de Morat Smith, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wynne Smith, of Spring Valley, will be the guest of honor at a large luncheon on Tuesday, November 22, at the Acon Club. Miss Strawbridge is one of the season's debutantes. Miss Helen Strawbridge will spend the week-end of November 12 in Boston.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Sailer, of 1718 Spruce street, will entertain at a small dinner-dance at the Acon Club on Friday evening, December 21, after the tea they will give that afternoon from 4 until 6:30 o'clock, to formally present to society their daughter, Miss Alice W. Sailer.

Miss and Mrs. Frank Thorne Patterson will entertain at a small dinner at their home, 2266 St. James place, on Friday evening, November 18, in honor of Miss Elizabeth Adams Peyton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilson Howe, of 2922 D Lancy street. The party will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, who will be assisted by their daughter, Miss Anna Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Evans Williams, Jr., of Robinsonville, Ardmore, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter on November 1. Mrs. Williams will be remembered as Miss Maida Dale.

Among the ladies who will assist in receiving at the tea to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Elliott, of 212 South Seventeenth street, at their home tomorrow afternoon, from 4 until 6:30 o'clock, to present to society their daughter, Miss Hannah M. Elliott, will be Mrs. Albert Lucas, Mrs. Charles Stewart Wurg, Mrs. G. C. Cameron, Mrs. William H. Horstmann, Mrs. Francis L. du Pont and Mrs. Samuel Bligham.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Geist, of 6127 Columbia avenue, Overbrook, gave a dinner-dance on Tuesday evening, December 22, at the Merion Cricket Club, in honor of their daughter, Miss Eloise Geist.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dittenderfer, of Wynnewood, are receiving congratulations on a dance on Wednesday evening, December 22, at the Merion Cricket Club, in honor of their daughter, Miss Virginia Dittenderfer.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Eva M. Alroy, daughter of Mr. J. Alfred, of 225 Chain street, and Mr. Weytt M. Bowden, of this city.

I saw Elizabeth McElroy on the street the other day wearing a smart suit of grey tweed and a hat. Her hair was also gray, and it was awfully pretty and becoming. Katherine Dunn has a blue tweed suit and a small hat of the material and brown fur. It is just as sweet as can be. There is something girlish and modest and fresh about the whole costume, which is very pleasing to the eye.

The wedding will take place on Thursday, December 22, at 10:30 a. m. in the Episcopal Church of the Holy Trinity, at 225 Chestnut street.
