WE ADMIT Villanova has a good football team and a good coach in Allie Miller. The record is impressive and the Main Liners deserve lots of credit. Also the man in the airplane who watched the game last Saturday.

Jess Willard Breaks In

DESPITE the important developments on the gridiron, Jess Willard has crept into print again. This time he is not a fighter-far he it from that, He is a millionaire oil man, possesses something like $2,000,000, and perhaps will not be able to fight again. This certainly is news. We had an idea be couldn't fight even before he grabbed those couple of millions. All of which goes to show that the proposed match between the former champion and Jack Dempsey is getting the "build up" from the well-known press. This cloud of steam has floated in from the West, where they have oil fields and everything. The story attracted wide interest, especially among the prominent clubmen at the Olympia, National and Cambria. Some be lieve it and others take it as a matter of course.

Whether Jess is wealthy or not, the public now is aware that he is about to have a battle with Dempsey some time in the near future-provided, of course, Dempsey expresses a desire to knock his block off again. And they may the champion is not ready to defend his title next summer or any other time. This probably will interfere with the match, oil wells and other things, . . .

H^{OWEVER}, the news that Willard is wealthy is good reading and quite interesting. Now Jess can claim that he is fighting Dempsey to get money enough to pay his income tar. Also hospital expenses.

Ruth vs. Landis

A CCORDING to another report. Babe Ruth and Judge Landis have been invited to attend a dinner given to Marshal Foch by the Knights of Columbus in Chicago next Sunday night. It is believed that the Babe, after fnishing the soup course, will converse with His Honor and try to effect a reconciliation before they hand out the fish.

The Babe got himself in bad this fall when he played a few exhibition sames, but stepped out of the picture before the situation became neute. Ruth made a contract with a baseball promoter last summer and thought he should go through with it because a lot of money had been spent advertising the games. As soon as the promoter showed a profit the King of Sunt retired for the season and has been waiting to hear from the Judge ever since. . . .

Nº MATTER what happens, whether Ruth is expelled for life we soaked with a heavy fine, everything will be settled before the training scanon begins, so we should corry.
