SOLDIERS' BONUS MAY BE TABLED Senate Majority Plan to Sidetrack Senator Reed's

Amendment

SALES TAX POLL TAKEN

By the Associated Press Washington, Nov. 2.—With Senator Reed, of Missouri, and other Demo-cratic leaders prepared to renew their fight for the soldiers' bonus as an omendment to the Tax Bill when the Senate reconvened today, the progress to be expected toward final action on the bill appeared problematical. Whether advocates of the Reed bonus amendment, proposing retention of the excess profits tax to defray the cost of the five-way adjusted compensation plan, were prepared formally to move adoption of the amendment and thus ose discussion on it had not been disclosed.

Should this be done, however, and the ameadment be tabled in accordance with the majority plan, as announced by Senator Penrose in charge of the bill, bonus advocates on the Democratic side, according to announced plans, would then be ready to counter with formal presentation of the Simmons-Walsh amendment proposing payment of the bonus out of the foreign debt
