

PENN OPENS NEW BOATHOUSE. The U. of P. crews took part in races on the Schuylkill in connection with the opening ceremonies at the $50,000 structure built along Boathouse Row.

SIC 'EM, TED! Miss Katherine Newcomer, cheerleader of a New York college, has two mascots. One is a real, honest-to-goodness dog and the other a paper imitation. She likes to see a scrap. The dog at the right does the fighting. Central News Photo

TAKING PART IN IRISH CONFERENCE. Two British Ministers arriving at No. 10 Downing street, for parley. Sir Gordon Hewart (left), Attorney General, and Winston Churchill, Secretary for the Colonies. Central News Photo

THE LATE DR. J. WILLIAM WHITE HONORED. A tablet in his memory was unveiled at the Penn Boat House. Mrs. J. W. White, Mrs. S. S. White, Jr., and S. S. White, 3d, with Miss Sara A. Brown, attended the ceremonies.

WITH HER PARISIAN TOY. Miss Marjorie Rothchild, New York, arrives from Europe, carrying a "cat" called Minouche on her left arm. International

A PENNY FOR YOUR THOUGHTS. We surmise that Secretary of War Weeks is planning for the Arms Conference program. Underwood & Underwood

THEY'RE FROM GEORGIA. Miss Grace Goldsmith (left) and Miss Katherine Dickey, of Atlanta, rooters for the Georgia Tech football team. Central News Photo

FAIR ATHLETE. Miss Grace McNamara won javelin throw at a New York college field day. Central News Photo

SAW FIRST CAR ON FRANKFORD "L." Frankford people were not the only ones who took a keen interest in the running of a trolley car over the "L" trucks. These girls, employed at a Delaware avenue factory, saw the start.

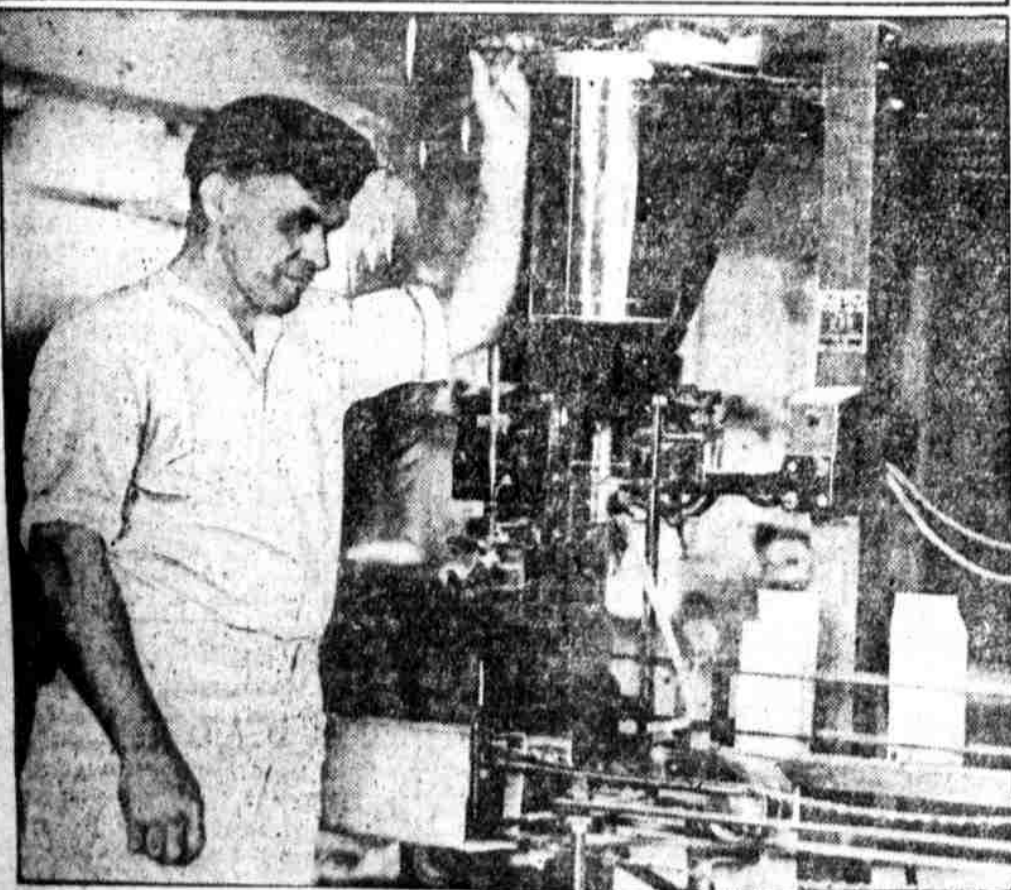

HELPING THE SESQUICENTENNIAL FAIR. Alba B. Johnson (right), chairman of the Executive Committee, in Mayor's offices, yesterday. At the left is William H. Wilson, president of the Real Estate Board, with batch of pledges.

HAVE A PENCIL? The sulphur-crested cockatoo is taking a pencil from vest pocket of C. Emerson Brown, superintendent of the Zoo.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

WILLIAM CAIRNS, 250 North Fifty-eighth street, operating an electric machine which fills boxes with cracker dust and then weighs the box at the Quaker City Quality Cracker Company, Fifty-seventh and Race streets.

READY FOR THE ARMS CONFERENCE. Lord and Lady Lee arrive from England on the Olympic. They will also make a tour of the country. Central News Photo

MISS A. K. JOHNSON, GERMANTOWN, who will take part in the semi-annual meet of the Riders and Drivers of Philadelphia, in Fairmount Park, on Saturday.

BUSY PHILADELPHIANS

THE CASHIER. E. S. Kromer, of the Bank of North America, where he has been for thirty-three years. He is married and lives at Woodbury, N. J. Mr. Kromer is a member of the Union League.