

REV. DR. ADAMSON DIES IN HOSPITAL

Pastor of Mary Simpson Memorial Church Had Been Ill Two Weeks

WAS POPULAR PREACHER

The Rev. Dr. C. Edgar Adamson, pastor of the Mary Simpson Memorial Church, Sixty-first and Jefferson streets, of the best known Methodist clergy in the city, died at 11 o'clock last night in the University Hospital. Mrs. Adamson and his brother, Paul, were at his bedside.

The Rev. Dr. Adamson was taken ill two weeks ago. A week ago today his condition became alarming and he was removed to the hospital. Physicians were called to diagnose the case and Dr. Adamson's home, 3018 North Twenty-third street, today, it was said, was the scene of a post mortem in the afternoon.

Dr. Adamson was sixty years old. He had been in the ministry for nearly forty years and was regarded as one of the most forceful preachers in the denomination. For a time he was pastor of the Fletcher Methodist Church, Fifty-first and Master streets, the Third Street Church, Thirteenth street, and the Vine, and seven years ago he took the pulpit at the Mary Simpson Memorial.

Dr. Adamson's sermons were much talked of in the denomination. He frequently used objects in the pulpit to drive home a point. Once he had an X-ray machine erected to carry an object lesson. In the 1904 coal strike Dr.

Adamson obtained a supply of coal which he sold to the poor at a nominal cost. He is survived by a widow and brother.

Wills Probated

Wills probated today included that of Theodore Kolscher, 4611 Sherwood road, whose estate is valued at $75,000. The bulk of the estate goes to his widow, Sophia Kolscher. The will of Margaret Donnelly, 1709 Green street, leaving an estate of $17,000, was also probated. Letters were granted to administer the estate of Michael Dunn, 1501 West Lehigh avenue, which is valued at $64,000. The heirs are five brothers and five sisters.

Inventories were filed in the personal estate of Anna M. Sober, $640.72; George F. Bree, $77,307.75; and Elizabeth W. Fenon, $7146.18.

Strawbridge & Clothier Will Always Find the Best of the Extra Values in the Market

A Score or More of Models in New Tailored Cloth Dresses $25.00

A New Low Price

WONDERFUL VALUE—styles you have always thought of as belonging to higher-priced Dresses.

Three delightfully new long basque models with circular skirt and pretty touches of embroidery. Tunic models with lace or colored vests. A few blouse Dresses, very youthful and chic. Panel models—some with panels of tinsel-embroidered duvetine. And all variations of the straight-line models, many trimmed with tailored braids. Some have leather belts. The fine, high-grade styles women want, but never expected to find in Dresses at $25.00.

Jersey Dresses. Special at $20.00

Panel and tunic models, some with vees. Skirts and bodices elaborately embroidered. Navy, brown and black.

One Hundred Canton Crepe and Soft Satin Dresses. Special, $25.00

Remarkably under price are these lovely frocks in brown, navy and black, made in the slender, straight-line styles, beaded, embroidered or trimmed with silks in a contrasting shade.

The many needs of the busy months of November and December are so closely interwoven that we now regard these two months together as one PRE-HOLIDAY SEASON. We planned to have our stocks at their very best throughout the Store, and we have marked everything at the lowest possible price as based upon the lowest level of cost-prices reached since the days before the world war.

A very important feature of our plan is to make it convenient to supply the needs of this entire season—clothing, furniture, necessities, luxuries, or gifts—right now. That is, you need not make a division of the months as regards the character of the purchases, but may take advantage of the many special opportunities to buy gifts before December.

Buy Now, Pay January First

If you have a charge account here, all merchandise purchased from now until the end of December may be paid for the first of January, 1922.

We are opening many new charge accounts every day.

You Cannot Judge This Year's Suits by Last Year's Prices

Women are finding that out every day here. Prices are so much lower that they give little indication of the real worth of the Suits to those who have last year's prices in mind. Come to-morrow and see them for yourself:

Fur-Trimmed Suits, $75 to $125

Suits of duvet de laine, mousseyne, ravenna and veldyne. Black, navy and all the new blues, grays and browns. Belted and unbelted models of many types, models flaring from the shoulder; models handsomely trimmed with caracul, mokeskin, beaver and squirrel.

Suits, $35 to $65

Fine tricotine, wool velour, duvet de laine, mousseyne and various tweeds. Belted and unbelted models, plaited, pin-tucked and straight-line effects. Models with coats that can be worn with or without belt; conservative models on long, semi-fitting, finely tailored lines; models slightly flaring from the waist. Some Suits with fur collars, some with collars of self-material, in mannish effects and those that close snugly at the throat.

Even Mr. Pim Would Have Hesitated as He Passed By and Surely Have Turned for Another Look at

Miss Nowadays

Waist Her frock with velvet bodice and broad crepe skirt, its hemline demure or daring according to the point of view—waisted with the broadest of crepe ribbon.

Her cloak, one could not call such an inspiration, wrap of beige velour, edged with the narrowest of black fringes, its yoke close strewn with the most lifelike roses—her bonnet—trimmed with monkey fur, of course.

And not the least inspiring, her slender ankles, so full but ankles are long nowadays, clad in white silk stockings and leading to the most graceful of patent leather sandals.

These, assuredly, from HALLAHAN'S, for Miss Nowadays knows that here she always finds the most charming of the new models—at a price that is pleasantly low.

Her dainty sandals are of patent leather, black satin, gunmetal calf and black—made. New Spanish lower heel. Usually, $8.00
