

PACKING HOUSE WORKERS FACING PAY REDUCTION
 Plant Councils Asked to Consider Lower Wage Scale
 Chicago, Nov. 9.—(By A. P.)—A general cut in wages of packing house workers was forecast today when four of the big five—Armour & Co., Swift & Co., Wilson & Co. and the Cudahy Co.—requested their employees to consider, in the plant councils, a reduction in pay to be made effective in the near future. No definite amount was mentioned, and officials said their employees had not determined the size of the reduction to be sought.
 The big five, the only one of the Morris & Co., which has not established company councils, was expected to make a reduction which the others may follow.
 The Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Slaughter Workers' Union of North America recently took a strike vote in which a substantial majority authorized Curran Hayes, international president, to order a walkout if he was unable to reach a satisfactory agreement with the packers.
 The big five claim, however, that only a small portion of their men are union members and that a strike would seriously affect their plants. The union has never been recognized by the industry.
 The strike vote followed termination of the period of Federal arbitration established during the war, and under which Judge Samuel Alschuler, ap-
