Western Football Elevens Have Edge On Rival Representatives From the South and East

FOOTBALL TEAMS FROM PENN FRESH PLAN WEST AND SOUTH MAKE GREAT RECORD IN EAST

Chicago, Nebraska and Notre Dame Score Easy Victories and Centre College Puts Dixie on Gridiron Map. More Intersectional Games Next Year

By ROBERT W. MAXWELL Sports Editor Evening Public Ledger

INTERSECTIONAL football games have upset the dope in the East this year. proved beyond question that the game is just as far advanced and there are as many star players outside of what once was considered the exclusive district as in it. Judging from what imprened this season, one can see high class football played in the South and Middle West, the same as here in the East it was like the National or American League, the West could be compared to the American Association, and down South bush lengue football was played. In other words, there was no comparison. Each section was in its own class, and conditions did not change until the teams came East and proved ton and won by the score of 9 to 0. That triumph was unexpected and the Chicago team was looked upon with much respect. Then Centre College left its old Kentucky home far away, to do battle with Harvard, and socked the Crimson for a 6-to-0 verdict. More excitement and the South was placed on the official football map.

But mostler section was yet to be heard from. In the far West, meaning Nebraska, there was a large, busky football team, which had been allowed to play Pittsburgh. These Corn Huskers made a long journey to receive a terrible Incing, because Pitt was regarded as one of the best teams in this section. Basy victories over Syrgeuse and Penn were proof of this

However, Nebraska not only beat the strong, powerful Pauther rieven, but also outplayed them and showed some of the lest football of the year. The line, which averaged as we thus 200 pounds from end to end, completely outclassed the Pitt forwards and made it impossible to run off any plans. This victory was another big sarprise, even more se than the Notre Dame triumph

Notre Dame met what was believed to be one of the best Army teams in rears. Two weeks before, the Undets played a hard game with Vale, losing by the score of 11 to 7. As the Rige begated of a championship eleven, this close score indicated that the Army was not to be succeed at and Notre Dame would

UT, like the other intersectional games, the Westerners showed a

West Made Better Showing Than the South

THE West seems to have the edge because of the work of Chicago against Princeton, Nebraska against Pitt and Notre Dame against the Army. The South won one game but Centre's victory over Harvard never will be forgotten. It is soldon that Harvard is beaten in anybody for alone a team from

Other games between intersectional trams were not so good as the ones mentioned. Indiana made a poor showing at Harvard and North Carolina and Virginia also failed to show anything. Georgia Tech sent her powerful eleven against Penn State and lost, nor because the team was overrated, but because State was too good. Tech probably would have beaten any Eastern team on that day with the exception of State

Chlengo outplayed Princeton, making sexteen first downs to three for the Tigers. The outcome never was in doubt, and Stagg's men showed some very fine football. Centre outplayed Harvard in three of the four periods, making eleven first downs to seven for the Urimson. Nebraska put it all over Pitt and Notre Dame had a walk away at the Army. Therefore, it can be easily seen that the element of luck did not enter into any of these games and the

This is the best year the outside teams have had, and it means that more games will be arranged in the future. The West and the South have proved their right to challenge the East and no longer does this section rule supreme on the gridiron. It soon will be necessary to have these contests to pick a championship eleven at the end of the senson

RAPID transit has helped considerably. East trains can take a feam from Chicago to New York in less than a day, and it is the same with the Southern cities. A thousand miles mean nothing, and gengraphical kandicaps have been accreams. All of which means tootball will be a hinger and better name than ever before

Questions and Answers Department

INTRICATE plays are coming up frequently in football, and at times it is difficult to give the proper ruling. Sometimes three and four different interpretations can be given on a certain play, and the official finds himself at

Here is one submitted by Charles J. Corbin, of Philadelphia;

The side in possession of the bail punts from the 35-yard line to the 5-yard line. While the ball still is in the air, an opponent bats the ball over the goal line where he recovers it. The referce declared the ball dead while in possession of one of the defense belind his own goal line, and I would like to know whether the kicker's side should be given a safety or a touchback. The first thing to consider in this play is the position of the ball. It was in the air and a member of the defense batted it over his own goal line. A play like this does not come up very often, and there is a likelihood of the official ruling that it was a batted ball and give the ball to the offended side at the However, batting the ball in a case like this is legal, as explained in rule sixteen, section seven, that "a player at any time may but the ball in any direction except toward his opponent's goal line." This was toward his own goal line, so no penalty can be inflicted. Therefore the ruling must be made on the act of batting the ball over the line, where it is recovered by a member of the defending team. The impetus which sent the ball across the goal line came from the side defending the goal

THEREFORE, it is not be declared a salety and two points awarded to the kinking side. Copyright 1929. by Public Ledges Company

Everything is lovely on the golf horizon at Old Penn. The officials of this year's team have set about the task of turning out a winning combination. and it looks as if their efforts would not

A new idea in collegiate circles was propagated and a tournament open to all the upper classmen of the University was started. This tournament is now der way on the links of the Philadelphia Cricket Club.

The first round was played and resulted as follows:

Warthan defined Pathinson thuran de-feated Edelstein Conic defeated Russell-Rhonds defented Lowenbaum De Vinney de-seated to furna H. Lucas defeated Law-tence Ferner defeated Justi Robertshaw defeated Hain. Such defeated Killen, Sal-ada defeated Stewart: Williamson defeated Jakorn Norveil defeated Breast; Riley de-feated Summers, Rawnd defeated Larson. The winners will play each other in the second round with a two weeks' time limit on the tournament. The men have been handleapped for the match

The upper class fourney was so well received that a similar tournament was got up for the freshmen. The rooky material is so promising that a freshman team will be got up and a schedule played with various preposchools, such as Hill. Tome and others, which will make things hum on scholastic links.

The Pairings

The freshman tournament begins this week at Whitemarsh. The youngsters will play each other from scratch. Now Keen for Golf

Most of the oldtime stars are now keen on golf. On scattered links and courses you can find "Snake" Ames, Shep Homans, Brink Thorne, George Brooke and a long line of others dillgently plying wood and iron around the fairway.

"Snake" Ames, who was a great football player and a star baseball brilliant, also came close to the heights in golf while he was giving his game more attention some years ago. And ment of football is best shown by the those picking on Shep Homans, Allast change that has come over the American in 1890 and 1891, for any

WHAT a distance the All-American of 1920, as selected by Mr. Camp, had come from the first All-American of 1899.

That first team had eleven men from Yale, Harvard and Princeton. Last year Princeton was the only team that had two men-Lourie and Keck. The West had four and the South one. With Pittsburgh and Penn State included, the Atlantic seaboard had only four men, with Yale and Harvard each producing one seat on the big exchange.

All-Eastern or All-Western candidates will receive severe tests. The competition is now so keen that one bad game is likely to remove a contender from the ranks. Out of the entire lot we have seen to date, we cannot name one man who outclasses the rest at any one position, unless it is Stein, of Pittsburgh. There are other stars, but they all have excellent company. Convright, 1921. All rights reserved
