

JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE Nancy Wynne Tells of a Series of Talks and Dances for Young People—The Jacob Distons to Give a Dance for Visiting Hockey Team

I WAS interested to hear yesterday that Mildred Diston was married in Paris just a few days ago to William Elliott, of Baltimore. Mildred came out last year and her mother and only last spring she and her mother, Mrs. Samuel Allen Carter, Miss Bernadette, Miss Katharine B. Chase, before the Junior Club...

HAVE you heard about the series of dances which a number of prominent women in town are planning for members of the younger set? They are different from the ordinary, in that they will be a combination affair of political instruction, dancing and sports.

I SAW Jo Heeves on the street the other day looking very smart in a dark brown divyette suit made of the new rather long cut and finished with the neck with a dark fur piece. Her hair was of black satin, trimmed with folds of itself and topped with a black veil, which fell over the front to the bridge of the nose and over the side.

I HEAR that the Edgar Wright Bairds, who left yesterday for the Baird-Carrington wedding, which takes place this evening in Baltimore, will go to Washington after the wedding for the Armistice Day ceremonies. Quite a number of Philadelphians will go down for that occasion.

THE 8:30-to-12 idea is prevailing at a many of the smaller dances and the hostesses, girls and men who have recommended it deserve all praise in having done so. I hear the Jacob Distons have specified "8:30 till 12" on their invitations for a dance next Friday night in honor of the visiting English girls' hockey team.

MOHE and more engagements each day. Did you hear that Frances Ross is engaged too? When I say too, I mean that her older sister Elizabeth is engaged, as, of course, you know, to Benson Hooper. Frances' fiance is William E. Poole, a son of Mrs. George P. J. Poole, of 1128 Spruce street. Frances came out last year, you remember, and is very well liked.

THE fall cleaning was over and the servers taken down when Polly was put to bed the other night and seemed to be in a very bad way. Her mother took her to see if she could see her. "Mamma," said Polly, "did you say the angels were watching over me?" "Yes, dear," replied mother, "now go to sleep." "Why," continued Polly, "I wish one of 'em would keep these flies away so's I could get to sleep."

A wedding of interest will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock, when Mrs. George Fox, daughter of Mr. George Fox, of 301 Chestnut street, Chestnut Hill, will become the bride of Mr. George Morris Dorrance, son of Mrs. John Dorrance, of 2925 Walnut street. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. C. J. Baker, Jr., A. S., in the rectory of the Church of Our Mother of Consolation, Chestnut Hill. There will be no attendants.

The Chestnut Hill Academy football team will give its annual dance in the school gymnasium on Friday evening, December 2. The entertainers include Mrs. Samuel Houston, Mrs. George Woodward, Mrs. Edmund S. Jamieson, Mrs. Joseph Warr, Mrs. William E. Goodman, Jr., Mrs. Samuel J. Randall, Mrs. Harry S. Valentine, Mrs. J. Barry Colahan, 3d, and Mrs. Robert T. Bickel.

At the tea to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Egan Graham, of 1712 Spruce street, on Monday afternoon, November 21, at their home, followed by a luncheon at 12 o'clock, to present the debutante Miss Gertrude A. H. Giddens, will include Miss Elizabeth Ausubon, Miss Elizabeth H. Hatties, Miss Alice M. Bennett, Miss Virginia Hancock, Miss Eleanor T. Denning, Miss Hannah Isabel, Miss Bessie Grange, Miss Helen E. Frizer, Miss Virginia Hancock, Miss Rosemary D. Howe, Miss Margaret Anna, Miss Mary H. Miller, Miss Porter, Miss Albertine, Miss Bessie, Miss Barbara Kahl Heilly, Miss Jean B. Sarah Logan, Miss Rodgers, Miss O'Brien, and Miss Elizabeth Wayne. Miss Stewart will assist with the Miss Daine Sullivan, Miss Katherine Knight and Miss Elise du Pont.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sewell, of Ardmore, Hydal, have issued invitations for a dance party and supper at the Ritz-Carlton on Tuesday evening, November 22.
