Letters to the Editor

Conductor 1707

Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—I read two letters in your paper recently in which readers criticized the methods used by certain conductors employed by the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company. But in this company there are exceptions, but unfortunately only two.

Various Suggestions to Help the Unemployed

Cannot Live on Less

Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—I read in your issue of the 10th of November a list of suggestions to help the unemployed. I am sure that the majority of the unemployed are not willing to work for less wages, but are still waiting for work.

What We Owe Our Brothers

Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—We are daily reading of the great army of unemployed, do we ever ask ourselves "What do I owe my brother?"

Suggestions for Fair Titles

Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—I have a suggestion for the titles of the various exhibitions. I think the titles should be more descriptive.

Words of Song Wanted

Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—I have a request for words of song. I am looking for lyrics for a new song.

Prepare for Christmas Charity

Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—I am preparing for Christmas charity. I would like to know how others are preparing.

To Gain Employment

Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—I am looking for ways to gain employment. I would like to know what others are doing.

New "L" Service

Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—I am interested in the new "L" service. I would like to know more about it.

Are Gentlemen Scarce?

Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—I have read your column "Are Gentlemen Scarce?" and I am sure that the answer is yes.

Do They Want Work Badly?

Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—I am wondering if the unemployed really want work badly. I would like to know what others think.

Parcels for Troops Overseas

Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—I am interested in parcels for troops overseas. I would like to know how to help.

Grammatical Construction

Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—I have a question about grammatical construction. I would like to know the correct way.

Bombing Balloons

Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—I am interested in bombing balloons. I would like to know more about them.

Wants "The Dancer"

Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—I want "The Dancer". I would like to know where to find it.

Wants "The Dancer"

Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—I want "The Dancer". I would like to know where to find it.
