DEDICATION AT BYWOOD

Methodists Soon Will Have a Fine Church Edifice

Church Edifice Dedication services were conducted resterday in the Bywood Methodist Episcopal Church, Delaware County, a short distance from the Sixty-month street terminal of the Market street elevated. A parish building costing $20,000 will be created within the next few months and used by the congrega-tion until its large church is built. The Rev. Dr. George W. Henson, District Superintendent, preached the dedicatory sermon. The Rev. Dr. John Watchern, secretary of the City Mis-stonary and Church Extension Society, was the speaker at the evening service.
