in New York, will also receive. Isaatternoon at the Delmar Morris, Germanbel is Maria Dougherty's younger sister and a sister, too, of Percy Frazer, ter and a sister, too, of Percy Frazer, who married Ellen Glendinning a little more than a year ago. A number of debutantes will assist in receiving.

CRIHEN, too, there will be the wedding Morris Swope.

At the next meeting of Mrs. Charles Stewart Wuris' Dancing Class at the Bellevue-Stratford, to be given on Friday evening. November 25, the cotillon will be led by Mr. Henry Lear and Mr. Morris Swope.

THEN, too, there will be the wedding THEN, too, there will be the wedding of Joe Reeves and Harry Walton, in Germantown, this afternoon. It will be a very quiet wedding, for the Walton, you know, are in mourning for their father, the late Mr. Henry F. Walton, who died about six months ago. Jo is holidays with her parents. who died about six months ago. good-looking and attractive, and Harry Walton is very much liked. The Rev. Dr. William Bearty Jennings will perform the ceremony and Prim Reeves. lo's sister, will be her only attendant.

I SAW Helen Sewell recently looking extremely smart in a frock of black yelvet made with panels of narrow satin stripes down each seam. The bodice at the Church of the Covenant, Cynwyd, was cut in a round neck and a wide tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock. The stripes down each seam. The bodice was cut in a round neck and a wide girdle of black satin finished the frock. Her coat was a semi-cloak affair of dark blue, made with a wide collar of Taylor, Miss Myrtle M. Johnston, Mi dark blue, made with a wide collar of squirrel, and she wore a large black Marie A. Carrigan, Mr. Evan Spangler, Mr. Horace Ketcham, Mr. Donald Frost and Mr. Sydney Jay Hamilton, the bride cousin. Mrs. Pickford entertained the brides cousin. to the right side of the front edge and tained extending down below the waist-line of terday.

IT WAS nice to meet Mrs. Downing in town the other day; I mean Mrs. Thomas Downing, who was Mary Fox, you remember. She is a sister of Mrs. Arthur Brockie and Mrs. George Particles of the strength of the st Arthur Brockie and Mrs. George Parhere from Pittsburgh to attend the marrisge of her sister, Emily Fox. Emily and Dr. George Dorrance were married last Thursday afternoon, and are now on their wedding trip, and Mrs. Downing is staying on with her mother, Mrs.

orge Fox, for several days. She was married about five years ago and has lived in Pittsburgh since then, so we do not often see her. She is a charming woman. It was delightful to HEAR the annual concert for the benefit of the Stetson Hospital is to be held tomorrow night in the Stetson Auditorium. You know members of the Philadelphia Orchestra give their services for the affair each season and this year Mr. John Barclay, baritone, and Mina Dolores, soprano, will sing. The Countess Santa Eulalia is one of the the year to the welfare of the hospital. The Orchestra will play many other things, "Wotan's Farewell" and the fire music from "Die Walkure," Horter and Mr. Joseph Singleton.

Mr. Harry Short and Mr. Patrick Short, of 2321 South Seventeenth street, are spending a few days in Byrum, N. J.

EVERY ONE was shocked to hear of the sudden death of Mrs. George Gould in Lakewood on Sunday. She was playing golf with her husband before noon on their own links and was apparently in perfect health, when her heart suddenly gave way and she must have died almost immediately. She is the mother of Marjorie Gould, who married Tony Drexel, Jr., you know. They live in New York, but often visit here ive in New York, but often visit here live in New York, but often visit here as Tony's family lived formerly in this city, and they have many relatives here.

Another daughter, Vivian Gould, bered before her recent marriage us. married Lord Decies and lives in England. They are a most attractive family, and Mr. and Mrs. Gould were always ideally happy in their married life.

Every one who knows them will feel his sorrow keenly. THE cards for Alberta Reath's ten A are out. It's to be given at the Ritz-Carlton on the afternoon of December 3. Mrs. Albert Pancoast. Alberta's grandmother, and Mrs. Benjamin B. Reath, her mother, are issuing the invitations and the card of Mrs. Widener is inclosed. Mrs. Reath and Mrs. Joe Widener are sisters, you know. They were two of this city's greatest belies as Florence and Ella Panconst. The tea will be from 4 until 7 o'clock.

DANNY went to England with mother D and daddy. And Dan, who is five, got rather bored at all these Cathedrals that they seemed to want to visit.

"Why do you go t church so much?"
he asked. "I don't know what to do there. Muvver." "Say your prayers, dear," replied mother. The next Carbedral they will be a state of the control of the contro dral they visited, after a minute of prayer, they proceeded to look at all the wonders of architecture, but Danny was heard muttering to himself all the time. Finally mother bent down to listen and Danny was saying in a fierce tone of voice over and over again:
"Now I lay me, Now I lay me, Now J lay me."
