

Take Advantage of the Tempting Recipes Mrs. Wilson Has Gathered From Mammy
Potato Pudding Is a Famous Southern Dish Which She Prepares in an Original Way—Cranberries Make a Delicious Pie

NEAR Greensboro, Ga., over yonder from the new Dixie highway, stands Mammy's Mammy's cabin. Father Time has laid his hands heavily on Mammy Mammy, for she is badly crippled with rheumatism, and it's mighty nigh noon before Mammy feels like coming over to the big kitchens of Mrs. Atkinson.

Three generations of the family have eaten Mammy's delicious cooking and she still acts as a major-domo of the big kitchens. Her granddaughter, Sally Ann, trained by Mammy's master hand, does nearly all of this work. It is only when a special duty for some honored guest is needed that Mammy is really called upon to show that she is still able to be relied on to accomplish masterpieces.

Mammy's recipes are intensely interesting and only those who have had practical instruction from her could expect to be able to work them out. She makes a most delicious and delicate potato pudding with both yams and white potatoes, and her recipe, as she gives it, is as follows:

"It mostly 'pends as 't you want this yam puddin'—some folks likes it richer 'n' others, but Ah takes mine just about middlin'—as Ah takes a few yams, a pinch of flour and sugar, a few yams and Ah flavors 'em first with lemon and then with eggs and then Ah bakes 'em for 'bout an hour in an oven just so."

But this is really how she puts the pudding together:

Boil four medium-sized potatoes and then rub through a fine sieve into a bowl, and while hot, add:

Four level tablespoons of butter; this equals two ounces.
 Two-thirds cup of sugar.
 One-half teaspoon of nutmeg.
 One teaspoon of grated lemon rind.
 Yolk of two eggs.

Cream well together and then add two tablespoons of flour.
 Two cups of milk.

Beat the mixture with a Dover style egg beater to blend thoroughly and then rub a baking dish lightly with butter and pour in the mixture and add:

One-half cup of seeded raisins.
 One tablespoon of finely chopped candied citron.
 One-half cup of finely chopped nuts.

Place in a slow oven and bake for thirty-five minutes. Now whip whites of eggs until they will hold their shape and then beat in eight level tablespoons of sugar, and when sugar is thoroughly blended in, pile on top of the pudding and brown. Let cool and then serve. This can be divided into individual tins or custard cups.

Cheese Cakes
 Grate the rinds from two lemons very lightly and then place in a mixing bowl and add:

Two-thirds cup of finely sliced bread crumbs.
 Juice of three lemons.
 One-half cup of melted butter.
 One-half cup of finely chopped candied citron.

One-half cup of finely chopped raisins.
 One and one-fourth cups of sugar.
 One-half teaspoon of nutmeg.

Sift to blend thoroughly and then let stand while preparing the following mixture. Place in a saucepan:

One cup of water.
 Five level tablespoons of cornstarch.

Stir to dissolve and then bring to a boil and cook slowly for five minutes. Take from the fire and add yolks of two eggs. Beat hard and pour over the mixture in bowl. Stir to mix and then let cool. Now line individual party pans with plain pastry. Fill with the prepared mixture and bake in a slow oven for twenty-five minutes. Now while the cakes are baking, place the whites of eggs in a bowl and whip until they will hold their shape and then add: One-half cup of granulated sugar and while the mixture holds its shape, place a spoonful on each piece and brown lightly.

Georgia Cranberry Pie
 Slice large cranberries in thin slices and then line a shallow pudding pan with plain pastry. Place in a small bowl:

One and one-fourth cups of brown sugar.
 Four level tablespoons of flour.
 One-half level teaspoon of cinnamon.
 One-half level teaspoon of nutmeg.

Mix by rubbing between the fingers and then place a layer of the cut cranberries and sprinkle with one prepared sugar, then a layer of thinly sliced apples. Cover the apples with the prepared sugar and place thin coat layer of seeded raisins. Dot over the raisins with two tablespoons of butter.

Repeat layers and then cover with top crust and bake in a very slow oven for fifty minutes. Use one cup of cranberries in each layer.

Ham Pies
 Put through the food chopper sufficient cold cooked ham, trimmed from near the bone and butts that are too rough to slice, to measure two cups. Add one medium-sized onion to the ham while putting through the chopper, then turn in a mixing bowl and add:

One and one-half cups of mashed potatoes.
 One and one-half cups of very thick cream sauce.
 Two hard-boiled eggs, chopped fine.
 One-half cup of finely minced parsley.
 One-half teaspoon of thyme.
 One-half teaspoon of sugar.

Mix well and then line a pudding pan with plain pastry and turn the above mixture and then place inch-wide strips of pastry over the top to form a crust. Bake in a slow oven for one hour and then serve hot with parsley or tomato sauce or cold with parsley mayonnaise, made by adding: One-half cup of very finely chopped parsley to two-thirds cup of mayonnaise dressing.

Boiled Chicken Dumpling
 Singe and draw and cook an old fowl until tender and then let it cool in the gravy. Now place in mixing bowl:

Two and three-fourths cups of flour.
 One teaspoon of salt.
 Three teaspoons of baking powder.
 One-half teaspoon of pepper.

Sift to mix and then rub into the flour four tablespoons of shortening and mix to a dough with two-thirds cup of water. Roll out on a floured pastry board one-half inch thick and spread with chicken meat, picked from bones

Two and one-half cups of milk.
 Three-fourths cup of sugar.
 One-half teaspoon of ginger.
 Three-fourths teaspoon of cinnamon.
 One-fourth teaspoon of cloves.
 Three tablespoons of melted butter.
 Two eggs.

Use a Dover-style egg-beater and beat the mixture well, then pour in a baking dish and bake in a slow oven for one hour.
