The White House, November 14, 1921.

My Dear Mr. Martin:

The effort of the Welfare Federation of Philadelphia to consolidate and unify the great number of community and welfare agencies, through the plan of raising a single fund to be properly apportioned, is one which I am glad to approve. It seems to afford a method by which much of the extravagance attending charitable effort can be avoided and more efficient service assured. I trust Philadelphia's campaign may be completely successful.

Space contributed by Biddle & Henry.

Very truly yours, (Signed) WARREN G. HARDING.
