WHO SAYS FILM STARS CAN'T MARRY HAPPILY?

They Make Movie Bricks Out of Plaster of Paris

Did you know that most of the bricks used in construction of motion-picture sets are made of plaster of Paris? These bricks are made in slabs of thirty-five inch of one-quarter-inch thickness.

DAUGHTER OF THE SUN

A Tale of Adventure BY QUIEN SABE (Who Knows?)

THIS BEGINS THE STORY

Jim Kendrick, the devoted son, whose heart was broken when he found out that his father had been unfaithful to his mother...

With her left hand she quietly shook the box, setting the white substance dancing therein. "You lose, Jim," said Monte at his elbow before the cast was made.

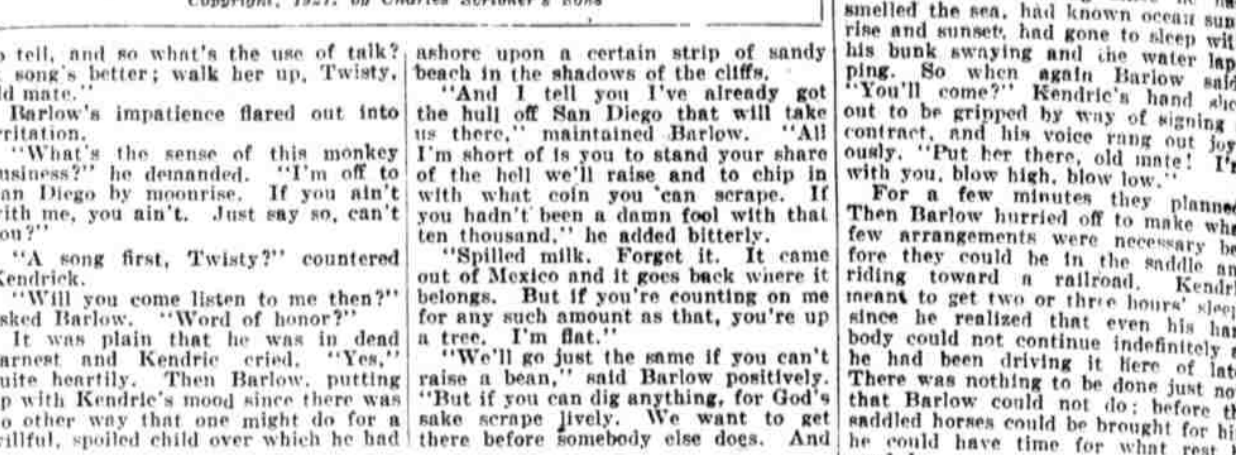

CHAPTER II In Which a Spell Is Worked and an Expedition Is Organized

For a moment she and Jim Kendrick stood facing each other with only the little table and its cargo of treasure separating them, engulfed in a great silence.

As yet I hadn't done it. I'd had a good start in that department with John, but now I couldn't help wondering if I had any more in me than I could carry with me.

I WAS on the verge of reporting. "I wish to goodness you would!" but it seemed more proper not to. So I went on and told him about how I'd written John a note and was going away, though I didn't know just where.

HE IS IN TRAINING NOW

to tell, and so what's the use of talk? A song's better; walk her up, Twisty, old mate.

Her gaze was steady and penetrating and held him motionless as she walked on, for he realized that he was tired in every muscle.

He leaned against a lamp post while Twisty Barlow, upright and eager, said his say. A colorful tale it was in which the reader was lavish with pearls and ancient gold.

There was something in Twisty's eyes, and his hair spotted with white, her eyes small and black and keen. He looked at her in surprise.
