The Saturday Before Thanksgiving Is Always a Busy Day Here

In an Interview Read Recently, Referring to Friendships of nations, it was stated that no matter how long present relations have continued, new conditions have gradually arisen which now require a thorough study, with a view to provide a perfection of safety and stability for the future.

We are making fine headway toward a world's peace.

Let us not stop until it is complete.

The American people stand back of the President and the Secretary of State.

More Fine Coats for Young Women—Special at $48 and $95

One—the $48 model—is for those who wish a fine coat of good material without fur. It is of thick, soft bolivia cloth in several shades of brown, black, navy or Sorrento blue.

It is finely made, warmly interlined and lined throughout in self-color satin. The yoke front is ornamented with heavy cable stitching, which runs over the low shoulder line and down the back. There is a belt and a becoming throw collar with long tasseled ends to throw over the shoulders.

At the special price of $95 are beautiful coats of wool duvetyne, with great shawl collars of unusually fine Australian opossum fur or of nutria fur in its natural golden brown color. These also are in black, several brown shades, navy and Sorrento blue, and are finely satin-lined and interlined.

Sizes 14 to 20 in each. (Second Floor)

An Unusually Fine Collection of Small Fur Scarfs

is now in the Fur Salon, offering a variety of choice, a fineness of quality and a reasonableness of price that can certainly not be excelled anywhere.

It is important to remember that there is a certain price below which furs worth having cannot be bought. Also, that the least-priced piece in this Store is chosen with exactly the same care and judgment as our costliest furs.

Gray squirrel scarfs start at $15. A scarf of good brown mink may be bought from $22.50 up; dyed fitch (in a two-skin scarf) from $30 up; stone marten from $40 up and Japanese marten, baum marten or Hudson Bay sable, each from $45 up.

These modestly priced scarfs are of surprising beauty and quality. (Second Floor)

Such Fine Bolivia Coatings at $6 a Yard Are Unusual

They are every bit wool, soft and deep in pile and, for their weight, they are surprisingly warm. Some of the handsomest coats and wraps of this Winter are being made from such bolivia coatings as these.

In all the good fashionable shades and in black, and 54 inches wide. Until very recently they were half again as much. (First Floor)

Women's Frocks of Chiffon Velvet for $38.50 to $57.50

No wonder they are in such high favor—chiffon velvet frocks can be worn inside a fur coat to a football game, to dinner, to the restaurant, or to the theatre afterward. They may be had in black, brown and navy, and are made up in half a dozen different models. Their sleeves vary from mere caps to full-length sleeves, and while some have only contrasting girdles for ornament, the others have nail-head or other beads; and one concentrates all its interest on its beaded and embroidered pockets.

Prices are $38.50 to $57.50—a great drop from those of last year. (First Floor)

About the Last of These Bolivia Coats at $55 and $67.50

At least that is what the manufacturer tells us. There are particularly good qualities of all-wool bolivia cloth used in both styles and he has no more of either material.

These are coats without fur, but with collars which can be worn high around the throat or lying flat so that a fur piece can be used with them. They are very warm coats, being interlined and silk lined throughout.

One model has a loose, flaring back and is belted in front. It comes in black and navy and is $55. The other is a coat style in a silky-finished bolivia and comes in Malay, black or blue, $67.50. (First Floor)

New Millinery Specially Priced at $10 to $15

$10, $12 and $15 seldom buy such charming hats as we shall have tomorrow for these prices. In quality of materials and attractive styles they are decidedly unusual.

A little hat of terra cotta silk velvet with silk rosettes and wings of velvet at the sides is $10.

So is a sapphire blue velvet turban with a silver flower on the brim.

A charming little hat of burgundy velvet with a shirred brim and a great chou of velvet on the front is also $10.

Another $10 hat is a smart toque of duvetyne and fur cloth in brown and tan.

A black panne velvet of graceful curved lines, encircled with black ostrich, is $12.

The others are equally attractive. It will be a fine opportunity to select a pretty and becoming hat for the Thanksgiving holiday. (Second Floor)

Young Women Needing Pretty Frocks for Thanksgiving Day

will find their own store filled with happy suggestions in tricotine, Poiret twill, canton crepe, Georgette crepe, satin, taffeta and brocade, in daytime and evening styles of a delightful girlishness and charm. $18 to $85 buys every kind of dress—though there are, of course, some of much higher quality here at higher prices. (Second Floor)

Women's Drop-Stitch Sweaters Brushed-Mohair Trimmed, $10

Less than half what they have been selling for, and this saving in price comes at a very opportune time for many women.

They are in the popular coat style with bell and have full-length tuxedo collars and cuffs of soft brushed mohair in a contrasting color. A gray sweater with tangerine or just the reverse, heliotrope with white, black with white, brown with tan or navy with tan. (East Aisle)

These Overblouses Choose Another Colored Sleeve

The front and back are in sober brown or dark blue crepe de chine or satin but the sleeves are of some such vivid hue as jade green, mohawk or the new tawny yellowstone.

You can imagine what such a blouse would do to a tailored suit of conventional type! Needless to say it is becoming to almost every woman because it has the graceful faculty of making her look younger.

There are two charming styles at $13.50. (Third Floor)

Blouses for Little and Big Girls

Little blouses, mostly white and mostly buttoning in the back and intended to wear with plaid skirts or sleeveless dresses or inside of sweaters, sizes 8 to 16 years, prices $1.25 to $7.50. Occasionally one of these is smocked.

Shirtwaists in sizes 32, 34 and 36. These, of course, buttoning in front, $3.25 to $4.75.

In both groups the materials chiefly used are lawn, dimity and batiste. (Third Floor)

Fancy Garters and Corset Bags

Satin-frilled garters in such plain colors as pink, blue, old rose, black and yellow, $1.25 to $2.25 a pair.

Garters in combination colors—black-and-rose and black-and-lavender—with made flowers, $1.50 a pair.

Garters in a variety of colors with ribbon flowers, $1.65 and $2.25.

Plain blue and white rubber garters with feather and flower trimming, $2.50.

Plain black garters with brushed wool flowers, $2.50.

Japanese silk corset bags, $5.75.

Plain organdie bags in various colors, $5.50. Small organdie bags, $1.50. (Third Floor)

Philippine Nightgowns for Large Women

Low-necked, of course; and several styles with kimono sleeves are $3.85, $4.50 and $5; another with set-in sleeves, $5.

Needless to say they are all hand-made and daintily hand-embroidered. (Third Floor)

Christmas Cards to Be Engraved

Now and not later is the best time to order them so that they may be done in good season.

There are very beautiful cards this year and a really wonderful assortment of new designs. From 50c to $6 a dozen and, of course, there is an additional charge for engraving the name from the plate. (Main Floor)

Fashion Demands a Necklace

Collarless necks on nearly all gowns make the pretty finish of a necklace almost essential. It may be quite inexpensive, yet so artistically chosen that it adds much to the effect of the gown.

These dainty necklaces are priced from 50c to $15. They include imitations of jade, coral, sapphire, topaz and other stones, as well as crystal and jet. (Main Floor)

Mourning Handbags of Fine Leathers

Seal leather in what is known as powder grain, long grain and bold grain and soft morocco. With frames and clasps of real gunmetal or gunmetal finish. Lined with gray or lavender silks.

Many shapes and sizes and at prices ranging from $4.25, for a purse to $22.50 for a large envelope handbag. (Main Floor)

The Winter Redleaf Gloves Have Come From London For Men, Women and Children

Just as a fine French glove stands for all that is most delicate and exquisite in handcoverings, so a fine English glove typifies the very perfection of smartness and elegance in street and outing gloves.

This is especially true of "Redleafs," the famous London gloves, sold exclusively at Wanamaker's in Philadelphia. New Winter importations, ready tomorrow, show finer, sturdier, softer and better skins than last year, cut with a perfection that puts them again in the pre-war class and priced generally considerably below twelve months ago.

For Women
Two-clasp oiseau tan capeskin gloves, fleece lined, at $3.50.
Two-clasp outseam suede sheep gloves, tan or gray, with seamless wool lining, at $4.

For Children
One-clasp suede sheep gloves, tan or gray, wool lined, at $2.50.

For Men
One-clasp or one-button tan capeskin gloves, outseam sewn, $3.25.
One-clasp or one-button suede sheep gloves, tan or gray, $3.50.
One-clasp tan capeskin gloves, outseam sewn, with seamless wool linings, $4.50.
One-clasp tan or gray suede sheep gloves, outseam sewn, rabbit lined, $6.
One-clasp tan or gray suede sheep or tan capeskin gloves, squirrel lined, at $13.50.
Strap-wrist automobile gloves, of extra heavy soft capeskin, black or tan, lined with natural lamb wool, $7.50.
Strap-wrist black capeskin gloves, rabbit lined, $7.50. (Main Floor)

THE master violet ray is the name of a little electrical appliance which can be used at home to relieve pain; it is being demonstrated daily and all day in the House Furnishings Store. Prices $12.50, $30 and $35. (Fourth Floor)

AT last we are getting the famous Lemaire opera glasses from Paris—and in pre-war variety. These glasses have from six to twelve lenses, are mounted with black morocco or mother of pearl, and cost $70 to $10 a pair. (Main Gallery)

Honfleur Toilet Articles at Little Prices

Women who know these excellent toilet preparations are always glad to stock up on them at these low-price dispensals:

Extracts, violet, rose and l'Empire, 50c bottle.

Toilet waters, violet, l'Empire and Bouquet Amour, 50c and 85c bottle.

Vegetal, lilac and wistaria, 75c a bottle.

Cleansing cream, 40c jar.

Youth and beauty cream, 40c jar.

Skin cream, 40c jar. (West Aisle)

Petticoat Specials

Silk jersey petticoats in solid colors with fancy flounces, $3.85.

Changeable satin petticoats with ribbon-trimmed flounces, all in good colors, $5.50. (Third Floor)

Here Are the Overcoats That Men Want

They are here in hundreds and hundreds and hundreds. Of all the kinds of ready-to-wear garments for men, these are overcoats of the kind that we like to sell, because they are the kind that make the future of any store that sells them safe.

Their good quality will be remembered by men who buy them. That is the proof of a good article—the quality that makes one remember it and talk about how good it was.

These coats are not priced any higher than coats that are by no means as good—$28 to $100.

They are in ulster models, belted and semi-belted, and they come in every color, pattern and style that any man or any young fellow can desire. (Third Floor)

Additions to the Men's $7.50 Silk Shirts make selection good for those who are choosing these shirts for gifts, than which there is nothing more welcome to a man.

Made of broadcloth silk in a good weight and in beautiful designs of colored stripes, these are truly handsome shirts for $7.50.

Even our finest ready-to-wear silk shirts are no more than $10 this year. (Main Floor)

Men's Handkerchiefs $4 a Dozen

The kind many men buy for themselves, for they are just the sort of good practical handkerchief a man likes.

They are a nice grade of Irish linen, plain hem-stitched and intended for long wear and many tubings. In generous size, too. (West Aisle)

Men's Union Suits for Winter

Just before Thanksgiving is a recognized time for men to get their Winter underwear.

Medium or heavy ribbed cotton union suits, $3.50.
Medium natural wool and cotton, $3.75.
Medium or heavy part wool, $5.
Medium or heavy Swiss ribbed lisle, $5.50.
Moderately heavy mercerized lisle, $6.50.
Medium or heavy fine wool-and-cotton mixed, $7.50.
Medium ribbed silk and lisle, $15. (Main Floor)

Comfort and Service in These New Wool Blankets at $13.50 a Pair

White blankets, woven of California wool, warp and filling, with borders in either pink or blue and finished with a soisette binding.

Full weight, 5 lbs., full size, 70x82 inches, moderate price, $13.50 a pair.

Also a new lot of plaid all-wool blankets in large block designs, in pink, blue and gray, bound with a colored soisette to match the plaid—$12 a pair, in full size, 70x82 inches, weight, 5 lbs. (Sixth Floor)

EVERYBODY who breaks his glasses arrives at the same conclusion the moment the thing has happened—he will never, never again do without duplicates. He might next remember that the Wanamaker Optical Goods Store fills oculists' prescriptions rapidly and carefully. (Main Gallery) are here in good assortment for those who plan to give bicycles for Christmas.

Three Leading Bicycles

The Columbia, a make that has been standard for a generation, in models for men, women and children, $40 to $75.

The Continental, for men, women and children, $35 to $42.50.

The America, also in models for the whole family, $37.50 to $45.

All equipped with heavy road tires, coaster brake, mud guards, rear stand and tools. (The Gallery)

65c and $1 Neckties Plenty Fine Enough for Gifts

Why not? You will go far to match the $1 ties at their price and you can't go far enough to match the 65c ties.

These latter are made of odds and ends of silks ordinarily used in neckwear for double this price, or more.

Wide selection in both groups. (Main Floor)

"Jermyn Street" Is a Fine Soft Hat for Men

So fine in fashion and pleasing in color that we have difficulty in keeping up with the demand for it.

It is made especially for this Store after a style that came out of London, where it is high in favor with well-dressed men.

The price is $6. (Main Floor)

Five Good Shoes for Conservative Men

All plain, straight lace styles; the sort of shoes business men like for everyday wear.

In tan calfskin on straight English last or with somewhat wider toe, $10.50 a pair.

Of black calfskin in the same styles, $10 a pair.

Black kidskin in the wider toe shape, $10.50 a pair. (Main Floor)

A Chest of Silver Means Something for the Family

It means something that will be used every day, year in and year out, and that finally rises to the dignity of an heirloom. One can well choose a better starting point for a collection of family silver.

Among some of the beautiful patterns in sterling silver in the Jewelry Store are the following. The prices start at $153 for a 42-piece chest and go up gradually to $565 for one with 104 pieces:

Washington	Clovelly
Hoppelwhite	Dorothy Quincy
Mary Chilton	Lady Mary
Fairfax	King Albert
Portsmouth	Clermont

Some Wonderful Boys' Suits With Two Pair of Trousers—$16.50 and $18

Between 300 and 400 of these suits have just come in. They are so remarkably good at their prices that we hope everybody with a boy needing the best and most serviceable kind of low-priced suit will see them.

Without doubt they are the best values in quite a few years.

Norfolk styles in a splendid choice of grays and browns—all good, sturdy, pure-wool fabrics, neatly modeled, cut on liberal lines, well tailored and lined throughout—in a word, made for looks, durability and service.

The suits at $18 have double knees, seats and elbows. Every suit in the lot has two pair of trousers.

Sizes for boys of 8 to 15 years, at $16.50 and $18. (Second Floor)

Noble Carvers for the Noble Bird

A fine, keen, business-like carving knife is a great thing at the Thanksgiving dinner.

Here is a collection to meet every requirement.

Knife and fork with stag handles, boxed, $3.25.

Knife, fork and steel, white ivory handles, Sheffield steel blades, boxed, $4.50.

Stainless Sheffield steel knife, fork and steel, white ivory handles, boxed, $10.

Stainless steel game carver with fork to match above set, $7.50.

Steak, game and chop carvers, with stag handles, $4.25 a pair.

Special imported poultry shears, full nickel plated, $2 a pair. (Fourth Floor)

The Wanamaker Toy Store is a great big place, but along toward Christmas it gets pretty crowded. If you want the children to see all the sights and see them most comfortably, better come in tomorrow. (Seventh Floor)
