On Monday We Shall Sell $242,000 Worth of Hosiery and Winter Underwear for $121,000

Men, Women and Children Can Get All They Need for Months Ahead at Average Half Price

The importance of this sale cannot be overrated. Its size speaks for itself and you have the Wanamaker warranty of its values.

The fact that it will be probably the greatest sale of hosiery and underwear ever held is of less interest to the public than its timeliness and its wonderful advantages.

Nearly everything in it is fresh, perfect and in a complete range of sizes to start with; but there are a few broken lots taken from regular stock and some "seconds," which are priced lower for that reason.

Plenty of space, plenty of salespeople and everything else that makes for quick and satisfactory service.

There Are Few of Us Who Have Never Found a Man in the course of a lifetime who did not know something worth knowing of which we were ignorant.

For men to be gruff and offish with each other without reason is not only bad manners, but deprives them of the privilege of helping each other to climb the high hills that often confront us.

Women's Lovely Evening Gowns Are $50 to $77.50

And those prices are late season prices—the identical models sold for $10 to $20 more a few weeks ago. The gowns are all fresh from the manufacturer's hands—dinner gowns, theatre gowns, gowns for the opera—and the materials, chiffons, Georgette crepes and chiffon velvets, besides velvet broaded chiffons, are all of the loveliest; the last named are imported. It isn't any use to describe such dresses; to begin with, there are hardly two alike, and their beauty is as much in their color as in their texture and cut. There are hyacinth blue-Georgette gowns with opalescent beads; there are fuchsia colored chiffons; a gown of Callot red with fluttering sleeves is like a japonica blossom; there are rust and tangerine colors and the pure wonderful greens, and cream colors and brown with iridescent brown beads, as well as black.

They are quite the most wonderful things we have seen this season for their prices—$50 to $77.50.

(First Floor)

Changeable Silks Are Lovely at All Times of the Day

But the artificial light seems to bring out all the many shadings of color and makes them even prettier, if such a thing is possible.

It is no wonder, therefore, that both lace taffeta and gros de Londres should be prime favorites for evening frocks. They are very, very fashionable this Winter. There is scarcely anything better for fine linings and for making many kinds of dainty Christmas gifts.

Glace taffetas are 40 inches wide and $2.50 a yard.

Gros de Londres is 36 inches wide and $3 a yard.

(First Floor)

Satin Hats With Just a Touch of Fur

are among the most attractive of this season. They are a far cry from the heavy-looking fur hats of older days. Just enough fur is used delicately to give its richness and softness as a garniture—here a soft band of gray squirrel, there a dark tail or two, or again a little beaver or mole or a dash of the always effective black monkey fur.

A number of these new fur-trimmed satin hats will appear in the Millinery Salons Monday. They are very effective in line, and are priced from $20 upward.

(Second Floor)

Brocaded Duvetyn Bags With Rhinestone Clasps

These six words form a picture that any woman can see.

Shapely handbags of rich satin-brocaded duvetyn in black and dark blue, lined with contrasting color silk and with heavy silk cord handles, ornamented with tassels.

In the center of the covered frame is a brilliant clasp of rhinestones and sterling silver. The effect is charming.

Price $18.50.

(Main Floor)

Women's Strap-Wrist Washable Capeskin Gloves

Made of South African capeskin, sturdy and durable, yet as soft and flexible as kid. Full five-inch tops, outseam sewn, with variously stitched and embroidered backs. All are washable.

Tan, brown, gray, heaver and butternut, at $5 a pair.

Pearl, heaver, brown and several tans, at $4.25 a pair.

(Main Floor)

Black Satin Slippers for Day or Evening Wear

One advantage of a black satin slipper is that it goes equally well to afternoon or evening functions, and with almost any gown.

Five different models in black satin slippers of dainty lines and fine workmanship are priced $8, $9.75, $11, $13.50 and $16.

All are one-strap models, buttoning at the side, excepting the $16 slipper, which is a two-strap sandal, buttoning in the center. They include low and high French heels and Spanish heels; medium, narrow and round toes; long and short vamps.

(First Floor)

Wide Decorative Ribbons $2.25 a Yard

Just in and most timely for making up into attractive bags of all kinds for Christmas gifts.

One design is entirely of gayly colored butterflies, another is rose. There are gorgeously brocaded and fascinating Oriental patterns. From nine and a half to eleven and a quarter inches wide.

(Main Floor)

Once More Sewing Cases in Bronze Leather

Most women know only too well how scarce these cases have been during the past few years. It was almost impossible to get the bronze leather.

It is good news to hear that they are again here and just as pretty and practical as ever. The assortment is very satisfactory, big and little sewing boxes, roll-up cases and spoolers, all hand made, and from $1.15 to $10.

Next Tuesday Morning an Unlooked-for Sale of Bedroom Furniture

We are going to open a sale next Tuesday morning that will bring 10,000 Pieces of Bedroom Furniture at 25 Per Cent Less Than Latest Market Prices

These goods are a new purchase from a Philadelphia manufacturer who specializes in moderately priced bedroom furniture. Actual experience of his goods during many years has proved their excellence beyond any doubt.

Please Note the Day—
Next Tuesday, November 22

(Sixth Floor)

2000 Yards Corduroy—Special at 65c a Yard

A very nice quality and in the medium wide which is so much used for women's skirts and negligees and for children's coats or small boys' suits.

It is 28 inches wide and may be had in these desirable shades, white, rose, heaver, tan, gray, brown, navy and black.

(First Floor)

French Beaded Overblouses Special at $15

Quite elaborately beaded, both back and front and on the sleeves, and the material is a very nice Georgette crepe in navy blue or brown.

One other thing about these blouses that many women will appreciate is that they are quite long, coming well down over the skirt. They would go with a tailored suit or a separate skirt and, in either case, be a great addition to the wardrobe.

(Third Floor)

Children's Warm Coats $8.50 to $25

For children of one to six years we have a new collection of warm and well-made coats, in broadcloth, chinchilla, serge and soft wools, some with fur-trimmed collars. Navy blue, brown, tan, rose and other colors are included.

Prices begin with a pretty little smoked coat of broadcloth at $8.50, and go to the satin-lined and fur-trimmed broadcloth coat at $25. The sturdy coats of wool chinchilla start at $12.

(Third Floor)

40c for Twelve Yards of Valenciennes is a remarkably small price—and opportune, considering how much these imitation laces are wanted for the making of Christmas gifts and lingerie. The laces include edges, insertions and beadings, and are one-half to one inch wide. Find them in the Lace Store on the

(Main Floor)

8000 Yards of Curtain Marquisette 30c a Yard—Extraordinary

We bought all the dealer had and we are offering it at about 10 per cent less than this season's price.

In white, ivory and ecru, and made with an inch and a half selvage to represent a hem.

(Fifth Floor)

Good Linen Table Cloths and Napkins at Low Prices

That is the whole story of these goods, and considering what market conditions are and have been, it is a good story, especially since it is a true one.

These cloths and napkins are a recent arrival and they come in a choice of several good designs.

Table cloths, 70x70 inches, $5.75; 70x88 inches, $7.50.

Napkins to match, 22x22 inches, $7.50 a dozen.

(First Floor)

High-Necked Nightgowns

Some women like them immensely for Winter; and these have varieties of high necks—V-shaped, square and round. Made of cambric of ordinary weight, their prices are $1.65 to $3.85; of heavier cotton, $1.75. All of them have tucks and embroidery trimming.

(Third Floor)

Good Fiction

Here is a new and more than welcome story by Hugh Walpole, "The Young Enchanted," a romance of that strange year 1920 in that strange town London. Price $2.

"To Him That Hath," by Ralph Connor; price $1.75. A novel of the West of today.

(Main Floor)

There Are No Finer Rugs Made in America

than these finest Wiltons, and none of more decorative value. Patterns and colors in these newest arrivals are a delight.

High-grade Wilton rugs in 9x12 size, $110 and $120.

Standard Wilton rugs, 9x12 ft., $75, $84 and $90.

(Seventh Floor)

Men's Scotch Grain Bluchers With Full Brogue Toes

A type of street shoe that some men prefer to any other because of the satisfactory way in which it combines good looks and comfort.

These are in tan Scotch grain with stout soles, wide shanks and low, broad heels.

Price, $14 a pair.

(Main Floor)

Noteworthy

The pure, vivid greens like lettuce and emerald and humming bird, fawn brown, marine and peacock blues, bluebell, gold and silver are among the new shades shown in our $3.50 silk stockings.

(First Floor)

Japanese table mats in sets of three to six, oval, round and square, may be had for 45c to $1.25 the set.

(Fourth Floor)

The finest rush bags for many years are coming to us from Sicily and Czechoslovakia—$1 to $2.50. They are used for knitting and shopping, and so are the lighter Chinese baskets that suggest hat crowns—these last are $1.25.

(Fourth Floor)

Table decorations consisting of artificial rosebuds and nasturtiums in silvered pastedboard holders are 75c.

(Fourth Floor)

Something new is a tray-shaped wooden molding with a metal insert to hold eight narcissus bulbs planted in pebbles. Tray and bulb are $1. Smaller trays with fewer bulbs are $3. Bulbs in boxes and various containers, 35c to $5.50.

(Fourth Floor)

Gift boxes of household aids hold rubberized apron, sponge cloth, paint cloth—eleven kitchen usefuls in all—and cost $3.25.

(Fourth Floor)

A new style of revolving table tray is larger than the old Lazy Susan, stands lower, will not tip, and costs little—$13.50 and $15.

(Fourth Floor)

It is to Be Noted That—

The splendid scope and very low prices in this Sale will undoubtedly induce dealers to purchase.

Everybody may buy at this sale, but we reserve the right to limit dealers, should their purchasing interfere with the opportunities of our regular retail customers.
