ALL BUT BRADY SEE FATTY FREED

FILM MILLIONS AT STAKE Prosecutor Striving Desperately Against Great Odds to Present Strong Case

By BART HALEY

At the Evening Public Ledger Editorial Staff... before the unskilled policeman flutters a languid hand to indicate the way to the court where Fatty Arbuckle is on trial for the part he played at the death of Virginia Rappe...

The dim, unmistakable fragrance of burning money is in the spring-like air. There is everywhere the suggestion of intangible forces at work below the surface...

The prosecutors are fighting on a ground that has a bewildering way of slipping from under their feet at every second step. Mrs. B. Maud Delmont was their chief witness...

Witnesses Hidden Away Miss Provoost will be called to the stand today. Miss Blake probably will testify tomorrow...

An understanding of what is afoot comes to you as those new concepts of the dainty dawn semi-annually on H. G. Wells...

There is no mistaking the wide tolerance, the grim good humor or the enormous weight of the "presence" which is making strange medicine of the very atmosphere...

Wall street—or, rather, that part of it which is interested in the films—is doing what it can in a legitimate way to restore Fatty to par...

There is a lady here with a headed bag, and she speaks the language that they speak behind the scenes at Arbuckle's G. H. Q...

CHANDLER ADMITS HE DREW $153,000 FROM FAILED FIRM

Frederick T. Chandler, Jr., Acknowledges Interest in Firm Didn't Cost Him a Cent

NEW HOME WAS PAID FOR BY CHECKS FROM CONCERN

Did You Personally Ever Put Any Money into the Business?

When Your Father Died You Acquired His 51 per Cent Interest?

At the time of your father's death his only asset in the business was his good will?

Isn't it a fact you drew cash amounting to $60,449.50 from your account in the business...

In 1920 you drew out in cash then the following: Out of the investment account $110,700...

That is correct, was the reply. "In 1918 your father's withdrawals were only $2,422.00...

In addition you drew out in the form of a grand total drawn out during 1918 to 1920 of $153,631.47...

Chandler looked back in his chair and sighed heavily. Some of his answers were whispered...

Says Wife Paid Bills

Will you explain to the referee what you did with it, taking into consideration you paid nothing back for losses sustained by Chandler Brothers & Co...

I paid $50,000 income tax in 1919, Mr. Chandler replied. This was understood to be the firm's income tax...

The balance of the witness resumed. I spent in insurance premiums and in the cost of living...

So that's your only explanation, is it? Yes.

Who paid for the furnishings of your new home in Astoria?

Mrs. Chandler.

Where did she get the money from?

She has her own income besides the money I give her.

What part of the furniture bought in your name and charged to you and paid by you?

BRAND SAYS FRANCE WILL REDUCE ARMY

To Cut Former Strength in Half, Premier Declares

TO KEEP SUFFICIENT FORCE FOR SAFETY Sees Peril of Attack by Germany, Which Could Raise 6,000,000 Men

REAL DESIRE FOR PEACE

French Spokesman Asserts Danger Lurks From Berlin and Russia

By the Associated Press Washington, Nov. 21.—Germany, while apparently disarmed...

Although a part of Germany evidently wants peace and is ready to get back to peaceful pursuits...

France, Premier Briand declared, proposed further reductions in her army which would bring it to half its former strength...

The speech of M. Briand followed an introductory talk by Chairman Hughes, in which he presented the land armament question...

As soon as the chairman had concluded M. Briand arose and delivered his stirring address.

France could not put down her arms under present circumstances, declared Premier Briand, because she cannot openly touch her national integrity...

America, said M. Briand, must see France through unclouded glasses before it appraises the situation in its true light. The picture presented by Europe after the victory was hard to visualize...

Critics had said, the Premier continued, that France sought a military ascendency in Europe, but he asserted the intention was only a cruel reproach, especially coming after he recanted in the war.

Every one who knows France, he continued, knows the truth of the accusation. He asserted that if ever there was a country committed to peace it was France.

The Premier's address, which he asserted was only a cruel reproach, especially coming after he recanted in the war.
