

CHIEF PLENTY. He is being well entertained in Washington and New York. It was he who represented the Indians of the United States at burial of America's "unknown" at Arlington. Kaiser & Herbert

BUSY DAYS. Secretary of State Hughes hurrying to meeting of Disarmament Conference. International

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY HONORS FOCH. The French war hero is shown with Ambassador Jusserand. They are listening to a story being told by Nicholas Murray Butler, head of Columbia. Central News Photo

IT WAS BOUGHT FROM ITALY. The "Roma," the largest semi-rigid air vessel in the United States, starts on trial flight at Langley Field, where it was assembled after being shipped from Rome. Seventy miles an hour is its speed. International CLARA COOPER AND ESTHER SCHLEGEL. IN SCHOOL PLAY. Hundreds of relatives and friends saw the excellent production of "The Frolic of 1921" by the girls of the Germantown High School.

MARY MORRIS

HENRIETTA GALBLUM

THEY'LL SING AND DANCE. Members of the Alumnae Association of the William Penn High School will present "Tangles" on Tuesday and Wednesday. From left to right, Anna Jasner, Lillie Bernhang, Genevieve Wallington, Anjelo Scallala, Irene Hirtz, Esther Hirsch, Matilda Marks and Jean Clark.

DR. A. G. KYNETT (LEFT) AND CHARLES H. MASLAND. The old St. George's M. E. Church celebrated the event yesterday. Dr. Kynett preached. Mr. Masland is one of oldest members. Dr. Hughes is pastor and Dr. Crider is his associate.

THE REV. DR. JACOB S. HUGHES

THE REV. DR. GEORGE A. CRIDER

NO-DECISION CONTEST. Belcher, quarterback for Drexel Institute, getting away with the ball on the Strawbridge & Clothier field in the game against Gallaudet College.

BEWARE, MR. BANDIT. This United States mail car is carrying a deadly repeating shotgun as he walks to and fro in front of the Penn Square Post-office, at Fifteenth and Market streets.

MISS BERTHA CANTACUZENE will make her debut in Washington. C. N. P.

A PRIZE WINNER. Becky Lanier, of New York, continues to add prizes to her long list for 1921 shows. She was photographed at the National Horse Show in Central Park, New York. Central News Photo

WINFORD LE FAVRE, 1327 East Price street, Germantown, operates a machine that presses bushings into crankcases for motorcycles at the Broadway Cycle Company, 527 Market street.

EDWARD SCOTT, Sicklerville, sweet potatoes. FIRST PRIZE WINNERS. These school children of Camden County were exhibitors at the tenth annual agricultural and home-making contests, held at Laurel Springs, N. J., on Saturday.

GRETCHEN C. FISHER, Lucaston, bread.

WILLIAM CONOVER, Laurel Springs, corn.

WILLIAM F. ALBERT, in charge of safety deposit department of the North Philadelphia Trust Company. He is married and lives at 1717 Butler street. Baseball is his hobby.