

BANKER IS HELD IN DEATH BY AUTO

Car of Linford C. Nice, Oak Lane, Said to Have Been in Crash at 61st and Market

FOUR OTHER ACCIDENTS

Linford C. Nice, 1003 Melrose avenue, Oak Lane, vice president and cashier of the Northwestern National Bank, and John Watson, 345 North Fifth street, were held without bail to await action of the coroner this morning, following the death of Wilbur Ebert, twenty-five, in an auto crash at Sixty-first and Market streets last night.

Ebert was riding in a car driven by Watson when a collision with Nice's car hurled him on to the pavement. He died a few hours later in the Misericordia Hospital. Watson was arrested at the spot. Nice was picked up later at his home.

At the Fifty-fifth and Pine streets station, where Watson was taken, Dr. W. F. Seibold, police surgeon, declared him intoxicated.

A man was killed by a train and four persons injured in yesterday's accidents.

Struck and run over by a freight train on the tracks of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway, near his home, early yesterday morning, Albert Thompson, forty years old, 7513 Buisar avenue, received injuries which caused his death.

As Thompson stepped upon the tracks the train crew called to him, but he failed to hear the warning. The wheels of the freight car passed over his body.

Stanley Skilozowski, eight years old, 2970 Melrose street, was struck by a machine driven by Andrew Newhouse, 4433 Richmond street, while playing on Richmond street near Indiana avenue.

Newhouse took the boy to the North-eastern Hospital and later surrendered to the police of the Belgrade and Clearfield streets station.

The morning services were finished at the Catholic Church of the Maternity. Bustleton, yesterday, when Mrs. Mary Kintler stepped out to the pavement. She was about to cross the street when an automobile driven by Martin Keenan, also of Bustleton, drove up before the entrance of the church and threw her to the ground. She was taken to the Frankford Hospital by Keenan, who later surrendered to the police of the Tacony station. Mrs. Kintler is deaf and dumb.

James Capper, twenty-two years old, 2847 Mulholland street, received a fracture of the skull when an automobile driven by his brother, A. Capper, nineteen years old, 3311 North Fifty-seventh street, collided with another machine driven by Frederick Dumont, of Woodwood, N. J. The accident happened at Sixty-six and Jefferson streets. Both drivers were arrested and will be given hearings today. James Capper was taken to the Misericordia Hospital.

While playing in front of her home early last night, Cora Finard, five years old, of 4421 Lancaster avenue, was struck by an automobile driven by Linford Booz, 1433 North Fifty-ninth street. Booz took the child to the Misericordia General Hospital and later surrendered to the police of the Peach and Media streets station. He will be given a hearing before Magistrate Dugan this morning.

Two Sons Benefit Under Will of Former City Controller

The will of S. Davis Page, lawyer and former City Controller, bequeathed an estate valued at $223,859 to two sons, Howard W. and William B. Page, and a daughter, Mrs. Ethel N. P. Lorenz.

Mr. Page lived at Drexelton and Ardmore avenues, Chestnut Hill. He formerly was in the bonding business. One of his employees, a year ago, was former Mayor Thomas B. Smith, who named a son, Davis Page Smith, after Mr. Page.

The will of Edward A. Noppel, assistant postmaster general, who died on Friday, November 19, also was probated. It bequeathed a $10,500 estate to his son, Edward P. Noppel.

A $10,000 estate was bequeathed to a widow and two children in the will of Donato D'Orazio, 1130 Elmworth street, a merchant, who was stabbed to death about ten days ago. Letters of administration were granted for this estate.

Other wills probated were those of Samuel H. Gill, 344 West Dyal street, $20,000; Justina Hay, 1818 West Toga street, $50,000; Philip Stanola, $70,000; and Emma Wiltner, $20,000.

Inventories were filed for the estates of John J. Fleming, $15,000 and Louis J. Baratta, $17,371.20.

NEW TASK FOR POSTOFFICE

Will Help Relatives Locate Their Lost Friends

Postmen started today assisting relatives locate lost friends. The latest step in the humanizing postal system by Postmaster General W. H. Hayes.

The postal employees will recognize each case and when combined with their own knowledge, will make inquiries of other Postmasters and advise interested relatives.

Mr. Hayes, however, wants the Postmasters against interfering in family private affairs. They will only investigate such cases as are reported to them.

AGAIN TRY TO ROB TAILOR

Shop at 2848 Richmond Street Entered Twice Within Two Days

For the second time within two days an attempt was made to rob the tailor shop of William G. Gorman, 2848 Richmond street, at 1:30 this morning.

Late Saturday night the store was entered and clothing and shoes, valued at $250, were taken. This morning the store was entered and the burglar and Clearfield streets station saw a man in the shop with a lighted candle. He ran out the back way when he heard the patrolman at the front.

Berwick ran around to the rear and chased the man through Salmon and Auburn streets, where he fired two shots after him. He believes that one of them took effect, although the man escaped.

A Christmas Gift which bears the name of Bailey, Banks & Biddle Company is sure to win the dearest appreciation, for this firm has held for many generations a high reputation on account of the superiority of their Jewelry, Silvers and Stationery.

Deborah Logan

IT IS a pleasure to visit the shops these days, there are so many attractive articles, gifts ready for Christmas. As you go through the store of Bailey, Banks & Biddle Company, you will be delighted with the many new and lovely articles in every department.

Jewelry, exquisite in design and workmanship—rings, earrings, necklaces, watches, etc.—fine stationery, especially appreciated when monogrammed.

Beautiful clocks of all sizes, including the wonderful hall clocks with chiming and silversware. I have told you before of Bailey's famous collection of silver, which is even more complete than ever.

When you hear a man spoken of as "the sort of chap who always looks well groomed," you know that he must be well-tailored. He is the man who will make a pleasing impression wherever he is introduced.

And the man who lays his clothes from the firm of Macdonald & Campbell, 1212-29 Chestnut Street, will be recognized on account of his smart appearance. Have you seen their remarkable, large and inclusive assortment of suits? They are well worth your serious consideration, for at $20 and upward they are of exceptional value—finished and unfinished suits, coats, cashmere and cloth.

While the tailors' clothes, made exclusively for Macdonald & Campbell out of imported English fabrics, are extremely fine looking.

IT IS always so difficult to choose a Christmas gift for a man, most things he prefers to select for himself. But I have found something at the store of J. Franklin Miller, 1212 Chestnut Street, which I am sure he will like. It is a leather case containing all sorts of handy tools, all of which fit into the handle of a folding knife which holds the central position. The tools are well made of fine steel and very conveniently arranged. You will see many articles at Miller's which will please him.

And for women? A case of several pairs of women's decorated, ornate boxes, each with a different design, and a case of several pairs of women's shoes, each with a different design, and a case of several pairs of women's shoes, each with a different design.

ORIENTAL RUGS—beautiful in design, rich in coloring and every one different. Is there anything that gives you more pleasure to select for your home and more satisfaction after you have procured it? At the store of Fritz & LaRue, Inc., 1612 Chestnut Street, you will find an unusual line of these exquisite rugs. And have you noticed that they have been offering fine Oriental Rugs of various kinds on each Monday at pre-war prices? I understand that another opportunity will be presented to you today. I advise, then, that you keep this in mind. It will be well worth your while, as the values offered are quite remarkable. An Oriental Rug will make a superb gift for Christmas.

ROBBED OF COAT AND $3

Bandits Also Take Man's Lunch on South Street Bridge

Covering him with revolvers, two Negro bandits sprang in front of Bruce Crawford, 3207 Locust street, as he was crossing the South street bridge early yesterday morning. They took his coat, containing his lunch, and $3 in cash.

Crawford, who was on his way to work at the Twenty-ninth and Christian streets plant of the Philadelphia Electric Company, pleaded with the men for his lunch. They refused and threatened him with death if he made an outcry. The men were hidden behind the ironwork as Crawford approached.

LITTLE BENNY'S NOTE BOOK

By Lee Page

Pop was reading the paper with his feet up and ma was looking over my stamp collection wondering what would happen if a Chinese sent a letter to Spain with a Germin stamp on it, and pop sed, He's a grate man, all rite, there's no doubt of that he's a grate man.

Who, Mr. Harding? sed ma, yes, I think he is, too.

Harding nothing. In speaking of the grate and only Charlie Chaplin, sed pop, dident you read how all Europe went crazy over him wen he was over there a little while ago?

Wats grate about him, the size of his feet? Hee hee, sed ma laffing, and I sed, G, pop, do you remember the picture wats he's sopped to be shaving his face and some lady comes up and pats him on the back and he thinks its some man and smears her face all over with shave lather?

O dees, how artitick, sed ma and pop sed, Yes, that was rich, wassent it, but I liked the picture better wats he rubs dough all over his hands and then rubs it off on everybody as any Charlie Chaplin can rub dough off on people.

Mersey it takes a perfeck artitist to do that O yes, sed ma, and I sed, Well gosh, pop, how about that picture wats he's sopped to be a pieceman and soaks everybody on top of the bed with his club weather theyre doing anything or not, ladies and everybody.

My wats a artitick work of art, hee hee, sed ma, and pop sed, Benny, it begins to look as the your mother had no true feeling for art, but we have, havent we? and I sed, Yes sit, there's Charlie Chaplin picture around at the Little Grand tonite, lets go around and enjoy art, pop.

Im with you, sed pop, and ma sed, Its that so, well so am I, well all go.
