

FIND RIDDLED CAR IN GANG SHOOTING

Auto of Bruno Stutski, Who Was Left Dying on Hospital Steps, Located

POLICE NOW SEEK "RABBIT"

Some of the mystery surrounding the shooting of Bruno Stutski in the gang feud, early Sunday morning, was cleared up with the discovery of the auto in which he was riding when shot and the information that he was accomplished by a man known to the police only as "Rabbit."

Although Stutski continues the reticence he has maintained since he was found lying on the step of the Jefferson Hospital, detectives were able to locate his car in a garage on Carpenter street near Fifth. The windshield of the car was smashed and several bullet holes in the body indicated that he was in the machine when the avenging gangster poured the five bullets into his body.

The police at the Seventh and Carpenter streets station got the information that "Rabbit" was with Stutski when he was shot and they believe that they will be able to clear up the case through him. The car showed evidence of having been hit so many times that the officials feel certain that "Rabbit" must have also been wounded.

With this in mind a "Rabbit" has been sent out to all hospitals, and doctors have been notified to be on the lookout for a man with gun-shot wounds. Stutski sticks to his story that the assassin was a "girl" and persistent questioning fails to elicit any more information.

Despite the five bullet wounds in Stutski's body there were no bullet holes in his clothes and this indicates, according to Detective Belshaw that he was taken somewhere and his clothing changed before he was placed on a hospital stretcher. Stutski is still in a hospital condition, but may recover, in which event, he says, he will "get" the man who shot him.

One went through his pockets and got the cash.

TO TALK ON ARMS PARLEY

Ex-Senator Thomas, of Colorado, Speaks Here Tonight

Former Senator Charles S. Thomas, of Colorado, will make an address at the Baptist Temple tonight on the Arms Conference at Washington. He will discuss particularly Japanese problems and their attitude in relation to China and Korea. Special attention will be given by Senator Thomas to forcible annexation of Korea by Japan and the entrance of Japan upon the mainland of Asia. From this annexation, it is contended, virtually all the danger of war which now menaces the world has arisen. It is back of Japan's claim to dominate China and Siberia, back of its determination to enthrone itself as the overlord of all the East.

SUSPECT IS SHOT IN FIGHT AT FERRY

Passengers Scurry as Bullets Fly in Battle Between Police and Supposed Robbers

3 SURRENDER IN CAMDEN

One Negro is seriously wounded as the result of a pistol battle last night with two Camden patrolmen in the Kaighin avenue ferry house. Three other Negroes who took part in the fight surrendered.

The wounded man is Frank Harris, twenty-two years old, of Lombard street near Nineteenth, this city. The other prisoners are Frank Williams, of New Orleans; Arthur Ray, Locust street near Tenth, this city, and Gilbert Stanley, Lombard street near Eighteenth, also of Philadelphia.

These men are accused of having held up the grocery store of Frank Ness, at 983 Ferry avenue, Camden. Ness reported to Police Captain James, at headquarters, that four Negroes had entered his place about 9 o'clock last night. One held him up with a pistol, another rifled the cash drawer, he said, and the other two acted as lookouts. Threatening to kill him if he called for help, the Negroes ran.

Captain James detailed Detective Guthrie and Patrolman Shaw to the case. They went to the Kaighin avenue ferryhouse in the belief the Negroes were from this city. They saw four Negroes purchasing tickets at the window.

Approaching the men, Guthrie told them they were under arrest. Then he started to search one of them. Drawing pistols, the Negroes stepped back and opened fire. The bullets went wild and the passengers in the ferryhouse scurried to safety. Finally the policemen returned the fire and Harris fell, wounded. Then the others surrendered. Harris was taken to the Cooper Hospital. He had bullet wounds in his right arm and in the abdomen.
