Ready to Fill Thanksgiving Needs or Any Other Needs the People Have

This Building Was Built Without Any Dark Corners in It

It was built to be a big candlestick with a newly lighted candle in it that would burn all day, shedding light into every nook and corner of the forty-five acres of its fourteen floors, including the two below the street floor.

The Down Stairs Store is much the best floor of all and was built especially for its present use.

Who Wouldn't Enjoy a Holiday in a Fur Coat Like These?

For Thursday's game and for all the outdoor festivities of the winter, no better fur garment could be chosen than one of these hairy skin coats, such as muskrat, raccoon, leopard, civet, opossum or marmot.

Unusually fine effects are attained with the natural muskrat skin in this season's coats. It would be impossible to find a clearer collection than these we have priced at $175 to $400. They are 36 to 45 inch lengths, and trimmed with beaver, raccoon, Hudson seal (dyed muskrat) or the satiny-striped skins of the natural muskrat itself. They are all beautifully lined and finished.

A warm and effective-looking coat of glossy brown marmot fur may be had from $90 up.

Unusually thick-furred and handsome raccoon coats are $300. A striking coat of leopard skin bordered and collared with nutria is $200.

Other coats of leopard, raccoon, Australian opossum and civet offer variety of style and price for the woman who wishes assurance of being warmly and well coated for the holiday outing.

(Second Floor)

Young Women's Shower-Proof Sports Coats, $45

Made on an English model, with raglan sleeves, high-buttoning collar, full inverted-pleat back, slot pockets.

The material is a soft woolen sports cloth in tan color with a faint blue plaided stripe. Satin-lined throughout, and interlined to the waist. Sizes 14 to 20.

Other topcoats in the same sizes, with or without fur trimming, from $20 to $235.

(Second Floor)

Young Women's New Frocks for Holiday Dinners and Dances

A heavy of fresh and lovely dresses in 14 to 20 year sizes has just arrived. They are Canton crepes, velveteens, Georgette crepes, velvets, laces and brocades, in daytime and evening colorings.

A navy blue Canton crepe with dull red embroidery and metal girdle is $25.

So is a dahlia-red velveteen with trimming of gray fur cloth. A long-sleeved Georgette over silver, with garniture of black velvet flowers, is $48.

Among them all are charming styles for afternoon occasions, dinners and dances. Prices go to $125.

New Party Frocks for Girls

For girls of 6 to 14 years also a delightful collection of new dresses has come, priced $23.50 to $45. They include silk and crepe de chine, and among the colors is the lovely new "madelaine" blue brought out in Paris this year.

(Second Floor)

Pleated Sports Skirts Special at $8.75

There are plaids in the new pleatings to give the effect of stripes, wide stripes and some very pretty small checks.

Just such skirts as many women are looking for to wear under sports or fur coats and they are in good colors for this purpose. Only a few of each kind, but plenty of the best color combinations.

(First Floor)

Warm Knitted Apparel for Babies

A fine new collection of knitted things for babies has just come into the Infants' Store. They include caps, toques, sacques, socks, mittens, leggings and sweater sets, and the prices are reasonable for garments so dainty and warm.

Priced from a pair of booties at 35c, or a pair of mittens at 45c, up to a complete sweater set at $5. Brushed wool sets, $10.

(Third Floor)

The Thanksgiving Turkey in Candy

Pump, nicely browned little turkeys, cream filled, which look good enough to eat and are as good as they look, at 20c each.

They make delightful favors for the Thanksgiving dinner.

Snapping bonbons, which are always such fun, $2.50 a dozen. Salted nuts, of course, deliciously fresh, at $1.50 a pound, and the tiny baskets to put them in for 15c, 20c and 25c each.

Jack Horner pies, to finish off the dinner, with twelve favors, $5 and $6.50.

As for the candies, the kinds most people seem to like are double vanilla mints, at 70c a pound. Chocolate straws, 70c a pound. Nut chocolates, $1.25 a pound. Glacé nuts, $2 a pound.

The Silver Tea Service Represents the Family's Taste

A good period pattern is about the best choice one could make and, of course, there is the important consideration that the silver should be sterling, if possible, and well made in every last particular.

We are inclined to be over-fastidious in the kind of sterling silver tea services admitted to the Jewelry Store. We believe there are no finer to be had at the prices and the number of beautiful patterns may be judged from the following:

For five-piece tea services the markings are from $345 up to $1100.

Every Woman's Tailored Suit Is Ready for Her Now

When a tailored suit meant something quite different, when, in order for it to fit, a woman had to look as though she had been poured into it, then it was hardly possible to find a good-looking suit which had all the appearance of being made to order.

Now things are changed. There are the smartest little sports suits of tweed with long pointed collars of raccoon fur for as little as $50. There are the plainest tailored suits with only a throw tie for the woman who likes to look "different."

There are soft duvety, velvet and bolivia suits with much fur for the luxury-loving woman and there are the new and prettiest of all—the three-piece costumes with either a coat or a cape and fur collar. These range from $95 to $145.

But the chief point is that each and every one of these suits is so cleverly cut that a woman has an excellent chance to put it on without its needing any alterations whatever.

(First Floor)

Beautiful Fur-Trimmed Coats for Women, Special at $125

They have arrived just in time for women who will need a good warm coat for the game or the long motor ride over country roads.

They are extremely fashionable coats, too, all three styles being made of the softest silk-finished bolivia cloth, loose from the shoulders down to the full-flaring skirt, or in another case with a slightly fitted-in back or a narrow belt to hold in the fullness.

They have both cuffs and collars of either wolf or beaver fur. One model has the flaring sleeve and inner cuff. The colors are navy, black, taupe and Malay brown.

(First Floor)

A Smart New Glove for Women

is of soft buckskin, outseam sewn in the English, hand-stitched effect. It comes in beautiful shades of drab, fawn and brown, with one clasp and effectively stitched backs. Price, $3.75.

(Main Floor)

Here Are Mighty Smart New Silk Handbags

They are of French satin-striped black and navy silk, with flexible edges or corners of gilt, and they are extremely effective.

In various shapes, small and large, and all in the new, flat style, with cord or self handles. Prices, $5 to $18.

(Main Floor)

Girdles Are Little Things, but Very Important

One might even go so far as to say that every dress must have a girdle in these days.

Some of the newest and prettiest girdles are of metal in steel or old gold effects, or they may be brightly colored celluloid, a vivid cherry red being particularly good. There are very lovely jeweled effects also.

Prices start as low as $1.25 and go up to $30.

(Main Floor)

More Georgette Overblouses of a Kind Women Liked

And this new shipment brings many more combinations of color in these pretty two-toned waists.

They have the new boat-shaped neck and a straight accordion-pleated front and back with sleeves of a different color. The waist is finished with ribbon velvet.

In brown and fawn, navy and henna, henna and navy, navy and jade, black and king's blue, navy and old blue, $12.

(Third Floor)

Lamb's-Wool Quilts, $7.50 and $10—Much Comfort for the Money

The way these quilts are selling is a good sign of their merit. They can be depended upon to serve as well as they sell.

Another hundred ready tomorrow, every one filled with a sheet of lamb's-wool.

The $10 ones are covered with figured sateen on top and backed with plain sateen.

The $7.50 ones are in coverings of figured cambric with borders of plain sateen.

(Sixth Floor)

54-Inch Dress Serge Special at $2 a Yard

A brand-new shipment of this good "special" and it is now here in warm blue, brown and black.

It is the fine "French" weave, every thread wool and one of the nicest serges for dresses that one could find. The very wide width makes it most economical in the cutting.

(First Floor)

First Query About a Woman's Hat—Is It Becoming?

Each of these lovely new hats, designed for afternoon and restaurant wear, answers with a decided affirmative:

To the becomingness of sweeping lines and shadowy curves they add the richness of silver lace, the transparency of black or brown lace,

(Second Floor)

the softness of a touch of fur.

Especially suited to the afternoon toilette of distinction are the new hats of silver lace and maline.

These and other effective new millinery for dress wear in the Gray Salons tomorrow, priced $23 and up.

Even a Holiday Isn't Proof Against Rain

And if rain does come, what a satisfaction to be provided with a smart new umbrella.

At $5 are women's silk umbrellas with a large variety of better-than-usual handles in wood, bakelite and leather. Black, blue, garnet, violet, green or brown silk.

At $5 are men's black satin gloria umbrellas of exceptional quality. Full size, with all-wood shank and crook handles.

From Paris

Paper knives, book-marks, button-holders, corks and cigarette holders, with grotesque heads carved from vegetable ivory nuts, have come from Paris for the Christmas stocking. Choose early, for they are too clever and amusing to stay long. Priced $1.50 to $2.50.

(Main Floor)

English Cretannes Special, 75c a Yard

Every cretonne here would ordinarily sell for more than double and it would do so now if we had more of each style or a greater variety of colors in each one.

In many cases there is enough for slip covers for the furniture of a good-sized room, in others, perhaps only enough for a couple or even one pair of curtains.

Many women will find just what they need, however, and the values are wonderful.

(Fifth Floor)

We Promise You, Men—who depend upon us for the best ready-to-wear winter overcoats that we are ready to show you just the overcoats you want.

We will show them to you in a variety as large as any man who knows the value of good dollars, of good solid comfort and of a good, well-dressed appearance can desire.

We can show them at the lowest prices that any man of that stamp will want to pay—$28 to $100.

Lucky is the man who will always get things that carry the same measure of value in proportion to what they cost.

(Third Floor)

Separate Fur Collars for Men's Overcoats

Any man who would like to transform an ordinary overcoat into a garment of real distinction can do so by affixing to it one of these handsome fur collars.

Of blended hare, nutria, beaver, blended muskrat, Hudson seal (dyed muskrat), leopard, sealine and natural otter.

Prices range from $10 for a collar of blended hare to $150 for one of natural otter.

(Main Floor)

Boys' Great Two-Trousers Suits at $16.50, $18 and $20

Sometimes the extra pair of trousers can be made an excuse for poor materials and poorer making. But when you can get good materials, good making, correct style and an extra pair of trousers in a boy's suit at a low price, it really means something.

These two-trousers suits that we are selling at $16.50, $18 and $20 are made of good wools, the making is good and reliable and the style excellent.

With only one pair of trousers they would be worth the money. With the extra trousers they are the best suit value in years.

A Sale of the Bedroom Furniture Most Homes Are Looking For

(10,000 Pieces at 25 Per Cent Less Than Latest Market Prices)

It is well to know that in buying this furniture you are buying something that has nothing experimental about it.

All of it is furniture of the kind that has proven itself unequalled in its class by the test of actual service.

We have been selling furniture of identical grade from the same manufacturer for a good many years and we are selling more of it every year.

It is probably the most popular furniture we have ever known, and in this case popularity surely means desirability.

The desirability of this furniture is based not on looks, attractiveness and low price alone.

What makes it most desirable is the fact that it has in it the sound, serviceable quality which makes all of these other good points doubly worth while.

You may buy complete suits, or as many individual pieces as you may happen to need.

The woods are walnut, oak, mahogany and enameled.

You can get almost any piece in any of these woods. There is no end of matching pieces.

Styles are mostly Queen Anne, Louis XVI, Colonial, Sheraton and some modern designs.

Bureaus, $39, $45, $49, $54, $61.50, $69, $90, $114, $124.

Chiffoniers, $31.50, $46, $52.50, $60.

Chiffoniers, $43.50, $67, $72, $90, $100.

Toilet tables, $18, $24.50, $37, $46, $60, $75, $112.

Beds, some twin, some full size, $21.50, $37.50, $45, $75, $91, $105.
