Women Athletes

Lawn tennis has recently become a raze among girls and young women in Phina.

The craze for sport has taken its hold on English girls, and they have equaled and in many cases excelled the opposite sex in some of the most popular games.

The Commercial Head

Can you recognize a "commercial" head when you see one?

As a rule you'll find that it belongs to a man or woman of what is known as the "vital" temperament, that is to say, to one whose face tends to be round rather than square or pearshaped.

The commercial head is the medium-

You may remember that in a former article the characteristics of the wide head (that is, the very wide head) were such heads are the lovers of combat for the sake of the light, battling in con-structive causes when intelligent and possessed of ideals, and being viciously destructive when lacking these other qualities. On the other hand, it has been pointed out that the narrow head goes with a mild, impractical, but often courageous and stubborn temperament. The medium-wide head is, as you might suspect, something of a compro mise between the two, and yet a dis
