

DORAN BOOKS

These Important DORAN BOOKS at Your Bookseller

DORAN BOOKS

WHILE I REMEMBER: A Book of Reminiscences

Stephen McKenna
The memoirs of a young man of thirty. A record of the men, women and events of that bygone age, 1890-1914, written by one of the most brilliant of the younger writers. $3.50

HERE, THERE AND EVERYWHERE

Lord Frederic Hamilton
More of the fascinating and random recollections of the gayest capitals and the most prominent men and women of the world by the author of THE VANISHED POMPS OF YESTERDAY and THE DAYS BEFORE YESTERDAY. Octavo. $4.00

MISCELLANIES: Literary and Historical

Lord Rosebery
For all lovers of good prose and the company of the great. With ability, dignity and rare charm Lord Rosebery writes of personalities of Bobbie Burns and Dr. Johnson, of Eton and Epsom Turf. 2 Vols. Octavo. $10.00

MEXICO ON THE VERGE

Dr. E. J. Dillon
That the statesmen of the world should look toward Mexico to see the next step in the political development of states is the thesis of Dr. Dillon, expert in international affairs. $3.00

A PARODY OUTLINE OF HISTORY

Donald Ogdon Stewart
H. G. Wells—American Plan. The gentle art of parody, of tumbling the dignity of the great, is supremely developed by Mr. Stewart in these flashing take-offs on American authors. $1.50

ROVING EAST AND ROVING WEST

E. V. Lucas
Familiar lunds take on a new light when this editor of Punch writes of his roving. Americans will especially enjoy his humorous and very perceptive survey of these United States. $2.00

ONE THIRD OFF

Irvin S. Cobb
Cobb on the matter of reducing. Fun, filosofy and sound common sense, as hilariously amusing as "SPEAKING OF OPERATIONS." Illustrated by Tony Sarg. $1.00

MARoonED IN MOSCOW

Marguerite E. Harrison
An extraordinarily detailed and vivid picture of daily life in Bolshevik Russia, written straightforwardly with humor and perception by an American woman. $3.00

A LOITERER IN PARIS

Helen W. Henderson
Another delightful "Loiterer" volume by the author of A LOITERER IN PARIS and A LOITERER IN NEW YORK. Illustrated. $5.00

MY OWN AFFAIRS

Princess Louise of Belgium
Intimate views of modern royalty. "Her book will be one of the biggest literary sensations of the year."—Hayden Church. Illustrated. Octavo. $4.00

LIFE AND LETTERS

J. C. Squire
Of personalities literary and political, of fame and infamy, of books we have known and books we have never known writes the editor of The London Mercury. $3.00

THE WANDERINGS OF A SPIRITUALIST

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle
Sir Arthur has just returned from a trip around the world which has enabled him to sum up the spiritual experience of all nations. Illustrated. $2.50

A POLITICAL PILGRIM IN EUROPE

Mrs. Philip Snowden
A remarkably comprehensive idea of the political movements, and personalities of present-day Europe, by one of the foremost women in English politics. Octavo. $2.50

AMERICA AND THE YOUNG INTELLECTUAL

Harold Stearns
The accepted doctrines of America's intellectual order put under the microscope by one of the ablest of the young men. A book to clear the air. $1.50

PEKING: A SOCIAL SURVEY

Sidney D. Gamble, M.A.
Life in the ancient capital described from the social point of view; its health, education, community service, etc., by a prominent philanthropist. Illustrated. $5.00

THE EX-KAISER IN EXILE

Lady Norah Bentinck
An intimate account, by an English woman, of the daily life of the Kaiser at Amerongen. A pertinent study in human nature as well as politics. Illustrated from photographs. Octavo. $3.50

LIFE OF VENIZELLOS

S. B. Chester
The life-story of the great man of the East which reads like romance. Octavo. $6.00

PLAYS

SWORDS: A Play in Four Acts Sidney Howard
"As remarkable a play as America has ever produced."—Kenneth Macgowan, New York Globe. Illustrated. $1.50

THE CIRCLE: A Play in Three Acts

W. Somerset Maugham
The book of the play now running with such success on Broadway. $1.25

THE HARP OF LIFE

J. Hartley Manners
A poignant study of the love and self-sacrifice of two women for a boy. $1.25

POETRY

CANDLES THAT BURN Aline Kilmer (Mrs. Joyce Kilmer) $1.25
SPLINTERS Keith Preston $1.50
MOONS OF GRANDEUR William Rose Benet $2.00
POEMS, ESSAYS AND LETTERS Joyce Kilmer $5.00
BILL BORAM: A BALLAD Robert Norwood $1.50
THE BOOK OF HUMOROUS VERSE Carolyn Wells $7.00

HERMAN MELVILLE: MARINER AND MYSTIC

Raymond M. Weaver
The most distinguished memoir of the year. "His position as pioneer-pilot into the glamor and lore of the South Seas, his exquisite craftsmanship, and his remarkable personality make material for a sterling biography."—New York Tribune. Illustrated. Octavo. $3.50

CHIMNEYSMOKE

Christopher Morley
Lyrics for Households of Two or More. Beautifully illustrated by Thomas Fogarty in Color and Black and White. All the prime favorites and numerous new poems of permanent beauty. $2.50

TURNS ABOUT TOWN

Robert Cortes Holliday
Undoubtedly the best book Holliday has ever written, not forgetting the famous WALKING-STICK PAPERS. "Personality plus; observant, piquant, pungent. Holliday is excellent fun."—Philadelphia Public Ledger. $2.00

THE SECRET OF THE SAHARA:

KUFARA Introduction by Sir Harry Johnston Rosita Forbes
An account of one of the most remarkable exploits of modern exploring, the penetration to the heart of the Libyan Desert by a woman. A diary of hairbreadth escapes. Photographs. $5.00

MARGOT ASQUITH: An Autobiography

"She writes her story in the same dashing, regardless manner in which she lived it. There is evidently something about her that makes men reveal themselves. The book is fascinating."—New York Times. 2 Vols. Illustrated. Octavo. Boxed. $7.50

COQUETTE

Frank Swinnerton
"The same force, thrill and passion which made 'Nocturne' a great achievement."—New York Times. $1.90

ANGELICA

Elisabeth Sanxay Holding
An unusual romance of New York and of Angelica, daughter of a janitor, who knew what she wanted from life and demanded it. $1.90

AARON WEST

John Knittel
"An able and a brilliant story and one altogether out of the common." writes the London Bookman of this strong story of a son of the sea and his struggle with civilization. $2.00

I HAVE ONLY MYSELF TO BLAME

Elizabeth Bibesco
Finely cut, gem-like short stories with a definitely fresh view of life by an observer whose perceptions are keyed to top pitch. By the daughter of Margot Asquith. $2.00

DODO WONDERS—

E. F. Benson
"Always entertaining and very amusing. Full of neat turns of phrase and amusing thrusts at a familiar human foible."—New York Times. $1.90

THE WHITE RIBAND: Or, A Young Female's Folly

F. Tennynson Jesse
An exquisitely simple pastoral, a ballet in words, of a little cottage girl, by the author of "The Happy Bride," "The Milky Way," etc. $1.50

BLINKERS

Horace Annesley Vachell
"Mr. Vachell touches life gently, calmly and humorously. His work rings with truth."—Boston Transcript. $1.90

MY SON

Corra Harris
By the author of "A Circuit Rider's Wife." "Ripe with experience, crisp in character sketches, delightful and true."—New York Times. $1.90

HALF LOAVES

Margaret Culkin Banning
"One of the few late novels that one is tempted to read a second time."—New York Times. $1.90

THE HERITAGE

Viola Brothers Shore
Short stories with a new and attractive tang. America served up for Americans in a new way. $1.75

LITTLE MISS MELODY

Marion Keith
The lovable story of a flowery village, a small girl who couldn't sing, and a young minister who couldn't decide which girl he loved best. $1.90

The Value of an Imprint

No publisher's imprint makes a successful book; but a succession of fine books has made the Doran imprint. Unlike the manufacturer of shoes or automobiles, the publisher has no "Brand." Each book is a new brand. He does not assure you of absolute uniformity to pattern and material; on the contrary, the Doran imprint stands for individuality and variety. It would be foolish to say that you will like every book bearing the Doran mark. But it will be worth your while to remember, in reading the titles on this page, that these books, which represent largely the Doran publications for the current year, were chosen for a reading public as wide and diverse as the United States, and that the editorial judgment and belief which selected the books you know, also stand sponsor for those that are new to you. It is a matter of great pride that the Doran imprint, wherever you see it, should be the mark of the best books.

New York

THE YOUNG ENCHANTED

Hugh Walpole
A romance of Youth in that strange year 1920 in that strange town London. In no novel has Mr. Walpole so imprisoned Youth's joyous acceptance of the whole of life. A book to live in and remember. $2.00

TO HIM THAT HATH

Ralph Connor
A Novel of the West of Today. A courageous story, written in the spirit and style of THE SKY PILOT, that faces the problems of social unrest and upholds the ideal of equity as a remedy for the aching heart of the world. $1.75

MORE TISH

Mary Roberts Rinehart
The further adventures of Tish, Aggie and Lizzie, those three remarkable maiden ladies who accomplish with the support of blackberry cordial and lettuce sandwiches the most blood-curdling feats. As elderly spinsters they are inexcessably amusing. $1.75

THREE SOLDIERS

John Dos Passos
The most widely praised and cordially damned book of the year. "The frankest, most outspoken book that has been written since Christopher Columbus left home."—Harry Hansen, Chicago News. $2.00

THE TREMBLING OF A LEAF

W. Somerset Maugham
"Brilliant as Mr. Maugham's work always is, keen in its discernment of life's ironies and inconsistencies, his power has strengthened."—New York Times. Studies of the effect of the South Seas upon the white man. $1.90

THE PILGRIM OF A SMILE

Norman Davey
"It is so good humorously ironic it reminds us of the best of the French. It would have been a credit to Boccaccio in his prime."—Chicago News. $2.00

MORE LIMEHOUSE NIGHTS

Thomas Burke
"Only the work of a master hand, portraying life without convention or concealment, lays so powerful a spell upon the reader."—Vogue. $1.90

LOVERS AND FRIENDS

E. F. Benson
A book of witty dialogue which hides beneath its surface charm a penetrating study of the quality of the modern girl's life, by the author of "Dodo Wonders"—"Queen Lucia," etc. $1.90

WEST BROADWAY

Nina Wilcox Putnam
A brand new journey of discovery of the United States by Marie La Tour. She takes the modern highway to the Coast and finds a new America dwelling on West Broadway. One of the most amusing books of the year. $1.75

SEED OF THE SUN

Wallace Irwin
"Not only the brilliant telling of a brilliant novel but a coast-to-coast spotlight."—Fannie Hurst. $2.00

THE LITTLE RED FOOT

Robert W. Chambers
The best book Mr. Chambers has written since "Cardigan." A romance of Redcoats and Indians in old Tryon County in the days when men were men. $1.90

STASH OF THE MARSH COUNTRY

Harold Waldo
"A first novel which challenges attention. Mr. Waldo has true sympathy, real comprehension, vigor and dash."—Detroit Free Press. $2.00

ROSALEEN AMONG THE ARTISTS

Elisabeth Sanxay Holding
"Gives the same sense of power and has the same rare artistry in its revelations of the workings of a woman's heart as 'Invincible Minnie.'"—Boston Herald. $1.90

THE PATH OF THE KING

John Buchan
A study of the transmutation of genius, teeming with genuine romance and thrill. "Undoubtedly the best in a creditably long line of romances."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat. $1.90

INDISCRETIONS OF ARCHIE

P. G. Wodehouse
"Unadulterated mirth."—Boston Globe. "Not the sort of book to take along to the cemetery to the funeral of a favorite aunt."—Detroit News. $1.75

THE EDUCATION OF ERIC LANE

Stephen McKenna
By the author of "Sonia." "A strong character sketch. A virile and graphic piece of work."—Cleveland Plain Dealer. $1.90

THE HOUSE IN DORMER FOREST

Mary Webb
"The fabric is woven by deft fingers. The touch that makes it a thing of beauty is the touch of undeniable literary genius."—Boston Herald. $2.00

THE DEATH OF SOCIETY: A Novel of Tomorrow

Romer Wilson
The novel which won the Hawthorneden prize as the best imaginative work of the year. "Seeks after the unusual and finds this a worthy example."—Buffalo Courier. $2.00

THE LAMP OF FATE

Margaret Pedler
"A romantic love story far above the ordinary. There is mystery and romance galore in the telling and much dramatic style."—Pittsburgh Dispatch. $1.90

VISION HOUSE

C. N. and A. M. Williamson
"A typically Williamsonian, and consequently absorbing story."—New York Tribune. By the authors of "The Lightning Conductor." $1.90

BUFF: A COLLIE

Albert Payson Terhune
By the author of "Lad: A Dog." "A wonderful story of dog love and trust and loyalty and intelligence."—New York Times. $2.00

THE VILLA OF THE PEACOCK

Richard Dehan
Mystery, the twin forces of love and hate, thrilling situations and unexpected climaxes mark this exceptional group. $1.90

THE THIRTEEN TRAVELLERS

Hugh Walpole
"A hugely enjoyable book. It is a pleasure to have the chance to tell others how delightful it is. It is sure to creep up and hold on in the list of favorites."—Philadelphia Public Ledger. $2.00

ROSE AND ROSE

E. V. Lucas
An entirely delightful mixture of worldly wisdom and whimsical naiveté, by one of the most charming of famous modern writers. $1.90

LIZA OF LAMBETH

W. Somerset Maugham
A love idyl of a girl of the London tenements, poignant and inexpressibly tender, said to rival in power THE MOON AND SIXPENNE and OF HUMAN BONDAGE. $1.75

SIGHT UNSEEN and THE CONFESION

Mary Roberts Rinehart
"When we get two short novels by Mrs. Rinehart in a single book and for the price of one—well, mark that day in red on the fiction calendar."—Boston Herald. $1.75

FOUR CORNERS

Clifford Raymond
"Well above the average of mystery stories. A very human book."—New York Tribune. $1.90

THE SPIRIT OF THE TIME: A Novel of Today

Robert Hichens
"Very distinctly out of the ordinary. It is an interesting picture of a world without moral or ethical values."—New York Times. $2.00

SNOW OVER ELDEN

Thomas Moulton
"A continuous delight. There is not a passage that could be well spared. A book to read and re-read."—Boston Transcript. $2.00

RED MEEKINS

W. A. Fraser
There's a genuine whiff of balsam about the rugged figure of Red, mixed with the acid odors of smoke and frying-bone steak. A book about the men who live alone in the white northern spaces. $1.90

PAWNED

Frank L. Packard
"Most people like a thrilling detective or mystery story. This is one of the best. It is well written, bizarre, colorful, and interesting."—New York Times. $1.90

ADVENTURERS OF THE NIGHT

G. A. Birmingham
"When it comes to devising situations and plots rich in quizzical humor there is no novelist who can compare with G. A. Birmingham."—New York Times. $1.90

JUVENILES

By Francis Holt-Wheeler
BOY JOURNALISTS ROUND THE WORLD SERIES
Adventure in countries all round the world. Two books now ready.

THE NANCY AND NICK BOOKS

Two new little playmates for little people. Five volumes.
I. NANCY AND NICK IN SCRUB-UP-LAND.
II. NANCY AND NICK IN THE LAND-OF-DEAR-KNOWS-WHERE.
III. NANCY AND NICK IN THE LAND-OF-NEAR-BY.
IV. NANCY AND NICK IN HELTER-SKELTER-LAND.
V. NANCY AND NICK IN TOPSY-TURVY-LAND. Many delightful drawings. Each $1.00

THE JACK-IN-THE-BOX BOOKS

Stories of the happy summers of three little girls and a boy. Four volumes.
I. AT GREENACRES.
II. THE QUEER LITTLE MAN.
III. THE BOTTLE IMP.
IV. POPPY'S PLUCK. Attractively illustrated in color and black and white. Each $1.50

NOEL POCKOCK EDITION OF ROBINSON CRUSOE

24 Plates in Color. $5.00
HEATH ROBINSON EDITION OF THE SWISS FAMILY ROBINSON
25 Plates in Color. $3.00

NOEL POCKOCK EDITION OF GRIMM'S FAIRY TALES

23 Plates in Color. $5.00

DORAN BOOKS

Publishers in America for HODDER & STOUT

GEORGE H. DORAN COMPANY

Publishers of THE BOOKMAN, the most interesting literary magazine in the U.S.

DORAN BOOKS