

WINNING BLUE RIBBONS EASY FOR HER. In the National Horse Show, held in New York, Corinne Poth won her 200th blue ribbon.

WIFE "PINCH HITS" IN PULPIT FOR HUSBAND. The Rev. Frederick W. Mathews, of the Second Presbyterian Church of Camden, believes that his congregation should hear his wife occasionally. Mrs. Mathews willingly preaches. At home Mr. Mathews reciprocates and helps with the housework as much as possible.

GERALDINE FARRAR, the famous grand opera star, whose divorce action against Lou Tellegen, is now pending.

THE MARINE CORPS AGREES WITH HIM. James D. Turriziani, who weighs 325 pounds, re-enlisted after serving 17 years. Sgt. James J. Nolan is greeting him.

CHICAGO SCHOOLBOYS WIN. The La Grange High School team came from the Western city to cross La Salle Prep's line, the first time it has been done this year. The visitors won, 7 to 6.

PROSPECTIVE BUYER. He was one of the first to seek a Christmas tree at 19th & Indiana.

MRS. GEO. HAAS, of Mt. Kisco, N. Y., with two of her bulldogs. Seventy-five (left) and Circe.

FOUR COLLEGES HOLD CHRISTMAS BAZAAR. Philadelphia women, graduates of Goucher, Radcliffe, Simmons and Vassar joined in the sale at the New Century Club yesterday. Miss Dolores Ciccone, of Goucher, is serving tea. The three children are interested in the Christmas house.

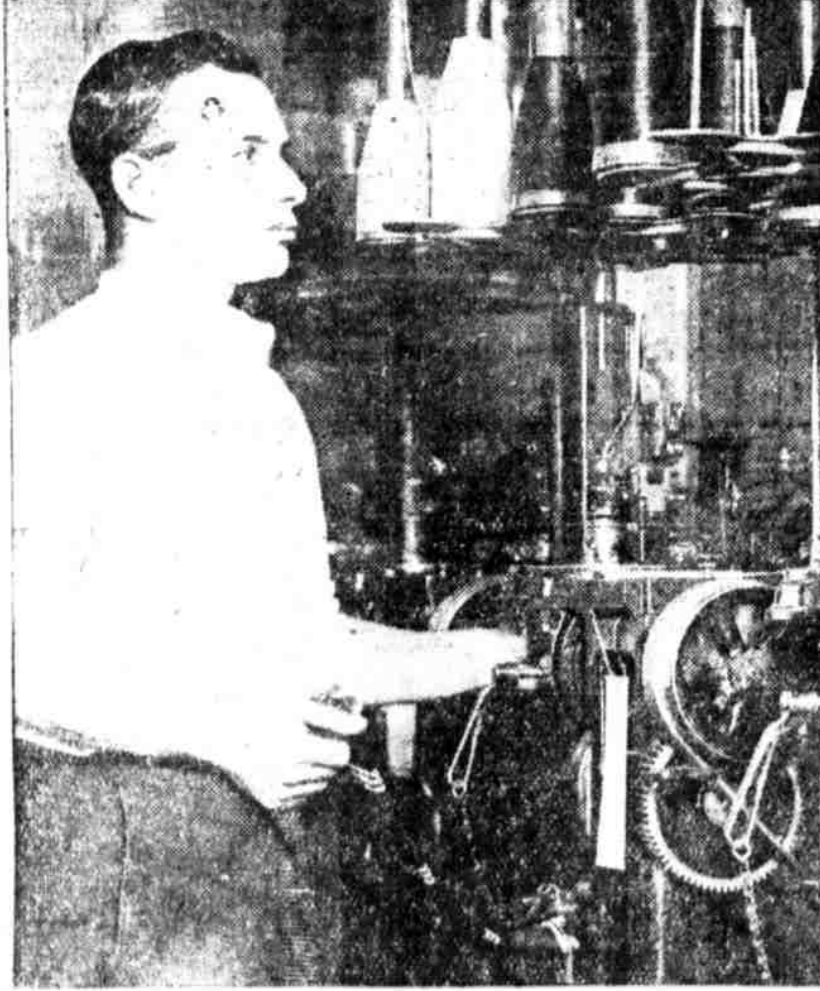

NINETY-THREE. That's not the score. It's the age of Deputy Surgeon General Clarence Cooper, of England.

BOTH READY FOR BUSINESS. At the door of a mail car on a Philadelphia and Reading Railway train. Both marine and clerk keep a close watch.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

HERMAN WEISFELD, 2415 North Thirty-fourth street, operating splitting machines at the Belmont Manufacturing Company, 2545 North Broad street. The machines are making ties.

CHARLES RANN KENNEDY AND MRS. KENNEDY (Edith Wynne Matthison) will appear in "Everyman" at Academy of Music in aid of Radcliffe College endowment fund.

NOT AT A DOG SHOW. Just a little anti-burglary equipment that has been added by a Philadelphian who lives at 22d and Spruce.

"RUFY-TUFY" DANCE. Ruth Roseman, of Blaine School, 30th and Norris is showing how it's done.

BUSY PHILADELPHIANS

WM. McKEE, Jr., manager, Broad street branch of the Real Estate Title Insurance & Trust Co. of Philadelphia. He is married and has five children. His hobby is fishing.