Woman's Life and Love By WINIFRED HARPER COOLEY

The Great Desire

WHAT do you ardently long for in ister to the possessor's pleasure. But life, what is your great desire? money cannot buy love.

Is if fame, wealth, love?

Nothing can create or covered and the love. Is it fame, wealth, love? or spontaneous, unselfish devotion, Nor

A few seasons ago a novel sought to answer this universal question, and it took up the lives of up the lives of several persons, and showed them seeking these three main goals of human destiny.

As I recall it, the solution of the riddle was not

THE philosophers of antiquity, and agony of that poem? the founders of all religious, have held differing opinions as to the reason for life and the final destiny of man, and each of these beliefs has shaped the actions of millions of their followers.

Why Guess About It-When You Can Know About It?

Suppose a guide said-

"This way there's a safe and pleasant road to your destination, with no risks or troubles en the way," and-

"That way there's a road that a good many have stalled on and turned back from, but you may get through."

Which would you take?

Postum is a thoroughly agreeable and satisfying meal-time drink, and you're sure that it's perfectly safe for health. Coffee contains drug qualities which disturb and harm the health of many.

Postum or coffee? Which road?

Why guess when you can know?

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes. Sold by all grocers.
