EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1921 There's a Gift in Choosing the Gift

at the advance show of spring styles. And so you will no doubt be interested to see the extremely light-colored costume of woven wool, with a slim dark line running through the skirt and the short sleeves in the sweater on one side, and the light suit of sport cut, with a darker edging on collar, cuffs, pockets and belt

"Should a Woman Tell?"

By HAZEL DEYO BATCHELOR

toast for me.

Copyright. 1981. bu Public Ledger Company

Even if you're not planning a trip South this winter, it's very nice to now what "they" will wear down there, because that usually is an

Paul and Virginia By HELENA HOYT GRANT

A Lesson in Luxury

VIRGINIA was all aflutter with little startled to observe that Muriel for the third time at the engraved invitation to take tea with Mrs. Vincent, and sighed as she surveyed her own liv-ing room. She half-envied Muriel Stone, har di scheel mate surreyed her own liv-ing room. She half-envied Muriel Stone, her old school mate, who had married the wealthy young scion of became Mrs. Vincent. Not even the beautiful fashionable family. 0508 Virginia's rested upon the heavy suite of damask upholstered furniture in her own best room, and wondered Idly what Muriel Vincent would think if Virginia re-But this shoel the hospitality that was now turned extended to her. Perhaps Muriel w pity her. Perhaps she might even faugh Virginia's valiant attempts to make the little home look like "ready

Virginia sighed again and gave herjaunty little feathered toque certainly dinary Flemish onk-and Virginia had always thought of oak as being in ter-Doked beautiful, crowning Virginia's always thought of oak as being in ter-ribly buil taste-and the table which occupted the middle of the ream was ray squirrel, was undeniably smart. There wasn't a bit of the prig in Vir-thin, but she was rather satisfied that the laked fashionable must be brown wooden boxes, in which jonrray squirrel, was taken prig in Vir-there wasn't a bit of the prig in Vir-the looked fashionable, even if her black beaded bag was a little bit rumpled and frayed. Muriel lived in the fashionable Stone-Muriel lived in the stone built by Muriel lived in the fashionable Stone-Muriel lived in the fashionable Stone-hall, a reception hall beamed and wain-acoted like some storied cloister, she registered a mental prophecy that a butler, perhaps in knee breeches and who scemed so kind, so interested and so with white silk legs, would take her tremendously friendly. Virginia walked home thoughtfully, a st Quite to the contrary. A mail in a modest black uniform smiled in friendly fashion and indicated a bright little niche where Virginia might pow- her heart felt wonderfully light and der her nose. From a room beyond came gay, the French doors and tound herself in a long, narrow room. "Why, my dear, I'm to pleased that you came." Muriel was the same ald agreeable Muriel, but Virginia was a

"J Didn't Do Anything"

"I haven't done anything," said afterward, too, though you could not Janet's husband, "and yet you go off afford it so often. But then the theatre or a tantrum. What's the idea?" money came in handy for other things. And he hadn't. He had not beaten the flowers sort of dropped off, and of boy theads, but it seens that nobody And he hadn't. He had not benefit the bowers sort of dropped of and by trends, but it geens that have for abused her in any way. He did not soon you figured the randy was a habit loves a fat sirt. But don't forget the drink nor pay attention to other women. Which was not doing Janet any good, few words, "I may be fat, but I have the did not stay out nights—did nor (What would life be without some even come home late to dianer. He thing once in a while that "doesn't do Let Him Go

The did not say out nights—did not two multi life be without south of the but that is any good.".)
What would life be without south of the but that is and the but the stand it—because he hasn't done a an unnecessary expense. But though thing! No, Jim, you haven't. It is not what you have done that is bothering Janet— but what you have not done. The fact that she is not subjected to abuse is not sufficient to make a woman happy, Jim. Even a husband who is obviously encough. It takes a little brightness, a subjected without lunch to bring her a chocolate contented and satisfied with one is not enough. It takes a little brightness, a little color, a little spice once in a bar. And I'm not sure she isn't right, and economy and doing the same thing every day.

When you were courting Janet, you took her to the theatre at least once a week and you brought her candy and flowers. You did this for a while

What to Do By CYNTHIA To "Miss Old-Fashloned Girl"

Dear Cynthia-Very welk Miss Old-fashioned, you live your life without giving away your kisses and I'll live mine and snatch one once in a while, and I'm sure we'll both have a happy and prosperous future. As for you, Cynthia, may your success never end. Thank you. M. J. RIGHT. You are making a mistake, my dear. You are making a mistake, my dear, n kissing any one but the man you tre to marry. You will come to regret

Better Follow Sister's Advice

became Mrs. Vincent. Not even the beautiful square emerald en-gagement ring that had glittered there like a serpent's eye. But this shock was nothing com-pared to what followed. The room was furnished in an almost sketchy manner. True, there was a great Tudor fireplace in which fat logs intered low; and there was a priceless tapestry on the walls above the fire-place. But the furniture was very er-slater is seventeen. Do you think that it is proper for us to stay home, for we love dancing and enjoyment. L. D.

To "Dorothy M."

interest such as studying birds and flowers and other outdoor things? Ite you like tennis? How about skating? That is wonderful exercise. Try one of

That is wonderful exercise. Try one of these suggestions and let me hear how you get along. Don't think of joining a show or circus. Do you help mother with the housework? Can you make your own clothes? Don't go to so many parties. Only go twice a week.

"Tillle" Answers

Dear Cynthia-Thank you very much for printing my letter in your column, and wish you would print the following in answer to Lancelot and Lanky. I am glad that Lanky likes all the girls, as that may be some encourage ment for the thin and tall ones. He says that I must have been built when fat was cheap. Let me say that is better than nothing but skin and bones an good-natured (as all plump people are) so I don't mind the remarks made ay Lanky. her. She discovers that Dane is very I thank Lancelot for the many comand pliments he gave me. It is a comfort to know that there is some one who little butterfly sister. Julie has fallen in lare with a man much older than herself, and later Hawthorne discovers that Julie's lover and Cran-ford Blake, the man from the past. But don't forget these

I cannot be compared with Aunt Epple Hogg, as I am far from her size. I

By CORINNE LOWE

What care I for house or land, What care I for ships on the ocean

"What core I for gold or filter.

All I want's a nice young man !!

81542.

the face.

And while I am on the subject of Madeira things, I simply must tell you about the annaing Madeira bedspread can cultivate it to a great extent. that has been reduced from $35 to $19.75. To describe it would be impossible. But can't you picture for yourself how effective such a spread with large fine scallops and beautifully embroidered design would be?

And here is something else you might want to know about. One of the spe-cialty shops that give the impression of having rather high-priced things has an odd assortment of fifty trimmed hats that have been reduced to $8.50. Of course, the original price of many of these was much higher. It might be that you could find just the hat you want. There are several smart models.

twice

like yourself or not.

For names of shops address Woman's Pace Editor or phone Wainut 3000 or Main 1601 between the hours of 9 and 5.

Read Your Character By Dighy Phillips

This type of head is not a common that her friend was a "movie fan." pre-one, yet it is not so uncommon that sented her with a moving-pleture mag-name to read on the train when she was And to be worder about it, the

By the back-sloped head, of course.

The back-sloped head, being high in front, indicates a good development of the purely mental functions of the brain, the power of observation, of memory and of reason. High over the temples and ears it also denotes benevolence and veneration. Sometimes the downward slope, starting from over the temples instead of the cars, indicates that the characteristic of venera-

Emery decides to weariness, for later I woke to see Marhim that she has once been in lore I had refused lunch earlier I had refused lunch carlier in the day. now she carried a tray of tea and

> I struggled up and smiled wanly, and she placed the tray on a small table by my side. Then with a broad grin not know very well, you may find that these character indications do not al-

> "They came about an hour ago, ma'am, but I hated to wake you, you were sleeping that sound." ways balance with the expressions and actions of your subject. People are not I slipped the strings from the box and > lifted the lid. Roses smiled out at me, red roses, and the fragrance was soul-healing. I lifted them out and held them to my hot face while Martha burried out for \mathbf{n} value

Photo by Central News

But by Careful Thought and Attention You Can Always Find Out What Your Friends Want, if You Will Just Do It

You Know Some One Else Will Like

WELL, now that December is here, out of a hundred of us who will do that I suppose you've started your thing, if, indeed, we even think of it.

Heve you? You know there is a gift in knowing Science of gift-giving.

You know there is a gift in know the how to give things that will please the person who gets them. We cannot all taye this gift, but we We cannot all have this gift, but choosing. Wives hall Christmas with joy as the We can put ourselves in the other person's place and wonder. "Now, if I were such-and-such a person with so-and-so in the way of possessions and testes what is the way of possessions and one time when they can make their husbands wear the kind of neckties they should wear. The wife of a blue-eyed man taken tastes, what in the world would I like to have?" the greatest pleasure in presenting him with blue or green or purple ties that

On the other hand, there are times show up his eyes. when, if you do this, you will think up something you would just love to have ness he will have to wear those ties which she wouldn't want to look at at some time during the year, and she welcomes that time as an oasis in That happens when you and she have heart-rending desert. Thit why will she persist, year after That happens when you and she have very different likes and dislikes. Then all you can do is hint arouml. snoop a little here, peek a bit there and sneak up on her tastes when she isn't looking. And when you do find out what it to why does a man with light or red And when you do find out what it is that she admires or needs, give her that whether it's something that you would any part of him and only make him look like a fire alarm? While a dark-FOR instance, not long ago a nice haired man who could stand them pre-

And it indicates a type of character of which the same may be said, a rather peculiar type of character. Be to read on the train when she was much more pleased with her gift and much more pleased with her gift and her and the world be much more pleased with her gift and it indicates a type of character. Be to read on the train when she was Many would have chosen the deeply hterary magazine that they themselves of her ormal states and the same may be said, a rather her present that they themselves of her ormal states and the same may be said a states her present states and the same may be said a states her present states and the same may be said a states her present states and the same may be said a states her present states and the same may be said a states her present states and the same may be said a states her present states and the same states her present states and the same states and the same states her present states her p is meant that head which is highest at the forehead, or over the temples, and which slopes downward from there. You know the ordinally or average head is highest above the cars or somewhat back of them. The back-sloped head, being high in front, indicates a word development therested in. Others would have selected a book-ful of short, lively stories. And a great many would have never thought of the gracious act at all, but that's another story. The back-sloped head, being high in front, indicates a word development instead of her own. Useless giving! If you lack the gift of choosing the right gift for the right person, you'll have to think hard and do some nice discriminating in order to have your presents really appreciated. And if you're not willing to go to this person chose entirely from some one trouble, you may as well send one of your engraved Christmas cards and let else's point of view. And there are only about five or six it go at that.

> chased in one piece to be cut up as needed or in the form of half soles. Remove the old sole with a slanting cut across the instep so that the inside edge of the new sole will be shorter. Place the leather to be used in warm water for a few minutes until it becomes pliable and will fit snugly against the shoe. Cut it roughly into shape With a knife pare a bevel on the edge that fits against the instep. The bevel should be on the flesh side of the leather. Place the ficsh side of the leather against the shoe and insert a tack in the center of the too to hold the leather in place so that it may be

With the shoe on the last, begin to tack from the instep toward the toe, tacking first on one edge and then on the other. Place tacks about one-fourth inch apart and approximately fourth inch from the outer edge of the sole of the shoe. This may vary some what in different shoes, but the tacks should be placed so that they will clinch on the edge of the inner sole. With a knife trim even with old welt. Hold the knife in the hand with the blade projecting beyond the index tinger so that it will cut the sole but not the Smooth the edge of the new leather against the old leather with an are one and the same. Dane ac-cuses Hauthorne of raunting her she handed me a long box.

always what they seem. But if on closer and longer acquaintance you find facked.

-B

Things You'll Love to Make

The Woman's Exchange

Where There is Varnish To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam-Can you print anything in the column that is good for removing some organization near the shopping varnish from home-spun linen? I tried coal oil without any results. MRS. E. F.

Put ammonia on the stains and then to a cripple or invalid. B. Z. B. sprinkle with a little turpentine. Leave t this on for about fifteen minutes, or Fifteenth street, is going to give out longer if necessary, and then wash with ' toys to children in the country, and soap and water.

To Clean Oil Paintings

To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam—I have two oil paint-ings that would be made attractive if be sent to some home where there are cleaned. Would be very much obliged if you can tell me, through the woman's they will be glad to send them wherever exchange. (Mrs.) E. A.

Moisten a piece of absorbert catton with a little soft water and rub P gently over the paintings. Then apply a little off on more cotton and wipe if all over the picture. If these are vainable paint-ings, it would be better and asfer to send them to an expert and the outer provide ings, it would be better and eater to sent them to an expert, as it is milite possible to hurt them with unskilled methods. However, if you apply the molstened cotton very carefully, it should not hurt the paintings.

During the war, and for a long tim

Yet, whatever small frugalities may Yet, whatever small frugatities thay practiced within the family circle, it not in good taste to attempt to "clean a pinte" at any social gathering. here there is an abundance of food red it looks greedy to devour every-ing to the last crumb, as the diner in a lillusjiration is doing.

Christmas Toys for Children

To the Editor of Woman's Page Dear Madant-Can you tell me of district which will be soliciting toys for the poor children of Philadelphia this Christman Would prefer that they go

The Children's Ald Society, 419 South keep some for its own playrooms here in the city this year at Christmas, and will be delighted to have anything that

The Question Corner Today's Inquiries

Mass E. Pearl Cartmill, of Chieage, is the only woman in the 1 nited States to hold the position she does: what sort is if)
 How can the woman who is not particularly skillful make a cunning lampshade for the child's

3. Describe a dainty basket for holding the bit of sewing a woman always hav.

What thrilling escape was made by Mary of Modena wife of James II of England, when this King lost the throne? In what old way are the straps on some gold slippers fastened?G. What modish dress would look well on the slim, dark girl?

Yesterday's Answers

 Mrs. Amy Davis Winship is one of the oldest "schoolgirls" in America, for at ninety years of age she completed the recent sumer course at the University of Wisconsin.

2. Some novel candles that make charming ornaments are pale blue with silver streaks running through them. A new conceit in soap is to have A new conceit in soap is to have it scented with your favorite per-fume and shaped into a tiny doll who wears a headdress of bright bits of feathers until you are ready to use her. 4. Mary Queen of Scots, who has always been such a romantic fig-ure in history, was condemned for plotting treason against the Queen of England and beheaded White tulle stitched in silver fushions an exquisite sleeve for the wedding dress.6. Perllaine is a wool cloth of ratine weave used for coats.

Hawtharne

with a man who was unworthy of air in his ideas about women, that he is looking to her to an influence over Julie, his <text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text> Touches of Silver Touches of Silver Janet obtained a position for me at the magazine where she was associate editor, and I was given the munificent solary of $25 a week. Gradually, as time passed, Crannerd Blake becaue

time passed, Crannerd Blake becaue time past, but I never told Janet anytime past, but I never told Janet the past, but I never told Janet any-thing about him. Six weeks after that terrible night in the restaurant I re-nlized that I had never loved him, and that even if he had really loved me and things had gone on and I had married him, I should have been miscrable.

When I met Dane I knew what real When I met Dane I time I had been advanced on the magazine to a position to the fact that he was one of the men who did not approve of independent

Aner warned me, she told me many times that I loved too blindly, too fool-ishly, but I was enger to spend myself. All I wanted in the world was Dane's love, and so fearful was I of losing it that I resolved not to tell him the truth about the mat a beat Completed and the WOTTOT about the past, about Cranford and the results of my ignorance

Is it any wonder that I am half ernerd with fear?

Is it any wonder that I am nfraid for Julie, knowing Cranford's fascina-tion and his power over women?

And now there is a cloud between Dane and me. I have displeased him. If anything happens to his little sister, I shall be blamed. I lie here on the I shall be blamed. I lie here on the couch and dread the time when he will come home, because I realize that his come home, because I realize that his home bonning will mean a renewing of hostilities. We had not settled anything nheur Julle when we quarreled last night, and his kindness to me this morning was only a result of my fool-ish crying and the fact that I was half The heroine of the old English ballad whe made this trank and limited requisition could parhaps be induced to re-consider one of the items which she thus spurns, Silver! Nowadays the is 1

1 must have failen asleep from sheer is in its unique flavour of rich delicacy. And It never varies. All grocers sell "Salada" in sealed metal packets only,

WIN $1,00000

Can You Answer This Movie Puzzle?

185 "Points" Wins First Prize

For each name you arrange correctly you will receive 10 "Points" toward the Dodge Touring Car or the $1,000 in cash, or you receive 100 "Points" if you arrange all 10 names correctly. You can gain 60 more "Points" by Qualifying your answer. That is, by proving that you have explained the 10 "Superior Features" of the Waliman Self-Filling Fountain Pen to five people. The final 25 "Points" will be awarded by 3 Judges on the neatness and style of played a joke on the audience, and you'll admit it was a good one.

On the Movie Screen above are the names of 10 movie stars rearranged. The Operator

To solve the puzzle rearrange the letters in the sentences on the screen so that they will spell each actor's or actress' name. For example: No. 1 is Elsie Ferguson. If you can name

(3) YES RAGES AN

4 PULL BARS DON

Get Ready Now

A Pan-American conference of women advanced on the magazine to a position A Pan-American conference of women under Janet. I was making $40 a is to be held in connection with the week. I realized what it meant to be third annual convention of the National independent, to do as I liked, and my overwhelming love for Dane blinded me next spring. A Pan-American conference of women with the will seek a seat in Congress next year.

OR A

DODGE

TOURING CAR

your answer.

A New Candidate

ness of the sole leather. should be long enough to clinch the inner sole. Sole leather may be pur-

WHO ARE THEY?

(1) GUS SEE OLIF REN (6) NOT KISJIN ER

2 DO THE ROSE BE TORR 7 VERY BABEL NYE

(5) CLEAN COMES DAT TANG (0) HE CAN RICH PAILL

(8) DARN WE OLRAN

9 CAN SHE BE WETL

St. Paul, Minn.

CHARUI

stomachs - and better health in the bargain. For sale every-

SUNSWEET

prunes

your answer. The answer gaining 185 "Points" (which is the maximum), will win the Dodge or the $1,000 in cash. Second, 25 Big Prizes. In case of a tie, both winners will receive the same prize. Send in your answer TODAY. As soon as it is received, we will send you a circular telling about the 10 "Superior Features" of the Wallman Self-Filling Fountain Pen FREE, to assist you in Costs Nothing to Try-You Can Win

You will not be asked to buy a Wallman Self-Filling Fountain Pen, nor to spend a penny in order to win. Just write your answer to the Puzzle on one side of a sheet of paper and PRINT your name and address in the upper right hand corner. Do your best and you can win. Answer the Puzzle NOW. WALLMAN PEN CO. Desk 139