and the result was that the evening was crewded full of exciting moments. Before, during and after the pastime there were plenty of doings to chronicie. Prior to the contest the air was full of Friedman-Sedran talk and the matter has reached the stage where the Camden owners will discuss the subject in connection with a special meeting called by President Scheffer at the Windsor tonight.

Selfig as fister as their name when a toused by the fury of football, arrived here the sarie varie for the week and have been practicing in the morning on the Paker lot. The Quakers have the field in the after noons.

THE early arrival was for a two-fold purpose. First and above everything else, to impress upon the gridiron followers that the game will be played, and, second, to become acclimated to the field and conditions thereof.

Five Keen Battles

During the course of the evening five keen battles were staged. They were Steele vs. McCarter, Cross vs. Campbell, Wright vs. Dolin, Kerr vs. Cal-houn and Referce Herman Bactzel vs.

The police were out to see that order was preserved and one overzealous of-ficer of the law was of the opinion that Harry Sugarman had passed a remark to Baetzel on his way out of the cage and although Harry insisted he was a friend of the official the guardian of the peace gave him the nir in short order. game, the best the Phils have played all season, although beaten. The full score was 28 to 25 and the boys were in there fighting every minute. Camden at no stage of the contest was more than 3 points and only secured the lead in the second half. The half time figures need 12 all. figures were 13 all.

The game was featured by the work of Wright at center. He blanked Eddie Dolin and secred three goals. Calhoun secred one, Dunleavy two and Cross one. For Camden Campbe 1 made three, Steel one and Dave Kerr four.
While Calboun played the entire game for the Phils and deserves lots of praise, he should endeaver to pay a little more attention to his man, as it ras the ability of Dave Keri loose and score four baskets that really won the game for the Skeeters. Shanahan Opens With Win

The Shanahan five opened the season last evening with a 32-to-27 victory over South Philly Hebrews at the Cavalry Armory. The feature was the play of Danny McNichol for Shanahan, d "Babe" Khatz, former Rending toff man, for the Sphas. Drive for Championship Honors Starts When George Zahn Reaches Hanover

OUTLOOK IS ENCOURAGING

Hanover, N. H., Dec. 1.—Coach George Zahn of the Dartmouth basket-ball team arrived here yesterday and immediately started work on the Green's 1921-22 drive for championship Green's 1921-22 drive for championship honors. The squad has been going through daily practice sessions under Captain J. A. S. Millar, of Asbury Park, N. J., for the last three weeks. Prospects for a winning team are brighter this year than ever before. Bask-thall has grown in favor by leaps and bounds during the last few seasons since Zahn took charge. Starting in 1919 with a hopeless tail-end combination.
