Woman's Life and Love

The Great Adventure

mope and weep There are a few big, humorous souls that take what the gods send, in a cheerful spirit, or at least in a spirit of bravery. They will not let fate down them. They own them. They feel that, bad as sometimes is.

this life is bere.

HARPER COOLEY

and we must get through it in a proud, high-minded way.
We must be 'game.'
They may be suffering from an in-

WE MUST regretfully acknowledge as are men. They are heroic in the A MARVELOUS sentence was utdure many martyrdoms, and relinquish many pleasures from a sense of duty.

But when it comes simply to being a "good sport." in the sense of being cheerful and amused at the hard knocks, they are not so apt to make

We are too introspective, too morbid. We regard selfconscientious. analysis as a virtue, and depression and dullness as something praiseworthy. f not divine! As was said of the pions female who enjoyed suffering and im-pressing her misery on others. "She was never so happy as when bearing a periences if we have the drama and thrilling ex-thrill in our own souls. Dull and drab is existence, however, for the person who is dull and drab—even if he dwell in a marble palace overhanging a sap-phire-blue ocean!

There is a famous drama called "The Joy of Living." whose heroine is dying of malignant cancer. She has sufonly physical torture, but has endured the chagrin and tragedy of seesink back into a tame friendship. Most women would have bewailed, upbraided and cast themselves into the Valley of the cast shall brink. pair. She played her hands as Fate dealt it, concealing her disease from all those that loved her and hiding her grief at losing her lover by gamely accepting his terms, and making the most of their altered relations. There were fancy stitches. grumbled Rose. no reproaches. She was glad just to you know I never can get the flowers live.

If WOMEN only could look upon life ence of all of life's ironies and cruel suffering. To be tender and sympathetic with others is a foregone conclusion with the linght hold! We are so prope to mope and weep and pity ourwomen to be "Pollyannas" of the thoughtless cheer, but it is possible to accept the bitter with the sweet, and > MYSELF am heaven and hell! I If we might but believe this, rather than cherish the egotistic con-ception of our own importance and feel 'abused' at our sorrows, as if some pecially appointed devil were followng us ground, torturing us, just to Experience is Humanity's Great Ad-

What though death take from us our beloved, at least we have entry, ing! Death is not the worst fate in Ing! Death is not the worst fate in They may be suffering from an instore for mortals. That is but a quescurable disease. Or they may have tion of dates, for it comes to all. Nor endured more than their allotted share is our own departure a matter of vast of misfortune and tribulations. Hut moment or grave concern; the earth will they simply won't go down in the strug- not stop when we cease to breathe.

hand, and sinking into the ocean, and into Eternity: "Death is Life's Great

That brave philosophy might have been uttered by some dramatist com-fortably seated in his study, because it sounded heroic. It might have been offered as solace by some religionist or moralist, who himself was in no danpressing her misery on others, "She ger. But for a man who was facing was never so happy as when bearing a death, and knew that in a mement he would suffer the agony of relinquishing all life's joys, and sink into the cold water forever, it was a noble and tranfull of dramatic and thrilling ex seendently beautiful utterance. Death can seem a beautiful adventure mark.

and thrilling adventure!

At last shall find you by the river And, offering the Cup, invite your Soul b from your lips to quaff-you shall felt.

Simplifying Things

It's all right if you can do those all tucked in their proper places and the leaves won't stay where they belong. DEW of us dare embark upon the they must spread out. I guess I d just reat adventure of life. We are they must spread out. I guess I d just better not try making these fancy hanking these fancy hanking the fancy hanking and tremble and hide behind a monotonous existence, lest we tempt the gods by raising our heads above the mass. We remain down in the trenches, For us there is no thrilling joy (and danger) of going over the top!

When Dane spoke again it was with gravity that was almost smug. At they do make darling Christmas glfts. But here's where Rose's good fairy took a hand. She let her see—Just a glimpse, still it was enough—a hand-kindly trouble took a hand. She let her see—Just a glimpse, still it was enough—a hand-kindly trouble took a hand. She let her see—Just a glimpse, still it was enough—a hand-kindly trouble took a hand. She let her see—Just a glimpse, still it was enough—a hand-kindly trouble took a hand of the performance of the wind and an untarnished reputation. The first time he was realizing that they do make darling Christmas glfts. But here's where Rose's good fairy took a hand. She let her see—Just a glimpse, still it was enough—a hand-kindly trouble here. The first time he was realizing that they do make darling Christmas glfts. But here's where Rose's good fairy took a hand. She let her see—Just a glimpse, still it was enough—a hand-kindly trouble here. The first time he was realizing that they do make darling Christmas glfts. The first time he was realizing that they do make darling Christmas glfts. The first time he was realizing that they do make darling Christmas glfts. The first time he was realizing that they do make darling Christmas glfts. The first time he was not my lover, he gravity that was almost smug. At their moment he was almost smug. At their moment he was not my lover, he was the wind at the first time he was not my lover, he was the wind at the first time he was realizing that the first tim danger) of going over the top!

How wonderful, could we but drink deep of the cup of Life, in a fine, large sense, "for we know not whence we came, nor why."

To be eager for the great adventure does not imply that one need be ruthless or selfish or cruel. Nor does it, on varies the color combinations in a way the other hand, suggest a smug, complacent optimism, that denies the exist-person on Christmas Day.

One selfish or cruel. Nor does it, on varies the color combinations in a way the color people you know, he said finally, and very deliberately. What kind were they?

Paul and Virginia

By HELENA HOYT GRANT

Put and Take

DAUL burried into the bank and by check, But a savings account down nodded a bit nervously to the assistant cashier, who sat in a little mahogany pen apart from the rest of the caged inclosures of the inclosures of the banking rooms.

"I came in to ask if you'd mind telling me you have a checking what my balance is," said Paul hastly.

said Paul hastly, draw. Now over-'I've sort of lost drawing annoys the track," he added bank to some extent. lamely. assistant tomer a whole cashier smiled pleas-

" he said, stroking his chin thoughtfully, 'yes, so many of our young men customers do. Funny, isn't 'I'll tell you how. Supposing young men customers do. Funny, isn't 'I'll tell you how. Supposing young men customers do. Funny, isn't 'I'll tell you how. Supposing young the damning information, penciled on dollars and let us transfer that a bit of scrap-paper, was in Paul's over into a nice new savings account Have it made out in your wife's name: that's the best way. You'll never miss that's the best way. You'll never miss this first ten, and then put, say, 5 per cent of your weekly income into that

The assistant cashier smiled again.

"Yes, so many of our young customers think that, too." He opened the little gateway that led into the ma- Paul moodily.

hogany pen.

"Step in a moment," he said aminbly. "I'd like to talk to you for a minute, if you've got the time."

Paul started nervously and made a motion as if to look at his watch; but he thought the better of it, and sat

Agent havide the essistant cashier's deak.

Paul reddened.

is thought the better of it, and sat down beside the assistant cashier's desk.

"Did you ever think of starting another account?" Paul smiled ironically. "Another account?" Paul smiled ironically. "Another account? My goodness, sir, the one I've got keeps me awake nights thinking about it."

"Exactly! That's the point. Just what I'm trying to get at. Why don't you start a savings account?"

"How can I save? Why, I'm right up to my salary every week."

"That's the reason," said the assistant cashier. "A checking account is necessary, of course, It is best to pay your bills, even the smallest of them,

"Tomorrow—To Market, To Market

"Yes, dribble is the best word I know to but it injures the cas-more than it bothers the bank. It hurts your credit."

But how can I save express it. You see cars, or fined and artificial tiont I was nimid of being questioned And if he looked at me so hostilely now, when he knew so little, how would be on if he knew the truth?

Tomorrow-Another Way Out

evan infants' colored kid sinces soiled or discolored, sonk "I can hardly keep up now, said They will have nearly their original

Makes such creamy,

Delicious, richly flavored Puddine desserts are welcomed by the whole family. They can be made in five minutes and at small cost. There

At All Grocers, 10c, 15c

Two Minutes of Optimism By HERMAN J. STICH

Postponing Life

THERE are so many things we are going to do-when we get time A well-known lawyer told me the other day of his boy of six.

The little chap was very proud of his papa, and he never got half enames enough to play with him. One thing in particular this youngster wanted very much to do, and that was to go out to the zoo and see the animals.

And his papa said he would take him-some day

But the lawyer was busy. He never could spare the time.

He was working, working, at his office, to make mency, so that some day little chap could get an education, so that he could have all manner of rantages, so that his wife could swap the old flivver for a brand new big

And he simply did not seem to be able to squeeze in enough time to go with Willie to the zoo.

Then one day Willie was sick

He didn't get better. Toward the last the lawyer sat at his son's bedside, holding his hand.

"And," he told us as his throat choked, and tears welled to his eyes, "do you know what was the last thing he said to me? It was:
""We'll go to the zoo—some time—won't we, daddy?" "What do you think of that? I had postponed it—postponed life postponed

"Should a Woman Tell?"

BY HAZEL DEYO BATCHELOR Copyright, 1921, by Public Ledger Company

Hauthorne Emery decides to arry Dane Merrill seithout telling him that she has once been in love with a man who was unworthy of her. She discovers that Dane is very narrow in his ideas about comen, and that he is looking to her to exert an influence over his little butterfly sister, Julie, Julie has fallen in love with a man much older than herself, and later Haw-thorne discovers that Julie's lover and Cranford Blake, the man from the past, are one and the same, Dane accuses Hawthorne of vaunt-ing her independent ideas before lulie, and forbids her to go any-where without him in the future. Hawthorne's unwillingness to accept this ultimatum causes a quarrel between them, and the past when she discovered Cranford Blake to be a professional gambler, looms up and threatens all her happiness.

CHAPTER XXXV

Suspicion

WHEN he came home that evening Dane was all consideration for "When you and I behind the Veil are me. He asked how I was, he petted that women are not quite so apt to Oh. but the long, long while the world ine, and it wasn't until later in the their medicine without "kicking" shall last."

"I thought you didn't have any opinion of my influence over Julie," I venared, smiling a little, His features softened. "Dear, I was frritable last night. I'm sorry I made you unhappy."

I was silent at this, for I knew that it did not mean at all that Dane had conceiled anything to me. He was still proceeding on the idea that I had surrendered my will to his. "How did you meet him?" he asked suddenly, reverting to his former re-'In the most casual way,' I said quickly, 'and I lost sight of him in a very short time.' only to one who has made of life a great

Such a soul might say to women who are terrorized at life's demands. Wes, he knew some people that I went about with when I first came to fearing a thousand foolish results. "Live New York, and I saw him occasionally.

'So that when the angel of the darker He was silent a moment and heart beat so loud that I was sure he ist hear it knocking against my side liow I loathed myself for lying like this, ow low and small and contemptible I felt. But wousenlike, having ven-tured so far. I was tempted to go on. I was entanging myself in a tissue of falsehood. I was adding insult to injury, and at any moment I might be discovered. Then why was I trying so desperately? Why, why? Mainly because there was always the one chance ing desperately at that small, fortern

I felt a mad, hysterical desire to augh, and I crushed it back. If only I could be calm and laugh at his insistmake light of it, but my nerves stretched light, as if the tension that bound them might snap at any

I was trombling and it was an effort keep from shawing it. "Why do you ask me such questions? Why do you make me think that you suspect as of some wrong?" I burs! ad intended to be calm and t-

Dure stared at me and I read in likely sets the fact that he was displeased. Something else lurked there, too, Was it susplement If so, it was my own resorted R. What would Dane What was he thinking now?

Babies' Shoes

in somet milk alightly warmed then some it on pure white some, and pronge on the slippers. Wipe off with nourishing desserts are eight delicious flavors.

Fruit Fuddine Co., Baltimore, Md.

Quality and Quantity

Victor

worth of health and goodness

Sold only in Asco Stores

WHICH STYLE DO YOU THINK IS THE BETTER OF THE TWO?

ness girl? In nest becoming tailored she prefera? serge the modern "working girl" appears neat, attractive and appropriately dressed for the office. But the ultra-modernist thinks that skirts interfere with her progress from home to the office and from her desk to the file case. Anyhow, with the vote, she feels that she has earned the right to wear knickers and a mannish coat with her woolen stockings, striped.

"Ruth R." to "John Brown"

Dear Cynthia—I am interested in "Prudence's" letter in answer to John Brown's letter of a few days ago.

Just because John Brown has had the good luck to "know it all." surely he is some people in this world who are either too young or else have not had the opportunity of coming in contact with enough people and do not know enough not to have to write to the column of, for that matter, to any column, for answers to John Brown's letter of a few days ago.

Just because John Brown has had the good luck to "know it all." surely he is some people in this world who are either too young or else have not had the opportunity of coming in contact with enough people and do not know with enough people and do not know enough not to have to write to the column of, for that matter, to any column, for answers to John Brown's letter of a few days ago.

Just because John Brown has had the good luck to "know it all." surely he is some people in this world who are either too young or else have not had the opportunity of coming in contact with enough people and do not know with enough people and do not know that there are some people in this world who are either too young or else have not had the opportunity of coming in contact with enough people and do not know with enough people and the opportunity of coming in contact with enough people and do not know that there are some people in this world who are either too young or else have not had the opportunity of coming in contact with enough people and the opportunity of coming in contact with e

Photos by Central News.

The Woman's Exchange

The Book Has Been Found Some one telephoned vesteriay to say a she has the book called "The Fatal

For Ice-Cream Stains

If you are a mag gifts of these CHIEST LAMP SHADES or keep t manent use, you can ma decrative with gold braid disturbed sleep.

Postum instead.

name To the Editor of Woman's Page:

very fay when they will parade with some the fact that have been active in trying to get the New Years have been active in trying to get the New Years that he heen active in trying to get the New Years that he heen active in trying to get the New Years that he heen active in trying to get the New Years that he heen active in trying to get the New Years that he heen active in trying to get the New Years that he heen active in trying to get the New Years that he heen active in trying to get the New Years that he heen active in trying to get the New Years that he heen active in trying to get the New Years that he heen active in trying to get the New Years that he heen active in trying to get him? If the ring is given to me on that day what should never be this Broad street parade could never see this Broad street parade could never see that Broad s for here However, Mr.

Real Rest Depends Largely Upon

the Depth of Your Sleep

A warning to "light" or "poor" sleepers you feel. Five hours sound refreshing sleep does you more actual good than ten hours restless, rapidly when the physical and mental forces are irritating to the brain and nervous system.

The deeper and sounder you sleep the better

This is because the final conversion of food into vital tissue and nerve cells goes on more

You can't get sound, refreshing sleep if your nerves are agitated with ten or coffee. Both these drinks contain caffeine, which is sometimes very

If you want to know the joy, vigor and Thousands of people everywhere have found

Order Postum from your grocer today.

Poetum comes in two forms: Instant Poetum (in tine) stamina that comes to the person who gets sound, healthful sleep, why not stop taking tea or coffee for a while, and drink delicious, invigorating that this was the only thing they needed in order

Drink this delightful cereal beverage of coffee-like flavor, for a week. Perhaps, like thousands of others, you'll never be willing to go back to tea made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water.

Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared)

Postum for Health

'There's a Reason" to bring about these very happy results.

made by boiling for 20 minutes.

Please Tell Me What to Do

By CYNTHIA

Bobbed Hair Is Not Stylish Now Dear Cynthia—There is much discussion about hair-bobbing. I am a girl of eighteen, very anxious to bob my hair, but undecided, as the majority are against it. Please tell me what to do WILLING TO BE A BOBBIE.

The rage for bobbed hair is passing.

Write a Little Note Dear Cynthia—I met a boy this summer at the shore. He seemed to like me and I liked him. The last day he gave me his address and asked me for mine and I forgot it. Would it be right for me to write to him first, as he doesn't have my address? CUTIE.

for me to write to him first, as he doesn't have my address?

Since he gave you his address and you did not give yours, it would be all right to send him a little note. Say you realize you did not give him yours and you had enjoyed meeting him at the seashore and hope he will call on you some evening at your home.

And conversation, after they grew up, was always of the 'I haven't seen you for a long time; what have you been doing?' 'Yes, it certainly is—why, I don't know, what have you been doing?' variety.

So it was that when he got on her train not long ago he wasn't so very much elated when he discovered that there were only two empty seats in the car and that one of them was beside

Which Initials Shall She Use?

After his first rather brusque reply to the other girl's casually friendly remark, he swung out his newspaper, and for the rest of the trip engaged himself in absorbed perusal of one page of it. One single page for a full twenty minutes!

There are careful, slow readers in the two one page.

If you had asked that poor soul when he discovered that they were only two empty seats in the car and that one of them was beside here.

Dear Cynthia—Kindly advise what litials should be used in case of a loman who has been married. I refer woman who has been married. I refer to monogram initials. That is, should her Christian, maiden and married name be used, or her two Christian and they can be used, or her two Christian and they sous." and he sat down beside her.

A CAMDENITE.

It depends on the married woman's own personal choice. Some prefer to keep their family name and drop a second Christian name, while others drop the family name, it is more usual to keep the family name, it is more usual to keep the family name, however, and use Mary Brown Smith cather than Mary Jane Smith. Can you not find out from a member of your friend's family name, it is more usual to keep the family name, however, and use Mary Brown Smith. Can you not find out from a member of your friend's family name, it is more usual to keep the family name, however, and use Mary Brown Smith can you not find out from a member of your friend's family name, it is more usual to keep the family name, however, and use Mary Brown Smith can you not find out from a member of your friend's family name and out from a member of your friend's family name and out from a member of your friend's family name and on the married woman's empty seat, sat his girl.

He had entered the train with her, and winking at his girl, after she real ized what it was all about.

I wonder if she would have been a member of your friend's family name, it is more usual to the first place, which forced him to go on and sit beside "the other woman."

What a horrid situation!

If he spoke too cordially, he would get in bad with the lade of the only other could do to keep from turning around and winking at his girl, after she real ized what it was all about.

I wonder if she would a mused.

I wonder whether the other woman's in fact, it was all she could do to keep from turning around and winking at his girl.

I wonder whether the other woman's the first place which forced him to go on and sit beside "the other woman."

I wonder whether the other woman's and winking at his girl.

I wonder whether the other woman's and winking at his girl.

I wonder whether the other woman's and winking at his girl.

I wonder whether the other woman's and winking at his girl.

I wonder whether the other woman's and winking at his girl.

I wonder whether the oth Jane Smith. Can you not find out fro a member of your friend's family which

"Ruth R." to "John Brown"

wear knickers and a mannish coat with her woolen stockings, striped waist and soft hat. Which do you prefer?

I will say this much for myself, that I do not know much of ethics, etc., but I do know when I am "stuck" and must enlighten my mind, for little things mean a whole lot in this world of ours.
I trust that the next time John Brown and a particular that the next time John Brown and a particular in this column by rill. reads an article in this column he will look "at both sides of the story"; that is, how he would look at the matter and how the writer look. how the writer looks at the matter, and then say that it is "silly" if it is. RUTH R.

Shall She Accept Ticket?

He Came In With His Girl, but He Had to Sit Down With Another Girl He Knew

And His Embarrassed Panic for Fear His Own Girl Would Catch Him Being Too Friendly Was Funny to See

THEY knew each other pretty well, might think he was waiting for her each other by their first names.

But they seldom met. Their friendship had been one of those casual boy-and-girl affairs con-be used, or her two Christian names and husband's names?

May I ask you to hurry your reply, as I am waiting to order a Christmas gift?

A CAMDENITE, empty seat, sat his girl.

Not that she seemed to be possessed

They knew each other pretty that is, when they met they called to start the conversation, and begin to get "clubby" with him.

Then there would be a "fishy eye," cold and glaring, centered upon him.

And oh, the consequences! The aftermath of that ride! sisting of "Hello" and "Hello," when-ever they saw each other at parties or passed on the street or anything like the he did the only possible thing left.

After his first rather brusque reply to one page.

If you had asked that poor soul what he had been rending at the end of that pins-and-needle ride, he would have stared at you in amazement.

He didn't even know that he was looking at news.

But he thought he had saved himself a lot of trouble.

What a horrid situation!

If he spoke too cordially, he would get in bad with the lady of the engle get in bad with the lady of the engle ready for him.

amused.

I wonder whether she really did have that eagle eye on him, that fishy eve ready for him.

Some girls would have, of course, But lots of girls, even if they are Not that she seemed to be possessed of an eagle eye, but what man's girl entering a train with him and seeing him sit with another girl could fail to have at least an eagle eye, if not a "fishy" one?

Yet, on the other hand, if he did not speak cordially enough, the other girl short leash much less necessary.

> WHAT'S WHAT By HELEN DECIE

Shall She Accept Ticket?

Dear Cynthia—While at a party last Sunday I met a certain young man who seemed to take a sudden liking to me. He took me home and on the way asked me to go to a dance with him Saturday. He also gave me a ticket to give to my girl friend if I did not want to go alone. Asking my girl friend to go alone asked to my girl friend to go alone. Asking my girl friend to go alone. Asking my girl friend to go alone during the Christmas shopping days than at any other time of the year. This sold Timers' Club, I have asked several people alone it, but nome said no and others said that they did not see anything wrong about it. It is right for me to go, and also should I go to a gathering of eighty-nine members.

The descularity of the club was proven

Shall She Accept Ticket?

Dear Cynthia—While at a party last sunday I met a certain young man who seemed to take a sudden liking to me. He took me home and on the way asked me to give to my girl friend t days than at any other time of the year. He as readily as the eyes.

Do you think gasoline or benzine is advisable to ascise on they professed when the baseball season just recently teach need to use for these stains. You can buy this at any drug store. It is not extend to the cold Timers played.

Things You'll Love to Make

Things You'll Love to Make

Christmas—

Christmas—

Tree

Shade

Only Walting.

Only Walting.

Only Walting.

Only Walting.

It would be wiser not to accept invitations from a person you have only met once. Let him call on you and from 2 min in 8000 people every time the old Timers played.

The rib won the undisputed champlonship of South Philadelphia, All the leading base in an advised plantage of the first of the much-lauded from 2 min in 8000 people every time the old Timers played.

The rib won the undisputed champlonship of South Philadelphia, All the leading base in an advised plantage of the point of utter exhaustion under the strain of quadrupled work. Consideration for them is one of the truest proofs of the much-lauded from 2 min in 8000 people every time the old Timers played.

The rib won the undisputed champlonship of South Philadelphia, All the leading base in an advised point of the point of utter exhaustion under the strain of quadrupled work. Consideration for them is one of the truest proofs of the much-lauded "Christmas spirit."

When a worman shopper tries to push with him unless he comes to your home and asks your parents permission to take you to the parents permission to take you to the parents permission to take you to the parents.

She Wants Advice

Dear Cynthla—As you have guen incompleted work. Consideration of quadrupled work. Consideration of them is one of the much-lauded "Christmas spirit."

When a worman shopper tries to push with him unless he comes to your home and asks your of the ribing the truest proofs of the much-lauded "Christmas spirit."

When a worman shopper tries to push work consideration of various proofs of the much-lauded of the parents permission to take you to the parents permission to take you to the parents denial, is a high voice, soft, but highpitched, lightly vibrating, and it seems cold and toncless. It is a habitual voice only when the subject is an habitual liar. It betrays the consciousness of an untruth uttered.

Of course, it is possible for the liar to eradicate this tell-tale indication if he is keen enough, quick witted enough and strong willed enough to force a bluff and hearty tone or any other voice mannerism

But the liar always makes a slip somewhere. Just as it takes more than human intelligence to tell many lies without making one of them expos another, so it is impossible for mere human ability to guard all the outlets of expression, and though the liar may exact his voice he mere force the guard his voice, he may forget his eyes, or if he is able to guard both, it may be the expression of the mouth or some unnaturalness of manner that betrays him. And the vast majority of liars, Good manners should be more in evi-dence during the Christmas shopping do not know that the voice betrays the

Tomorrow-Round, Plump Hands

"MILLARDS"
The Shops of Sensible Prices

For Friday and Saturday Only-Street and Afternoon Dresses Specially Priced

at $25 and $35 At $25-Perfectly Tailored Frocks of Poiret Twill and Tricotine-Several Models. One Illus-

At $35—Afternoon, Dinner and Dance Frocks of Chiffon Velvet, Canton Crepe, Duvetyne and Taffeta. One Model of Chiffon Velvet illustrated. The original tag on this frock is marked $75.

A delectable little Dance Frock from the Chestnut Street Shop is of changeable Taffeta and has petal flounces edged with silver picot. For the week-end only, $35.

A Blouse of Snowy Dotted Swiss-

Also Imports and Reproductions at 1/2 price

PHILADELPHIA S. 13th St.

Your Millard Charge Account Is Good at This Shop

Clearance of Hats to make way Sale for Southern Showing.

1337

Chestnut St.

Boardwalk Shop-Atlantic City-Brighton Block

