Algernon Blackwood's Latest In "Success" Samuel Hopkins Excursion Into the Supernatural would be difficult to trace the origin of the weird imagination of Al-Blackwood. He is the son of Alexander sekwood and the widow of the sixth Duke of Manches-He farmed in to the Rainy River ld fields and ran hotel. He was a reporter on the Times and the Sun in New York, and be later engaged in the dried writing books the unreal it impossi

a problem calculus to worked in collaboration with Wilfred W indicated in the substitle announces as "few stories." Now "fey" is a Scatch word which means "disordered in mind," or "fated to dis" is the substitle announces as "few stories." Now "disordered in mind," or "fated to dis" is the substitle announced in mind," or "fated to dis" is the collaborate in a semicondate of the stories in the same accurately fluid any other term the laind of stories in the volume. But the tales come above to be a substitute in recent years without as a sistance. It is assumed, therefore, that his collaborator has had a hand in the plots, giving them a semicondate of realising type while the word and uncanny element has been supplied by Mr. Blacks wood.

Wilson in producting what the substitute and nectivation politics, advantage in the American in the substitute and supplied to substitute in the substitute in the collaborator line and the tales came above the state of his career tiles in its way "covered" what might be said of the Princess as a maker of literature, but none of them would be that she does not a write interestingly. She is mean at write interestingly. She is mean with any things might be said of the Princess as a maker of literature, but none of them would be that she does not a write interestingly. She is mean with any things might be said of the Princess as a maker of literature, but none of them would be that she does not a write interestingly. She is mean with any things might be said of the Princess as a maker of literature, but none of them would be that she does not a write interestingly. She is mean within the said in the said and uncome of them would be that she does not a write interestingly. The same of them would be that she does not a write interestingly. The same of them would be said to the princes as a maker of literature, but not a write interestingly. She is mean within the said to the princes as a maker of literature, but not a write interestingly. She is mean within the said the few and in the said to the conventi returns home to escape the vengennes will set thoughtful men to desper thinkof the "wolves." The story doals with his fears in a most dramatic manner ful part of modern mechanistic civiliand leads up to a thrilling climax when the avengers come on the wings of the storm and force the gullty man to go for ill to the common welfare. storm and force the guilty man to out to meet them. "Chine-e Mazi out to meet them. "Chinese Magle" treats of a disordered mind in a nevel and surprising way and "The Decay" uses the story of a haunted house as a piece of mechanism in a take about a voice wife mechanism in a take about a young wife married to a married man, ret more interested in a young later. The volume is a redirection of investory stories, with just enough of the super-

Achmed Abdullah Uses Him in a Stirring Novel of Africa

American wir and during joined to the philosophy and faralism of the inysterious East are pitted successfully against the fetish suragery of the Dark Continent in Actuard Abdattality large hovel, "The Night Drams" slames A. McCann Company . This gifted and wivid writer, a native of Afghanistan, educated in France, England and the many and now resident in the Legent States, has given his Oriental imaging. tion ample sand in a nurrarity of oil venture and thrills, the which are Captain Stack David-West Point graduate, attached to re-French Foreign Legion in Figure El-Mokrani, his Arab menter and ally m his amazing enterprise, and a sinister black man with an autocontaineache name, but known to his super-titious Negro devotees as "The Master of the

A conspiracy to annihilate the white race, not alone in Africa, but torough out the world is postpayed in a serie situations in "The Night Dennes" The "Master of the Henry" has directly "Master of the Herr" has girred his self and the myrini followers who i him reverence into the hellof that he immortal, a reflectment of the parameter. A Black Adam to the form mummy Phermon kees salace at El-Kamele gross

tude to this asteroisting Negros-tastic illusion. This is that The h-race at its cerv beginning mas of hue, that the batter African legitimate rules of all the carrie that the white usurper who has nated him through countle "exerosconor" limit mad climax of the 'vark spiracy' is reserved for the end of Achmed Abdullah s freemating and in-usual yard and is in keeping with the stirring incidents that promisrunning through the novel, the femal line, a charming I mener maken, a is the goddess of Captain State Leave dreams when he isn't working to com-cert with his Arab friend [15-Maharah to thwart the dinholism of the "Master of the Hour," and Neurala, whose has band has been believed by the fattor's order and who in turn gives the compose grace to that ine-penkable marketer in a truly trage marting, there's noting effectually in the preservation of

Chiefs of Big Industries

white civilization

"Famous Leaders of Industry." by Kdwin Wildman (Page Company), is the second series of the nuther's wellustrial captains. Among those discovered in the second most of them entire many, are William Childs. The father of the modern restaurant is lames I. Lift, the coulder of the Northwest is M. C. Keith, the "banana king" of Control America; Herbert theory, Thundons Vall. E. H. Harriman, Glenn Curito drew Carnegie, General Goetlan's and

A Sea Tale for the Danes Captain David W. Bone's stirring the of the sea. "The Brassbounder." which E. P. Dutton & Co. published at spring a new edition, is being ansisted into Danish, and is to be ablished before long in Denmark.

TALES OF THE WEIRD A SUPER-JOURNALIST

Adams Writes Novel of Newspapering

Several years ago Samuel Hopkins Adams wrote "The Clarion," a novel of newspaper "to which was both more veracious and more illusive than the products of the fiction of newspapers loun. Both in books and on the newspaper reporter or editor is presented are usually misrepresented. They are paredied, behavioured or communicized. In short, they are earientured not characterized.

Mr. Adams' newspaper persons, both "The "larion" and his new nevel, "Success" (Houghton Mifflin Company), are real enough to be always believable and sometimes convincing. Experienced in journall-m though he be, he cannot always refrain from sentimentalizing his people and his sub-fect. The newspaperman cas the slang of the craft names the journalist) has been pretty well absorbed in the fictictist, ungazinist, propagandist and publicist. Mr. Adams, in "Success," is often the remembering and memorable newspaperman, and often one, other or d! his other munifestations. And the impressions of the later phases of his evolution are the more deeply marked on the pulsupsest; that is, the human mind. And so be forgets the hundring. commonplace, reutine, conventional, standardized process by which a certain number of persons, average, ner a living through purveying the news to their fellows, rate about the same as the rest of humanity with about the The mental twist may men had faith in werewolves and in the But containly Mr. Admins' personsigneed forces of the nin.

His name appears on the title page of a new volume of fifteen short stories, named "The Wolves of the 1" it. P. Some of the pages are breatthess, none Dutton & Co. 1, after the first the line are dish. White newspaperdon is the the book. It is authoroused that he has underlying theme, this is supplemented worked in collaboration with Wilfred by additional motivation -politics, advanced in an inking of it.

But containly Mr. Admins' personsition of the washing amount from the disappears something amount from the disappears and they will not be disappeared. The book is called "I have only it is a transfer to the first story."

But containly Mr. Admins' personsition of the missing of the washing amount from the disappears on the filled in the disappears of the page.

Some of the page are breatthess, none the book. It is announced that he has underlying theme, this is supplemented that would be said of nor beautiful to the disappears of the page. Dutton & Co. r. after the first the an are successful than the base underlying theme, this is supplementally the book. It is authorized that he has underlying theme, this is supplementally and when she named it and wished to worked in collaboration with Wilfred by additional motivation politics, adhered in collaboration with Wilfred by additional motivation politics, adhered for all responsibility. Many things might be said of the Many things might be said of the God," deals with a superstring of the The one electrons externals in the main; scientness of their feminists. At Indians in the Hudson Bay country it is adjective. The other enters into the most part they are written with the evildoer will be pund-half by exercises; it is highly subjective. This evident sophistication of the fashing God's wolves, who roum the woods record and evaluation of the present property of the period, with its power, its pervading persons would would be presented a man in Canada, seveness, it is presented in propagated.

Russell's South Sea Stories "The Red Mark," John Russell's book of South Sea stories, published here two years ago by Knopf, which has the susson in London, where it was published under the title "Where the Payment Ends," running through five cilties in the month succeeding pub-Heation, is to be brought out imme-diately in this country by Knoof in a new edition under the English sitte, "Where the Pavement Ends."

Daughter of Margot Asquith, who has written a volume of sparkling short stories

MARGOT'S GENIUS

A Thrilling Story for Girls

DIANTHA'S QUEST

A Tale of the Argonauts of '49 By Alden A. and Emilie B. Knipe, authors of "Polly Trotter, Patriot," etc. Ill. by Mrs. Knipe. $1.75.

Send for illustrated catalog: "Macmillan Books for Boys and Girls"

AN EST BUNKATOR'S ME FROM THE MACMILLAN COMPANY

H. G. WELLS is probably the greatest romancer among modern writers. He conceived the idea of a great historical romance which tens of thousands of the best American people have read. HENRY ARTHUR JONES believes that what Wells writes is undermining the thought of the whole strata of English speaking folk. His recent book, "My Dear Wells" is of great importance to the few thoughtful minds that disagree with the whole Wells system of ideas. Price $3.00 Your lacal bookshop con supply to if not it one be had from

E. P. DUTTON & CO., 681 5th Ave., New York

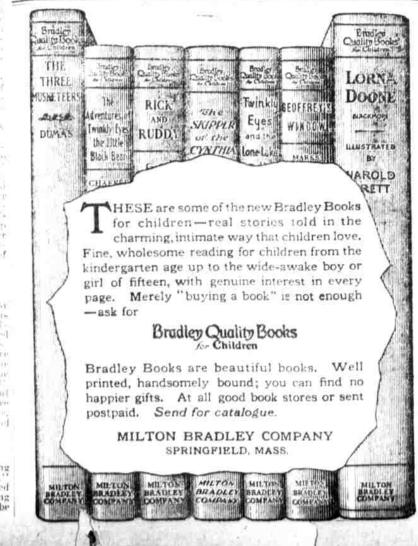

EDWIN AUSTIN ABBEY

ROYAL ACADEMICIAN, AND MEMBER OF THE NATIONAL ACADEMY THE RECORD OF HIS LIFE AND WORK By E. V. LUCAS

In Two Volumes, With 100 Illustrations in Photogravure and 90 Halftone and Line Plates Price, $30.00.

CAMPION & CO.

1313 Walnut Street

Ball," to mention only one of the fourteen tales, is slightly different, for it is an intimate and sympathetic exposition of the conditions of a young woman be-fore, during and after a ball at which she met the young man she loved. Thouyoung women will recognize its touch, but only a young woman gift for literary expression could have told it as Princess Bibesco has done She evidently has inherited the andacity

'Partners of Chance," a Western Novel of Father and Son

'Palship' between father and sonthat affection that is as binding if not as effusive as the usual relation of the joyous personality of Sally Dallam, mother and child is the underlying Sally is a delightful heroine, but shallone of Henry Herbert Knibbs in is not merely a prettified puppet. With Partners of Chance! (Houghton Mif-din Company), and he has sentimen-blends the sensible and the sturdy. neters burnanty real but not mandlin,
"Little Jim" and "Big Jim" are first shown taking the blow of the decertion of "Big Jim's" wife and Little Jim's mother. They go West and there
"Big Jim" goes through a series of ad-"Big Jim" goes through a series of adean a happy family reunion. Horse and cattle thieves, good-na-It Is Exhibited in a Volume of a series and a likable Easterner who is the series by Her Daughter

Stories by Her Daughter

Margot Asquith's daughter, the Princess Bibesee, is out with a book of short stories. Those who read the mother's reminiscences, in which is inscitled the story of the normage of the rough dil the story because of the rough dill which it moves does come dull-which it never does,

Famous myths retold for

The GOLDEN FLEECE: And the Heroes Who Lived Before Achilles

By Padraic Colum, author of "The Children's Homer," "The Children of Odin," etc. With pictures in line and color by Willy Pogany. For girls and boys. (8-11.) $2.50. At all book toers or from THE MACMILLAN COMPANY

> NEW BOOKS FOR BOYS: 11-14

GREY WOLF: Lidian Mistery Stories of Coyote, Admidis and Men. By Bernard Sexton. Fully III. by Gwenyth Waugh. $1.75.

TEAM PLAY. by G. G. Livermore. Author f "Pake It From Ind." $1.75

THE CASTAWAYS OF BANDA SEA. By Warren H. Miller, author of "Sea Fighters," etc. III. $1.75. Adventures in the MITCH MILLER. By Edgar Lee Masters, New edition for boys, III, $1.75.

At all brokstores or from THE MACMILLAN COMPANY 64-66 Fifth Ave.

And Even Now By Max Beerbohm

The Evenin Post suns: 'Max is a final test of finglish cyvingation. His famor is for beyond anything so shoph as a time finger of scorn at a vious conditions he has gained by electrolibeing because his as a label article form of criticism.

a disposal Biological D $2 on at any buck-hop or from E. P. Dutton & Co., 681 5th Ave., N. Y.

How They Affect a Joyous Personality

"The Wings of Time" (Frederick A. Stokes Company is well described as the story of a woman's life of strong sunshine and deep shadow. In it Elizabeth Newport Hepburn has written an interest-holding novel of young love, of true devotion, of life's tests and of the final triumphy of a devoted companyous final triumph of a devoted, courageous girl, to list some of the elements of a piece of fiction that possesses both spirit and substance. The purpose of the author is to see life clearly and see it whole, as it environs and influences Sally is a delightful heroine, but she s not merely a prettified pupper. With novel might almost be called

The GAY

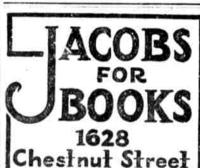

By Temple Bailey Author of "The Tin Soldier." Afrogother delightful stories which present Miss Bailey's best work, in ideal gift book. Jacket and

At All Bookstores, $2.00 The Penn Publishing Company Philadelphia

The Heart of Canyon Pass by Thomas K. Holmes

George Sully & Company 373 Fourth Ave.

CHARLES G. NORRIS'S Engrossing Novel R FANNY HURST thinks that "it rides Norris into the rank of foremost American Novelists." s on at any bookshop.

"BUY A BOOK A WEEK"

E. P. DUTTON & CO., New York

NEW HOLIDAY BOOKS For BOYS and GIRLS

For the Older Boys THE BOOK of COWBOYS

By DR. FRANCIS ROLT-WHEELER

For Boys from Twelve to Sixteen BOYS' HOME BOOK OF SCIENCE and CONSTRUCTION By ALFRED P. MORGAN

For Boys from Twelve to Eighteen THE BOY WITH THE U. S. SECRET SERVICE By DR. FRANCIS ROLT-WHEELER

For Girls from Twelve to Sixteen ADELE DORING AT BOARDING SCHOOL By GRACE MAY NORTH

is read with an the or but without loom well-rem

For Girls from Six to Ten THE SILVER BEAR By EDNA A. BROWN

The Most Attractive Book for Children Ever Published THE ANIMAL MOTHER GOOSE

WHEREVER BOOKS ARE SOLD LOTHROP, LEE & SHEPARD CO., Boston

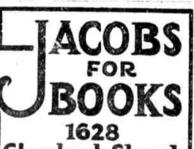

SHADE AND SUNSHINE fictional study of affection in different kinds and degrees. And Sally's own tender and true love story runs through the texture of her life like a richly colored thread of deep and lovely dye.

the despoiler of his home and the in- eager admiration of a sensitive child thustion that another chapter would for a sympathetic grown-up; the for a sympathetic grown-up; the friendly loyalty between two girls; the tured Westerners, the usual pretty girl the sound and stimulating regard be-beroine and a likable Easterner who is tween same and wholesome man and a sort of assistant hero flit hither girl; and the strong, abiding, com-

COCKADE

Another Strong Tale of the Great Northwest

by Meta Morris Grimball An ideal gift book in which can be kept a tecord of a baby's early life. $2.00 by Lewis R. Freeman The handsomely illustrated book describes Mr. Freeman's shrilling adventute on his trip down the Columbia from its glacial sources to tidewater. Profusely illustrated. $3.50 DODD, MEAD & COMPANY, INC. AARON WEST by John Knittel A strong store of a primitive hearted min. a son of the sea, and of the struggle within him of great good and great evil. $2.00

GEORGE H. DORAN COMPANY The PAGAN MADONNA by Harold MacGrath

> FRENCH WITHOUT A TEACHER by Philip Schuyler Allen

THE REFORMATION by Rev. Hugh P. Smyth The Reformation written from a Catholic viewpoint in plain, understandable English that a schoolbox may read and read with

FREDERICK J. DRAKE & COMPANY

EXTENSION PRESS, Publishers

wise survey of various mankind . . . add infinite charm and grace, a philosophy that is genuine and not bogus, and you have the ingredients of a true book." By the Same Author: "Far Away and Long Ago," "The Purple

Eleanor

H. Porter's

last great novel

SISTER SUE

possesses the real

Christmas

Spirit

Houghton Mifflin Co., Boston

W. H. HUDSON'S new book

A Traveller in Little Things

Christopher Morley, writing of Mr. Hudson, says: "to that delicious translucent style, that calm, unflagging humor, that honest and

Land," "A Shepherd's Life," etc. E. P. DUTTON & CO., PUBLISHERS, 681 5th AVE., NEW YORK

TRUMPETER SWAN

At All Bookstores, $2.00

The Penn Publishing Co., Phila.

By Temple Bailey

The Interlaken Library

AS EVERY book buyer knows, a good book binding, like a good article of clothing, is a source of satisfaction and economy. For the guidance of readers, therefore, we are listing below some of the current books of importance that are bound in INTERLAKEN - the book cloth that for thirty-eight years has been noted for its tasteful color tones and sturdy wearing qualities. LANGUAGE

> by Edward Sapir A book which will be basic in its subject, authoritative and popular enough in treat-ment to be of interest to the general reader

> HARCOURT, BRACE & COMPANY

RIDERS OF

THE PURPLE SAGE

HARPER & BROTHERS

DANTE'S DIVINE

COMEDY

by Courtney Langdon, Translator

motable contribution to American Dante cholarship, with the Italian original faced whilank verse translation; three volumes,

HARVARD UNIVERSITY PRESS

SUCCESS

by Samuel Hopkins Adams

GREENACRE GIRLS

by Izola L. Forrester

GEORGE W. JACOBS & COMPANY

M. BERGERET IN PARIS

by Anatole France

The last volume in the series of Contemporary History. The preceding volumes were: The Ein Tree in the Mail, The Wickenwork Wilman and The American Ring. $2.50

JOHN LANE COMPANY, Publishers

HEALTH

by George M. Price

Covering all essential points and brought up-to-date. There is much new material on Freventium of Infections Diseases, Industrial Hygiene and School Hygiene. $2.00 ner

LEA & FEBIGER, Publishers

A TALE OF A WALLED

TOWN

A human document from one who has known the heights and depths of life. It may well be placed among the great poetic productions of the age. $2.00

J. B. LIPPINCOTT COMPANY

THE FOUNDATIONS

OF PERSONALITY

by Abraham Myerson, M. D.

An analysis of character, defining the rela-tionshops between mind and character, brain and body, in ternis comprehensible to the

LITTLE, BROWN & COMPANY

THE CITIZEN AND THE REPUBLIC

by Woodburn and Moran

MYSTERY TALES

by Elva S. Smith

LOTHROP, LEE & SHEPARD CO.

THE FARM BUREAU

MOVEMENT

by B 8266-Penitentiary

SOCIOLOGY and ETHICS by Edward Cary Hayes A study of present instability of moralstand-ards and an attempt to establish scientific ethics based on sociology as a foundation for modern civilization

D. APPLETON & COMPANY

of KEARSARGE

By Arthur O. Friel

A man who fights like an

A quaint old-fashioned girl,

The wide vistas of the mountains, the tang of the pines, the summer sun in the orchard, the white silence of winter in the

The Penn Publishing Company

NEW BOOKS FOR CHILDREN

By William Bowen, Ill. by Reginald Birch, $1.75, (8-12.)

By Algernon Tassin, III, by Anna Brewster, $1.75, (5-8.)

Two titles in each vol. Each fully ill. in color. $1.50, (10-12.)

Send for illustrated catalog: millan Books for Boys and Girls

At all bookstores or from

THE MACMILLAN COMPANY

New Plays From Old Tales.

By Harriett S. Wright, by Robert d'Emo, $

Peeps at Many Lands.

The Old Tobacco Shop.

The Rainbow String.

Then this is the book for you!

sweet as the dainty pansy in avenging fury to defend a

If You Like

the garden-

At all bookstores

THE PROFESSION OF by Zane Grey
A new, beautiful holiday edition of the great classic of the West. With frontispiece, cover insert and 12 illustrations all in full color by W. Herbett Dunton. $3.00 IOURNALISM by Willard G. Bleyer A collection of Atlantic Monthly articles touching on the problems of journalism. Of permanent value for the general reader, newspaper worker and student of journalism

ATLANTIC MONTHLY PRESS, INC. THE SHEPHERD'S PIPE and OTHER STORIES

by Arthur Schnitzler Authorized translation from the German by O. F. Theis. The title story is one of the finest examples of the great Austrian's work. A Sea Gall Labrary Edinon. $1.50 NICHOLAS L. BROWN, Publishers

AUTOBIOGRAPHY OF BENJAMIN FRANKLIN It is as interesting as a romance, and the reader will learn much of the life and cus-toms of Franklin's day $1.25 A. L. BURT COMPANY, Publishers

MASTERFUL PERSONALITY by Orison Swett Marden

Dr. Marden here clearly shows the difference between the "follow-the-leader" type, and the man who leads. In which class do you belong? Net $2.00 THOMAS Y. CROWELL COMPANY

BABY-A RECORD BOOK

CUPPLES & LEON COMPANY DOWN THE COLUMBIA

The story of how "Chance, the blind Ma-donns of the Fagan," drew into the seething circle of an adventure, lives that it was not meant to rough. Net $1.75 DOUBLEDAY, PAGE & COMPANY

Contains $4 lessons and appendix, giving correct translation of all exercises, grammer, principle parts of irregular verbs, and a French English via abulary. $1.25

by Orville Merton Kile

A critical presentation of the activities and pulpriors of the Farm Bureau as a progressive type of organized agriculture THE MACMILLAN COMPANY

SMILING PASS A Sequel to SMILES by Eliot Harlow Robinson Smiles is the center of a new drama, more virile, more stirring than that of childhood but again she comes "smiling through." Illustrated $1.90

BOY SCOUT STORMS

by Thornton W. Burgess

World's Most Popular Juvenile Author

Four Volumes $1.75 each At All Bookstores

The Penn Publishing Company, Phila,

CONTEMPORARY PORTRAITS Third Series by Frank Harris Artists, Writers, Poets, Statesmen rise before our eyes painted by the magic of a great pen.

THE PAGE COMPANY, Publishers

PEARSON'S MAGAZINE THE CHARM OF THE

writers included are: Upto

ANTIQUE by Robert and Elizabeth Shackleton A great help to the amsteur lover of the antique. How to rell original from imira-tion. Handsomely illustrated. Boxed

THE PENN PUBLISHING COMPANY "A good and ex iting book told with all of Mr. Adams' persuasive eloquence and sin-cettry," New York Tribune. $2.00 A NEW MIND FOR THE NEW AGE HOUGHTON MIFFLIN COMPANY by Henry Churchill King This new volume of "The Cole Lectures" is a work of great weight in these times of conflicting opinions and purrling uncertainties. Net 31-50. Four jolly, lively girls are transplanted from their New York City home to a New England farm and make a success of it FLEMING H. REVELL COMPANY

FOUR EPOCHS OF WOMAN'S LIFE by Anna M. Galbraith

Maidenhood, Marriage, Maternity, Meno-pause. A clean, modest discussion of these stages of a woman's life by a woman physi-W. B. SAUNDERS COMPANY MEMORIES and NOTES HYGIENE AND PUBLIC of PERSONS and PLACES by Sidney Colvin A reminiscent book of the keenest interest, dealing intimately with Stevenson, of whom it includes a great deal that is new, and CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS

YOU by Magdeleine Marx Can the modern woman live by love alone? And what is the place of comantle love in a modern woman's life? A greater auccess than Woman, $193 THOMAS SELTZER, INC., Publishers

THE GIRL OF GHOST MOUNTAIN by J. Allan Dunn A western story of the most absorbing type—the fend between the men of the Circle S and the cattle rustlers

SMALL, MAYNARD & COMPANY THE SPORTSMAN'S WORKSHOP by Warren H. Miller

A practical "how to make" book for Sportsmen which the Sportsmen's Fraternity has long been looking for, by the former Editor of Forest and Stream $1.75 STEWART & KIDD COMPANY THE STORY of FRANCE

This new kind of text-book in government gives attention to current history and present day problems of democracy, as well as certain aspects of the old established order LONGMANS, GREEN & COMPANY by Mary MacGregor New edition of this hittory of France, brought down through the Circat War, in simple story form, placing emphasis on events interesting rocalidates, $5,00 The world's best stories to kindle the imagina-tion of south, gathered with trained knowl-edge by an expert in one of our most duport-ant libraries. FREDERICK A. STOKES COMPANY

INTRODUCTION TO THE SCIENCE OF SOCIOLOGY by Robert E. Park and Ernest W. Burgess

For the person who desires a foundation o real so, iological understanding. Represents the investigations and thought of the leading scholars in the field of sociology UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO PRESS

You may order any of the above editions from your book dealer with perfect confidence that their bindings not only will wear satisfactorily but will add to the appearance of your library table or book shelves.

INTERLAKEN MILLS, Providence, Rhode Island Interlaken Book (The standard since 1883