

COMBINE WEAKENS IN PAYROLL ROW

Is Forced to Admit Judge Brown's Court Has Too Many Employees

ROPER AND DEVELIN SCORE

President Judge Brown's recent return of Municipal Court employees is admitted on all sides today to be numerous

Even Combine leaders, coming through Chairman Charles R. Hall, have admitted, publicly confessed that some sections at least of the huge payroll were indefensible

Yielding to the insistent demands of public opinion, the Combine has made a start toward getting down to rock bottom in the matter of appropriations for the Municipal Court

Decline to Approve Five Divisions

The initial move made by the Combine, which is to reorganize the Municipal Court, will be to reduce the number of divisions from five to three

Actually, the only real cut made in the court budget was the two assistant gardeners, one at $200 a year and the other at $275 a year

Another Cut Made

The Combine made another cut in the Municipal Court payroll of ten clerks, one of whom will not receive the amount he is entitled to

Reparations Commission Will Study Proposal—Formal Request Expected

Paris, Dec. 3.—(A. P.) The Reparations Commission will study a proposal for reparations for the victims of the Armenian massacres

VERIFY TURK MASSACRES

The decision of the reparations commission to verify the Armenian massacres is a step toward justice for the victims

The results of the work of Roper and Develin in the Municipal Court are not a superficial investigation
