

RITTENHOUSE SQUARE IN WINTER CLOAK. The season's first snow-storm, which started yesterday morning, decorated the city in an artistic manner. In the background at the right is Holy Trinity Church.

AT SIXTH AND WALNUT STREETS. Comparatively few persons left their homes to face the blinding snow. The trolley system was not seriously inconvenienced.

• CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

DID YOU EVER DO YOUR WEEK-END SHOPPING IN THIS BUILDING? The photo shows the Lincoln Market House, at Broad street and Fairmount avenue, as it looked before Broad street was paved and when a horse-car line was operated on Fairmount avenue. The site is now occupied by the Lorraine Hotel. Have you a picture of old Philadelphia? Send it to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.

PACKING SNOW. The boys were busy rolling big ones when snapped in Washington Square at noon yesterday.

ZIANG-LING CHANG, secretary of Chinese delegation at Arms Conference. Harris & Ewing.

THE "WINNERS" OF THE FUTURE. Yearling colts, which will soon carry the colors of the George D. Widener stables, are now wintering at Elkins Park. There seemed to be no era shyness among the youngsters.

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY. The membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the Advocate, Germantown, celebrated the event yesterday. The Rev. J. Furman Shook, minister (left), and Bishop Charles Wesley Burns.

AN IMMIGRANT. When the S. S. Polonia arrived in New York Chaim Robenstein had to be awakened so he could disembark. The youthful orphan was making a hard try to get his daily nap. Underwood & Underwood.

GIRLS IN INDUSTRIAL PAGEANT. Members of the industrial clubs of the Kensington Y. W. C. A. conducted the affair. Miss Catherine Engle represented Industry; Miss Jessie Taggart appeared as Liberty.

AT CHARITY BALL. Miss Mary Ernestine Appleton was with the Polyclinic Hospital group.

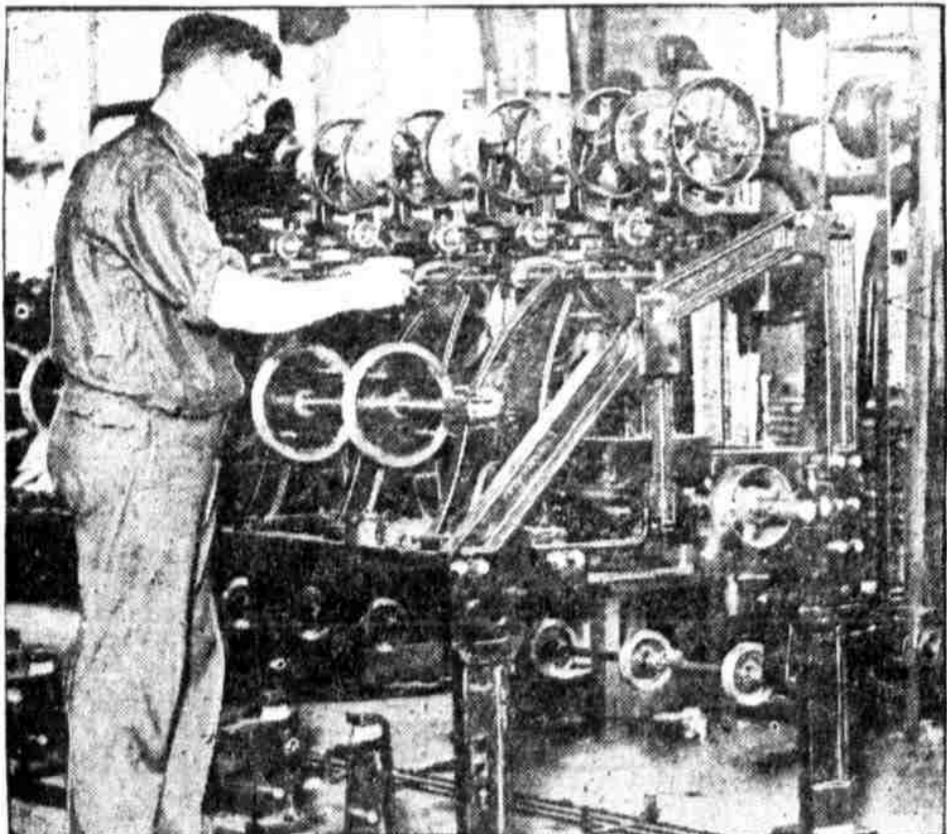

DORIS MARIE BINGHAM, 4053 North Uber street, attracts much attention by her dancing.

BACK FROM EUROPE. Miss Violet Mersereau (seated), and her sister Claire Mersereau, passengers on the steamship Arabic.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

EDWARD GURNEY, 2067 Seigant street, getting an insulating machine ready for shipping at the factory of the American Insulating Machine Company, Fairhill and Huntingdon streets. Gurney is making a general inspection.

BAZAAR FOR CHILDREN'S HOMEOPATHIC HOSPITAL. It was known as the "Sign of the Christmas Tree" and was held at the Bellevue-Stratford. Mrs. Don Hinkley was very busy at the doll counter. Virginia Heyserand (left) was admiring Mildred's dolls.

BAZAAR FOR CHILDREN'S HOMEOPATHIC HOSPITAL. It was known as the "Sign of the Christmas Tree" and was held at the Bellevue-Stratford. Mrs. Don Hinkley was very busy at the doll counter. Virginia Heyserand (left) was admiring Mildred's dolls.

BUSY PHILADELPHIANS

PAYING TELLER. Frederick... has been with the Kensington Trust Company for... His hobby is golf. He is a member of Stenton Country Club.