Nancy Wynne Talks of the Debutantes Who Attended the Bachelor Cotillon in Baltimore-Second Opera at Academy to Be Followed by Foyer Supper-Dance

A GOODLY number of Philadelphians went down to Baltimore last night for the first Bachelor cotillon. Virginia Gordon went of course, for she is spending her winter between Baltimore spending her winter between Baltimore and Philadelphia. Most of her friends and Philadelphia. Most of her friends and relatives live in the former city, but since her mother's marriage to Mr. Wilner Biddle, her home is in Philadelphia. While the spending Class. TACK had and one fuss after another the fuse had grown into an honest-todness fist fight. The other day Mother de ided to give Jack a birth-day party, so she called him into the the garden and said: "Jackie, Mother wants to know what little boys and girls you want her to ask to your party?" Jackie, lumediately interested, gave her the names. Then said Mother. "I'd like to ask Little and Miss Anna D. Little." "Jackie, Mother wants to know what to gimme a present.
