The Great Gift Stocks Are at Their Best—for the Best Christmas

In the Rapid Rush of the Christmas Days

often a day lost is irreparable, because the thing we thought of and really wanted to do in some mysterious way escapes us until it is too late to make possible the getting of a piece of bronze from Paris or Florence or a certain book from London or Edinburgh or a piece of lace from Brussels or Saint Gall.

It is true, however, that the Philadelphia store has the great stocks of the New York store to draw upon and a wireless connection "to

Charming New Dresses for Young Women—$30 and $48

Each of these two new models is so uncommonly lovely in quality design, that we predict for them a great social season The $30 dress is a satin-backed crepe, in black, midnight blue, old stry blue, Burgundy red, brown or jade. At the round neck and sleeve edging the satin surface is in evidence; and again in loop-like draperies from the hips, and in satin roses on the girdle. The lines of the entire frock are unique in girlish simplicity and charm. Even more captivating is the $48 model of heavy Canton crepe in a lovely rose color, terra cotta, midnight blue, brown or black. Handmade cutwork borders the round neck and brief sleeves. To the long waist are shirred wide panels, their deep cutwork border ding below the dress hem. This frock was designed especially for Wanamaker customers.

The sizes in each are 14 to 20.

"Look at the People Buying Luggage!"

So a customer exclaimed and asked the reason. The answer

Until this season luggage prices have been sky high for years. And many folks clung to their old bags and cases in spite of their shabbiness, waiting for prices to come down. Today these goods may be bought for anywhere from a third to nearly a half less than they were last Christmas and the possibilities of these things as gifts are limitless. You can get a good black cowhide traveling bag now for $6.

While You Are Thinking of a Piano Why Not Think of a Grand?

A grand piano used to be out of the question for the average home.

There was no room for it.

But things have changed now.

If you have room for an upright, we can show you in nearly every case how to fit in one of the exquisite new quarter or baby grand pianos.

They are not as big as the great concert grands.

But they are grand pianos for all that. They have the tonal superiority and the artistic excellence that belong only to a grand. We will work out a floor chart for you if you have any doubt as to "fitting it in" your home. Above all things, if you do get a grand piano, get one with a name that is above reproach.

You can get it here, and on convenient terms. (Egyptian Hall, Second Floor

Chinese Rugs Fresh, Fine and Gift-Like

Nothing could be more timely and welcome than this new shipment, bringing as it does a choice of the most attractive types of Chinese weaves anybody could wish for, especially anybody looking for a gift of the rich, beautiful and lasting kind.

These are notably heavy rugs and obviously good in color and texture. Pale salmon, or salmon pinks are conspicuous in the collection. and also there are many pieces in characteristic Chinese blues and some in mulberry.

The patterns generally take the form of floral sprays in shades forming a telling contrast with the background.

The Gift That Every Home Welcomes-Wanamaker Furniture

What is regarded as the finest exhibition of upholstery and cabinet work in this country is bound to be a very good place to come to for gifts of beauty and usefulness

It is certainly regarded as such by a very large and increasing number of people whose one object is to find a gift that will carry a message.

They are choosing Wanamaker furniture because it is pre-eminently a gift of that sort, a gift that leaves no doubt as to the feeling that dictated the choice of it.

The range of pieces shown on this Fifth Floor is certainly interesting to go through. Here are upholstered chairs and rockers and davenports that are an embodiment of ease, comfort and luxury. As gifts for older people such things hold a Uncommon and notably individual pieces, some of them faithful copies of fine old originals, are numerous in the display. A gift of one of these is something that will really enrich a home.

The hand-painted pieces hold a gift quality of a distinctive kind.

Every piece on the floor is a thing of real worth in the gift sense and in every other sense, because it is made on sound principles, made sensibly with a view to the purpose for which it is intended, made as beautifully as it is possible to have it and as soundly as will insure length of service.

Choose anything from a footstool to a sumptuous davenport, from a bookholder to a wonderful chifforobe, from a tray to a highboy, from a tea wagon to a writing desk and so on.
