Nancy Wynne Tells of the Wainwright-Crozer Wedding in New York Yesterday—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Widener Give Dinner-Dance for Miss Alberta Reath

TELEGRAPH wires were mighty busy on Wednesday evening and yesterday morning with messages about Mona Crozer's wedding. She and Neal Wainwright decided suddenly to have their wedding in New York yesterday instead of going down to Palm Beach and having a whole lot of fuss. They did not get away until the 29th, as Mr. and Mrs. Crozer were going South in a few days, but before Mona's parents left, a number of intimate Philadelphia friends were reached by telegraph and telephone. The ushers were not together—some of them had not yet arrived—so you know—and the wedding took place at half after 12 o'clock in the Church of the Transfiguration. It was a very pretty and dignified affair. Mona is handsome and young looking that she made a lovely bride.

There was no difficulty about the bride dress as it was all ready to take South with her for the marriage there, so she wore it and her veil and pearls, and was altogether charming and next day she will probably come out next year as her maid of honor, and her two small cousins, the daughters of Mr. J. Randolph Robinson, of Baltimore, were flower girls. Doug Craig, Jr., was best man for Neal Wainwright, and the ushers included Burkeley Wells, William Wister, Haines Webb, Bill Taylor, William Walters and Charles Johnson. The Crozers were staying at the Algonquin and Mona dressed there for the wedding, but the reception was given after the ceremony at the Ritz-Carlton, 355 Lexington avenue after their wedding trip.

There will be several important debutante affairs today, including two dinner dances. One will be given by the Joe Widener family, and the other by the Albert B. Pannett family. Mrs. Widener and Mrs. Reath are sisters, both daughters of the late Mr. Albert B. Pannett, of Bedford, St. David's. Widener received at the tea last week.

The other dinner dance will not be given here, but in Pittsburgh for one given by the Bannett family. The affair is being given by Banning's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Hasbrouck, Jr., of New York, for Banning and her cousin, Margaret Mellon, who is a debutante in Pittsburgh this season.

Another interesting event tonight will be the first meeting of Mrs. Edward Troth's dancing class out of Manheim. Mrs. Troth's class is one of the most popular affairs of the season in the out-of-town. It has been meeting for ten, perhaps fifteen, years and every one is crazy to join it because every one always has so much fun there. There are usually five meetings a year and this is the general night, though it is believed there is to be one meeting this season on a Monday.

Mrs. Troth's son was married last week in New York to Celeste Hochstetler, but I think they are still on their wedding trip and doubt they will attend the class tonight. The Harrison marriages will give a dinner for their daughter's marriage before the meeting and there are several other such affairs scheduled.

DESIDES all the gaiety, there is the tea at the Granite Cushman Club after the afternoon to Mrs. Edith Wynne Matthews, who is acting here this week. The afternoon yesterday was most interesting. Mr. Skinner always talks in such an interesting way and Mrs. Skinner, who was formerly president of the Granite Cushman Club and is still one of the Board of Managers, presided at the meeting with Mrs. George Lorimer, who is chairman of these affairs.

It was the first time the talks have been in the Academy proper and members of the Granite Cushman Club and the Granite Cushman Club members went into the Green Room to meet the speakers and Mary Roberts Rinehart, who was another guest of the afternoon. Mrs. Rinehart wore the most stunning
