

PLAYING SNAPPY SOCCER IN ENGLAND. Headwork seems to predominate at this juncture of the game, played at the Stamford Bridge field, near London. They sure do use the aerial attack. Wide World Photo

"CIGARS AND CIGARETTES." Mrs. Howard Reifsnnyder, Jr., one of the workers at the St. Stephen's Church bazaar held at the Bellevue-Stratford

SOLD "HOT DOGS." Maurice Mattinger, Jr. (left) and Robert C. Atmore, at St. Stephen's Church bazaar

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA? AS IT LOOKED IN 1871. You are looking at the north side of Market street, from Twelfth street to Eleventh street. The two large buildings were occupied by the Farmers' Market. On the same site now stands the Philadelphia & Reading Terminal. It was built in 1889. Note the horse-car tracers on both sides of the street. Have you a photograph of old Philadelphia? Send it to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER

PLEADS WITH STRIKING PACKERS. A scene in Kansas City, Kansas, where hundreds of meat packing-house workers are on strike. Major Burton is shown at right addressing the strikers, pleading with them to refrain from violence

GOING OFF DUTY. Six of Philadelphia's mounted traffic patrolmen passing over Chestnut street, at Broad, as they make their way to the Stables at Eleventh and Wharton streets

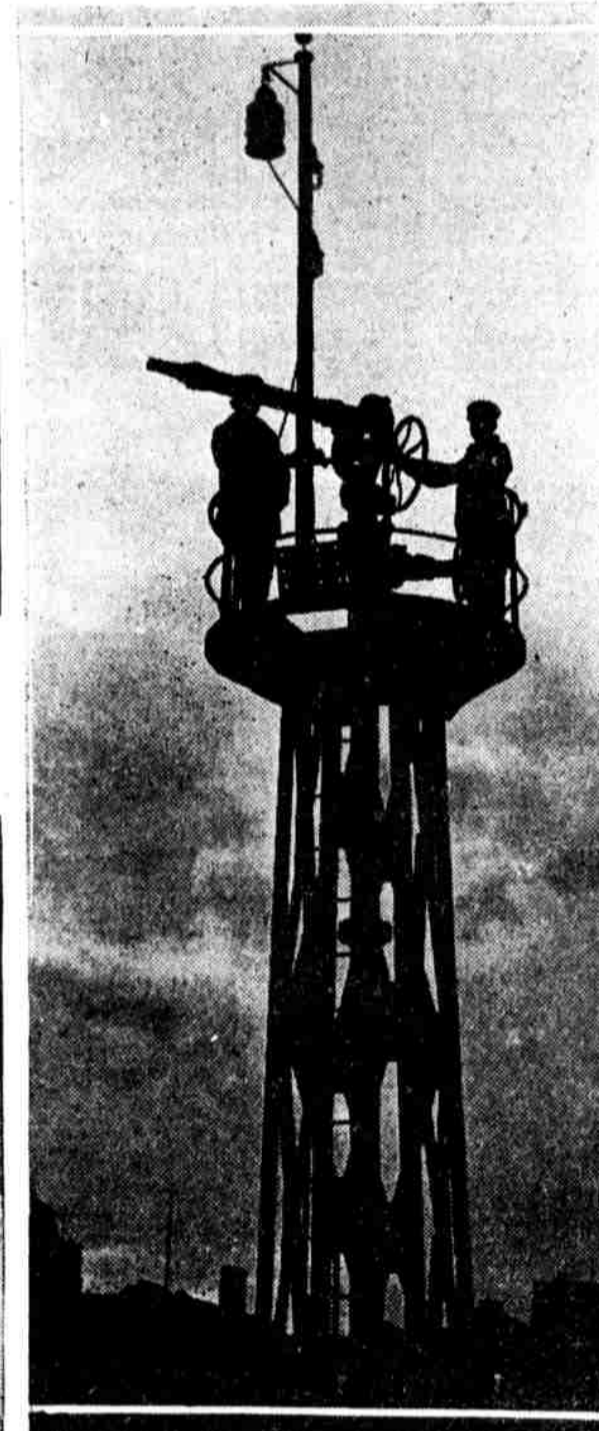

VISCOUNTESS BOYNE to be sister-in-law of Princess Mary. Viscount Lascelles is her brother Internationals

READY TO PUTT. Colonel Harvey, American Ambassador to England Photo Illus. Co.

THEY MARCHED BEHIND A TURKEY. Americans in London, who are members of the American Golfing Society, went to the Wimbledon Golf Club to celebrate Thanksgiving Day. This was just before cats were served. There was much turkey and fixings Photo Illus. Co.

ON THE FIRE TOWER. Just a glimpse of the new municipal fireboat Rudolph Blankenburg. It is now docked at Race street wharf awaiting series of tests

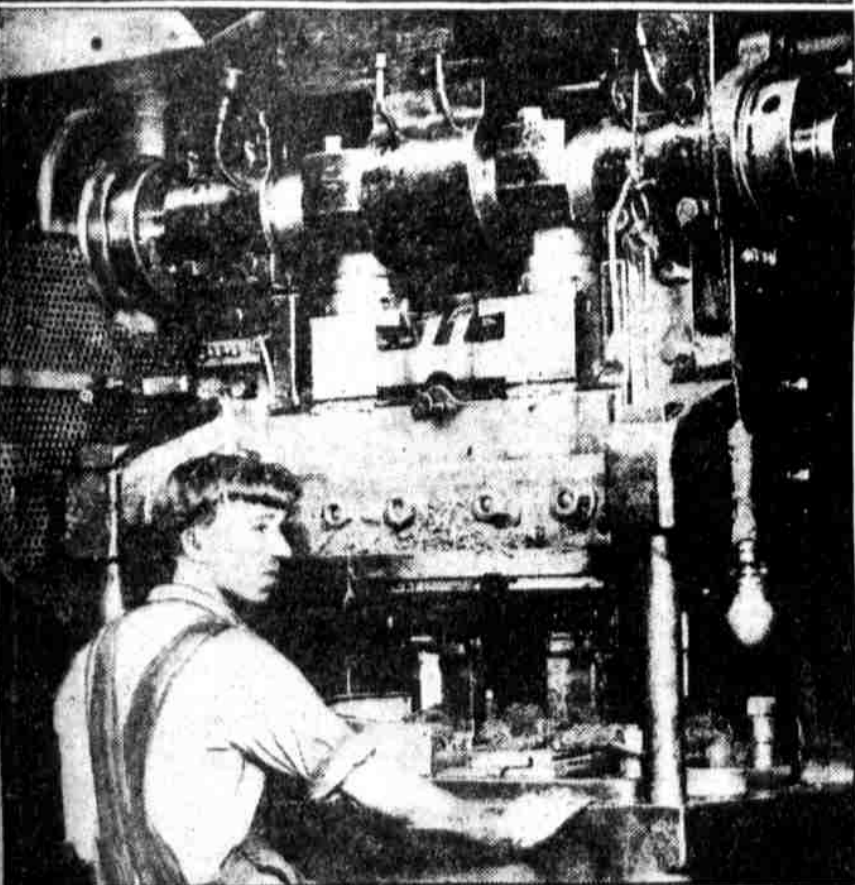

SAMUEL E. TURNER, newspaper man, is new head of the Kiwanis Club, of Chester

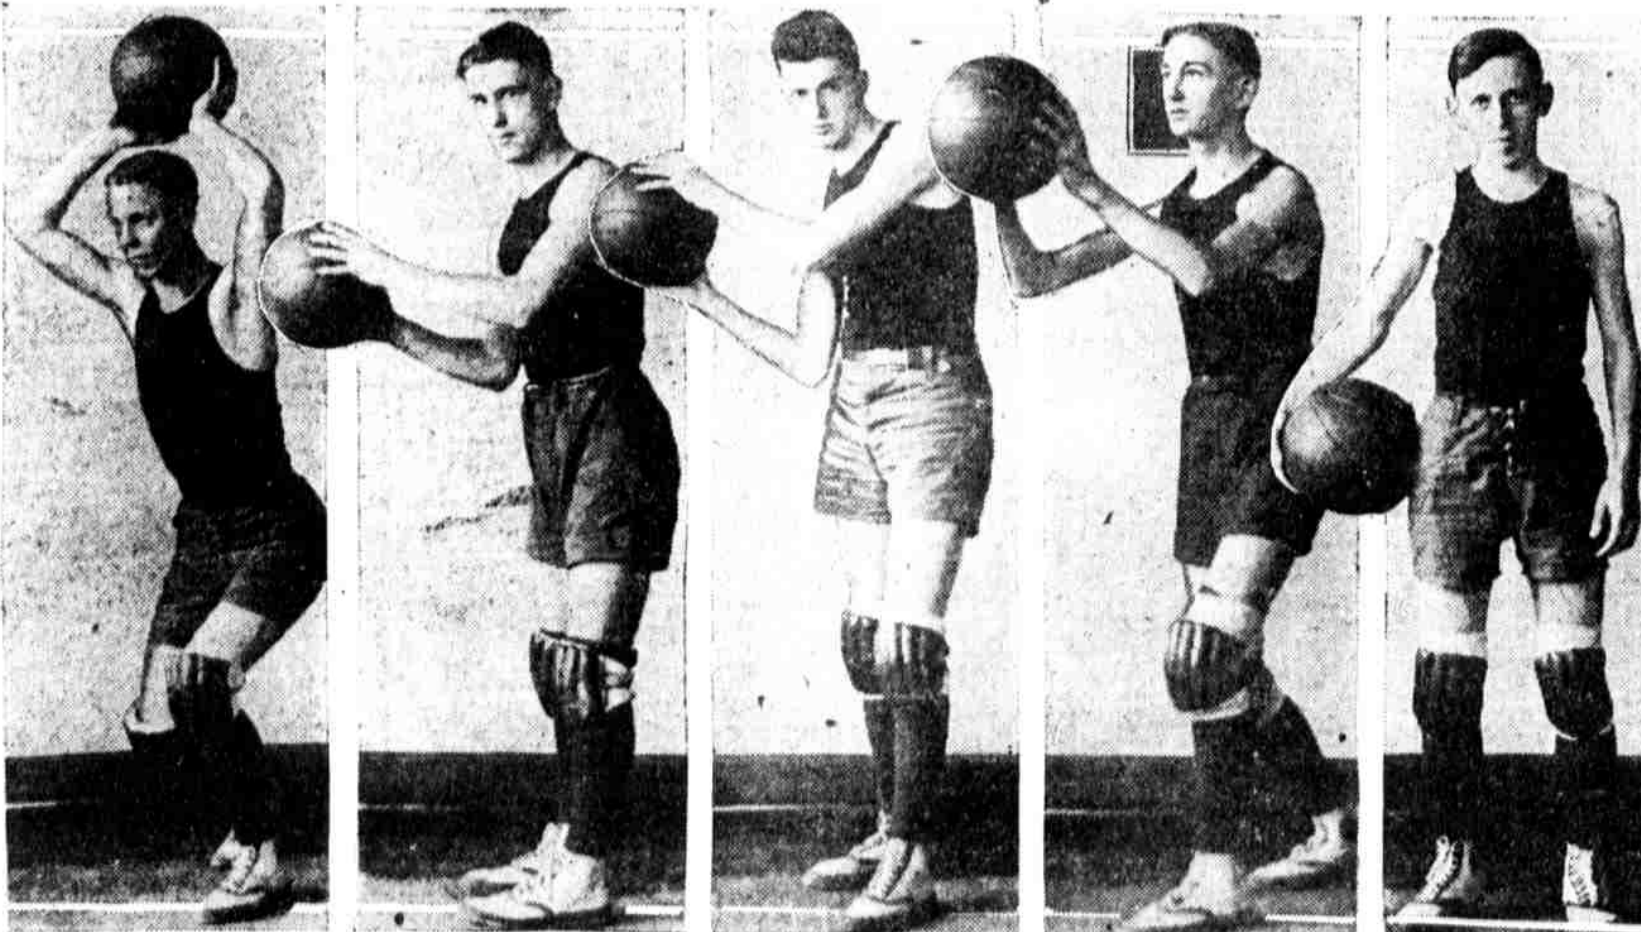

FRANKLIN E. MORALES, of Atlantic City, new American Minister to the Republic of Honduras A. P. S.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

STEVE TURNISKI, 1903 Dalketh street, operating a machine that pierces flanges of steel pulling rims, in the mill of the American Pulley Company, 4200 Wissahickon avenue

FOLEY GOLDBLATT (Captain) SHERR KOCH ABRAMS FIVE SPEEDY SCHOOL BOYS. They are members of the South Philadelphia High School basketball team. At the opening of the High School league season, a few days ago, they defeated West Philadelphia. They play Germantown today

BUSY PHILADELPHIANS

ASSISTANT CASHIER. J. Wilson Steinmetz, 5427 North Front street, with the Ninth National Bank, Front and Norris streets. He is married. Tennis and fishing are his hobbies.