Marshal of France Leaves America Laden With Nation's Gifts and Tributes

RECALLS TOUCHING SCENES

By the Associated Press

New York, Dec. 14.—Ferdinand Foch, gray and slight, but bearing with him every honor that America could bestow upon one of alien citizenship, bade farewell to cheering throngs here today and sailed away to his beloved France.

In his voluminous baggage were six great cases filled with gifts from the people of this continent, who thronged to see him during the course of his visit to the States and Canada and lead their voices in acclaim of the man who hurled Germany's legions back from the soil of France and won victory in history's greatest conflict.

Since coming to America late in October, Marshal Foch had traveled nearly 15,000 miles, made more than 200 speeches, attended luncheons and dinners, beyond computation and had heard the voice of America from upward of 17,000,000 men, women and children.

Thousands of Gifts

He had traveled over the wide expanse of the American continent, from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the inland seas to the Gulf. He had also trod the streets of the principal cities of Eastern Canada.

Everywhere he had received gifts. Here it was an honorary college degree, there a medal of gold or a triker or two, and yonder a pet, or a flower, or maybe just a wee token of esteem, admiration and love. He betrayed the fact, with the receiving of each of the gifts, that his heart was touched, and each one went with him today when he boarded the liner Paris for home.

His baggage included a score and a half of parchments, attesting he had been awarded honorary degrees by America's leading universities and col-loges. There was one crate full of Montana wildcat of the bottled, spitting, but not very dangerous type, presented by American Legionaries. Another crate contained a Willie Chester pig, from Iowa—also a Legion gift. There was a whole box of medals and medallions, a golden and jeweled sword in a golden scabbard, a gold-headed cane and a half dozen orso of loving cups. A union bricklayer's card was to be found also in the Marshal's possession.

Keeps War Mother's Flower

Out in a little town of Indiana—where the marshal's special train stopped for a few moments—he received from a war-faded little woman a portrait geranium.

"Take it," she implored, "and plant it on the grave of my son. He fell near Soissons."

The geranium has been carefully preserved and will be planted by Marshal Foch in his own garden "in honor of the son of the little woman of Indiana."

INGROWN TOE NAIL

Turns Out Itself

A noted authority says that a few drops of "Outgro" upon the skin surrounding the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and softens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it cannot penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost over night.

"Outgro" is a harmless antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, any one can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.—Adv.

Gifts of Utility

People who feel the need of economy will appreciate gifts of utility this Christmas. We submit that no gift has greater utility than a pair of shoes, especially if they are Dr. Reed Cushion Shoes. Their utility is summed up in that unusual combination of shoe virtues—comfort, serviceability and reasonableness of price.
