

NINETY PASSENGERS—NONE INJURED. A trolley car, filled with folks going to work in Chicago, was derailed on a bridge. A panic was averted, the passengers walking to safety.

THE WEATHERMAN TRYS POGOING. George S. Bliss, forecaster for Eastern Pennsylvania, battling with a pogo stick.

MISS SARAH C. MAHON, selling Christmas seals at Broad Street Station. She had a busy time yesterday.

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

LOOKING TOWARD NEW JERSEY FROM FOOT OF MARKET STREET. Thousands who travel on the Pennsylvania ferries to and from Camden little realize that an island was removed so that quick trips could be made across the Delaware. It was known as Windmill Island and was used as a picnic ground. Sheds in the foreground are on the site now used by the Market street ferry house. Have you a photograph of old Philadelphia? Send it to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.

"LISTENING" TO VIOLIN. Helen Keller, the deaf and blind wonder girl, in Denver, places her hand on the violin and "hears" the music played by Jascha Heifetz through her finger tips.

DR. A. O. THOMAS, of Maine, represents National Educational Association at Arms Conference.

HER HONOR THE MAYOR. Dr. Amy Kankonen, recently elected at Fairport, Ohio, on a "dry ticket."

MISS ROSE E. CORTELYOU, had her Belgian police dog with her as she sold Christmas seals.

MARSHAL FOCH receiving sword from MacDougal Hawley, representing the French Society of America. The French warrior sailed for France yesterday.

MRS. PHILIP K. C. TYAU, wife of the Chinese Minister to Cuba, now in Washington.

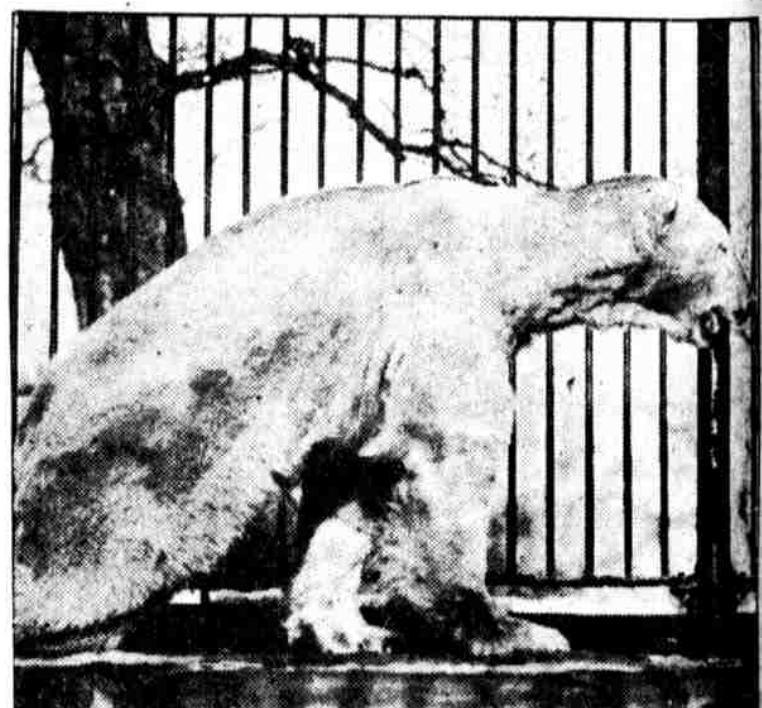

MRS. E. H. RIESSER, wife of Dr. Reisser, head of German Embassy, and her baby.

WOMEN AID IN WELCOME TO NEW AMERICAN LEGION HEAD. Commander Hanford MacNider was met by these ladies and many others as he arrived at Broad Street Station late yesterday afternoon. He was the chief speaker at a banquet last night.

MAURICE D. PETERSON, secretary to Arthur Balfour, British delegate at Arms Conference.

AT THE PHILADELPHIA ZOO. One of the numerous polar bears now under the care of C. Emerson Brown, superintendent. Cold weather suits this bear.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

RICHARD DUFFY, of 102 South Thirty-third street, operating an emery stone machine to polish auger bits, in the factory of Job T. Pugh, Thirty-first and Ludlow streets.

RECEIVED 1700 MARRIAGE PROPOSALS. She is Mlle. Hebe, considered one of the most beautiful women in France. These offers all came since January 1st.

OLD AND NEW. At the left is Rex Wray, the 1921 captain of Penn's football team. Smiling "Pos" Miller (right) was yesterday selected as the 1922 pilot of the varsity squad.

VICE PRESIDENT AND CASHIER. John G. Sonneborn, of the Ninth National Bank, Front and Norris streets, has been there twenty-five years. Hobbies, golf and fishing. He is a member of the Union League.