Nancy Wynne Talks of Various Doings-She Speaks of the Opera Yesterday Afternoon-Junior Dinner-Dance a Success

WHEN I heard yesterday that Betty Williams and Johnna Biddle were to be the flower girls at Eisle Hirst's wedding I smiled to myself with pleasure, for if both those small four-year-olds are not the cutest little somebodys. I have seen for a long time I am greatly mistaken.

Betty Clark is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walton Clark. Her mother was Betty Scott, who is a first cousin of Elsie Hirst. And little Joanna Biddle is Bertram Lippincott's niece. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Biddle, the latter having been Miss Sarah Lippincott. Won't they be too sweet walking up the aisle in front of the bride? Katherine Wharton, a first cousin of Bert Lippincott's, is to be one of the bridesmaids. Hearietta Wilson and Anna Zimmerman, of this city: Elizabeth Benoist, of St. Louis, and Anna Craven, of Charleston, also will strend.

It will be a very pretty welding, I am sure, and Elsie will make a beautiful bride.

Loccust street, has issued invitations for a series of theatre parties in honor of her debutante daughter, Miss Gertrude D. P. Dougherty. The first will be given on Thursday evening, Decembser 29, and the second on Friday evening, January 20. Tho latter will be given before the ball Mr. and Mrs.
Graham Dougherty, of Crossroads, Wyncote, will give at the BellevucStratford for Mrs. Dougherty's debutante sister, Miss lessel Frazer.

THE opera was delightful yesterday afternoon. A number of people entertained in the boxes, and the Seamen's Church Institute must have reaped quite a nice little return from the sweets sold during the intermissions. They are hard at it every day and night up there, these good and devoted auxiliary members, who have been running a cafe and refreshment place during the San Carlo engagement for the benefit of the Seamen's Institute. Some of the women interested are Mrs. Stanley Flags. Jr., Mrs. Ernest Law, Mrs. Charles Henry Scott, Mrs. Howard Seaver and a great many others.

Mrs. William Baird and her daughter, Mrs. Harrison Caner, Jr., entertained in a box yesterday, and so did Mrs. John B. Thayer and Mrs. Joseph Leidy.
