

Evening Public Ledger PUBLIC LEDGER COMPANY... JOHN C. MARTIN, General Business Manager... Published daily at Public Ledger Building...

Public Has Rights When Omelets are Unscrambled But the Men Who Put in the Most Eggs in the First Place Seem to Think Those Rights Can Be Ignored

Whether the men who have put a few eggs in an omelet have any rights which those who have put in a great many are bound to respect will be known when the federal court decides the suit which the minority stockholders of the Jersey Central Railroad have brought to stop the sale of the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Coal Company to the Reynolds syndicate.

The Governor's Opportunity There can be no two opinions about the duty of Governor Sproul when he comes to the appointment of two magistrates to fill an existing and an approaching vacancy.

Word-Mangling Again IS JAPAN an insular possession of herself? Is the United States actually the United States, or does the United States possess the United States?

AS ONE WOMAN SEES IT Green-ups May Profit by Attendance at Some of the Entertainments Planned for Children by Mr. Little Theatre

By SARAH D. LOWRIE THE other night I sat next to Edward Bok at a public dinner and he talked of little else than how he hoped the children of the town were going to enjoy Chaplin and the children's concert, both of which joy-giving events are to be at the Academy for them in the coming holidays.

Now My Idea is This! Daily Talks With Thinking Philadelphians on Subjects They Know Best

JOHN THURLOW KOMMER On Something Else in Business CAN a man of trade be a man of manners? Nowadays hardly anybody would admit a question, yet at one time gentility was defined as restricted to robbers and burglars.

THE children of the more well-to-do homes, who have mothers to read aloud to them, and nurseries to play in, and summer woods and fields to romp in, and play-rooms to learn their little bits of first lessons in, do not especially need any more color or laughter or even music in their lives.

What Do You Know? QUIZ 1. What is a barometer? 2. What kind of animal is a lion? 3. What was the Boston Tea Party?

High-Pressure "Religion" THE discussion by the Baptist clergyman of Philadelphia as to the general work of evangelists, brought about by the action of the Philadelphia Council of Churches of Pittsburgh, which has been in the religious meetings of the "Bible Study" order are "dehumanized, obsolete and ineffective" reveals interesting sidelights on the subject.

Traffic Code Needed COULD it be done what, if the purpose of the new traffic code is to regulate traffic, will it prove a wise move in attempting to draw up new traffic regulations?

The "Crime Wave" ONE hundred and ninety kidnappings in thirty-nine days within the city limits of Philadelphia are enough to cause anxiety among the officials of the police department.

Mr. Bok's plan to fill the Academy with the Orchestra and then later with Charlie Chaplin as star performers, seemed most likely to succeed.

Answers to Yesterday's Quiz 1. Later listed in the Pacific Ocean, is the possession of the United States being nearest to the equator. It is slightly 175 West.

Today's Anniversaries 1780—Massachusetts yielded the jurisdiction over her land in New York to that State.

THE "COST" PLAN THE city should most carefully consider the "service-cost" plan which Mr. Mitten has proposed for the operation of the Franklin Field.

THE NEW FRANKLIN FIELD THE possibility of the return of the unique football classic, the Army and Navy game, to Philadelphia is pertinently suggested by Sidney E. Hutchinson, chairman of the Athletic Council of the University of Pennsylvania.

SAINT JOHNS ON THE CLASP Santa Claus on his Christmas shopping trip to the city has been now heard of in the vicinity of the city.

MR. CARPENTER has spent so busy a life in the past few days that he has had no time to do anything but to get ready for the sort of business organization that will be needed for such a venture.

More Politeness Is General "We are thinking, too, of the frequent exchange of courtesies which take place day after day in the office, in the store and in correspondence; courtesies which mark the man as a gentleman."

Today's Birthdays Oscar B. Calkins, former Governor of Texas, born at Camilla, Ga., sixty years ago.

THE "CRIME WAVE" Crime which is sensational as most crimes of violence are, has a greater effect upon public sentiment than any other, in that it makes a deeper impression.

THE "COST" PLAN THE city should most carefully consider the "service-cost" plan which Mr. Mitten has proposed for the operation of the Franklin Field.

THE "CRIME WAVE" Crime which is sensational as most crimes of violence are, has a greater effect upon public sentiment than any other, in that it makes a deeper impression.

THE "CRIME WAVE" Crime which is sensational as most crimes of violence are, has a greater effect upon public sentiment than any other, in that it makes a deeper impression.

THE "CRIME WAVE" Crime which is sensational as most crimes of violence are, has a greater effect upon public sentiment than any other, in that it makes a deeper impression.

THE "CRIME WAVE" Crime which is sensational as most crimes of violence are, has a greater effect upon public sentiment than any other, in that it makes a deeper impression.

THE "CRIME WAVE" Crime which is sensational as most crimes of violence are, has a greater effect upon public sentiment than any other, in that it makes a deeper impression.

THE "CRIME WAVE" Crime which is sensational as most crimes of violence are, has a greater effect upon public sentiment than any other, in that it makes a deeper impression.

THE "CRIME WAVE" Crime which is sensational as most crimes of violence are, has a greater effect upon public sentiment than any other, in that it makes a deeper impression.

THE "CRIME WAVE" Crime which is sensational as most crimes of violence are, has a greater effect upon public sentiment than any other, in that it makes a deeper impression.

THE "CRIME WAVE" Crime which is sensational as most crimes of violence are, has a greater effect upon public sentiment than any other, in that it makes a deeper impression.

THE "CRIME WAVE" Crime which is sensational as most crimes of violence are, has a greater effect upon public sentiment than any other, in that it makes a deeper impression.

THE "CRIME WAVE" Crime which is sensational as most crimes of violence are, has a greater effect upon public sentiment than any other, in that it makes a deeper impression.

THE "CRIME WAVE" Crime which is sensational as most crimes of violence are, has a greater effect upon public sentiment than any other, in that it makes a deeper impression.

THE "CRIME WAVE" Crime which is sensational as most crimes of violence are, has a greater effect upon public sentiment than any other, in that it makes a deeper impression.

THE "CRIME WAVE" Crime which is sensational as most crimes of violence are, has a greater effect upon public sentiment than any other, in that it makes a deeper impression.

THE "CRIME WAVE" Crime which is sensational as most crimes of violence are, has a greater effect upon public sentiment than any other, in that it makes a deeper impression.

THE "CRIME WAVE" Crime which is sensational as most crimes of violence are, has a greater effect upon public sentiment than any other, in that it makes a deeper impression.

Now My Idea is This! Daily Talks With Thinking Philadelphians on Subjects They Know Best

Advertisement for 'Now My Idea is This!' featuring John Thurlow Kommer. Includes a list of subjects and a quiz section.

SHORT CUTS

Short cuts... Boston, perhaps, is the home of political bacilli culture. Incidents of Frankford are not wholly in favor of complete disarmament.