Nancy Wynne Tells of European Trips-Seixas' Dance Held Last Night at Manheim-Ball Given at Ritz-Carlton by Committee of Men

DID you know that the Wharton Sinklers have gone to Europe for several months? They have closed their house on Washington lane near Elkins Park and will not be back till late spring. Speaking of the Sinklers reminds me of the Elkins, Mrs. Sinkler having been Louise Elkins, wou know, and her sister, Mrs. Tyler, was Stella Elkins.

Young Sidney Tyler, Stella Elkins Tyler's son, is a student at St. Mark's School near Boston. Mr. and Mrs. School near Boston. Mr. and Mrs. School near Boston. Mr. and Mrs. Tyler spent a week up there recently visiting him. Mrs. Tyler was named for her mother, Stella Elkins, the late Mrs. George W. Elkins, and Mrs. Sinkler, who is the younger sister, was called Louise after her grandmorner thise. Young Shlaper Tyles is Yang Shlaper Ty Sinkler, who is the younger sister, was called Louise after her grandmoruce Elkins. Young Sidney Tyler is a grandson of Mr. Sidney F. Tyler, whose first wife was a Binney and the mother of George and Hope Binney Tyler, who is now Mrs. Robert Leaning Montgonery. The Montgomerys are abrond, too, you remember. The second Mrs. Tyler was Miss Ida Elkins, a sister of the late George W. Elkins and an aunt of Mrs. Tyler and Mrs. T Elkins, a sister of the late George W.

Elkins and an aunt of Mrs. Tyler and Mrs. Sinkler. Quite a lot of intermarrying of families, is it not?
Mr. Tyler. Sr., has been a widower for the second time a number of years.
I saw him strolling down Walnut street recently looking extremely well.
Unfortunately there are not many men
of his type nowadays, and the pity of it is very apparent. I HAVE missed Dorothy Rodgers at the parties lately and find she is not going to any of them and will not start going out again until after the first of the year. Her grandmother. Mrs. George Browning, died in Atlantic City recently, and so Dorothy does not care to go about for a while at least. Mrs. Browning was Mrs. Donner's mother and her grandchildren were devoted to her.

of his type nowadays, and the pity of it

THE Seixas party at Manheim last I night for Amelie was a beautiful affair. I have seldom if ever seen the ballroom so beautifully decorated, and Amelic looked stunning in the loveliest of frocks made of white sequins over a of frocks made of white sequins over a silken drop skirt and girdled with a hand of tiny roses in various pastel shades. She held an old-fashioned bouquet of rosebuds and certainly did have a gloriously good time. Mrs. Seixas were a very handsome gown of black velvet cut with a square neck, trimmed with jet and finished with a short train. The guests were mostly of the debutante set and supper was served about midnight.

Did I tell you they have decided to have bridge tables at the Innier.

Dip I tell you they have decided to have bridge tables at the Junior Cotilions for those who do not want to dance after dinner?
