

Pennsylvania May Meet Three Southern Football Teams on Franklin Field During 1922

PENN MAKES RADICAL CHANGES IN SCHEDULE

Alabama, Maryland and U. of South Likely to Appear Here—Navy and State Replaced

MAY DROP LAFAYETTE

Three football elevens from below the Mason-Dixon line may appear on the University of Pennsylvania football schedule for 1922, according to acting graduate Manager Bushnell in a statement issued last night after the monthly meeting of the athletic council.

The University of Maryland, University of the South and the University of Alabama are the three Southern institutions likely to show their wares on Franklin Field next fall for the first time.

The complete schedule was expected to be released last night, but Mr. Bushnell stated that negotiations were still pending with Dartmouth, Lafayette and one or two other colleges and that the list in its final form would not be ready for publication until some time later.

"We have not as yet completely concluded negotiations with all the schools and until this time cannot officially announce the complete list. We had hoped to give it out tonight, but the council decided to wait until we had completely settled the problem with several colleges," said Mr. Bushnell.

Swarthmore Not Settled

According to the acting graduate manager the Swarthmore game will be held on either October 14 or 21. The University of Maryland may get one or the other date. The November 4 date is still pending and Dartmouth, Lafayette and the University of Alabama are the others being considered.

However, it can be stated with a degree of certainty that Dartmouth will not appear on the schedule next year, and that there is a strong possibility that Lafayette also may not appear there. It is known that those high official members of the State streets for the scheduling of a game between Pennsylvania and the Eastonians, and it is thought that this has been made known to the council and for that reason the schedule was not announced complete last night.

If Penn finally schedules Lafayette they will play on November 4, but it is said that the University of Alabama has definitely selected for that date.

The fact that both the Navy and Penn State are on the schedule, according to several graduates prominent in athletic life at the University, makes it a better bet that even if the last thought would be realized, State last appeared in 1920 and the Navy in 1915, when Howard Berry and his pupils went down to Annapolis.

DARCY HERE FOR BOUT WITH BARRETT TONIGHT

Hard Hitters Clash in Eight-Rounder at the National

Johnny Darcy, who used to knock them silly in the navy, arrived in town last night from New York, and he informed Jack Hanlon that he was in first-class condition for his encounter this evening in the National A. A. Eleventh Annual Boxing Tournament. Darcy has no easy assignment by any means, for in meeting Robbie Barrett, the knockout from Clifton Heights, Darcy will encounter the hardest-hitting fighter recently uncovered.

Barrett had night announced himself in splendid shape. He is down to his best boxing weight, and entirely recovered from the bout which ended his match with Sailor Joe Kelly, and is confident that Darcy will be able to knock his boxer out.

Two of Johnny Kilbane's pupils will appear in different bouts on tonight's card. Alex Hart will be pitted against Kid Wagner, Tommy McLoughlin is the other Kilbane man, and his opponent will be Willie Moore.

Hart's bout will show in the second round against Young Sam Rohrman, while the opener will bring together Young Joe Tuher and Mickey Morris.

BRYN MAWR LOSES

All-Philadelphia Girls Win Hockey Match. 11-4

All-Philadelphia girls' field hockey team defeated Bryn Mawr College's eleven this morning, 11-4.

Miss Goodman, right wing, captain, and Alex Hart will be pitted against Kid Wagner, Tommy McLoughlin is the other Kilbane man, and his opponent will be Willie Moore.

Hart's bout will show in the second round against Young Sam Rohrman, while the opener will bring together Young Joe Tuher and Mickey Morris.

The field goals were: Quaker City-Tunxis, 2; O'Neill, 2; Mooney, 1; Smith, 2; P. R. Y. M. C. A., 1—Rawlings, 2; Grant, 1; Armstrong, 1; Phaff, 1.

Scrap About Scrappers

Charles Jones, writer man about Philadelphia, says: "Tommy Ryan, Tommy is a tough batter states Ryan, and he had most trouble with the center, the center wants to match Ryan with Jimmy Kramer here, and will not let him be beaten."

McKeeless had to be matched with Bertie Moore, and the center, Bertie Moore, was in four pounds. The college band that plays at big games played the "Crimson Twelve times."

It was of faded like "scraps" that was most interesting and stopped the scrap. I wanted to keep on saying that I wasn't bad, but I am now good.

Mr. Heisman arrived in this city last night from Pittsburgh and stated that he had nothing of the rumors that he was to be here, and that Glenn Warner would replace him. Concerning the schedule the coach said that he had nothing to say until he had received an official copy.

What Heisman Says

"I have been out of touch with football affairs at the University since last Saturday," said Heisman last night, "and all that I know has come from the press. Until I get an official concerning possible changes in the coaching staff will be known."

Heisman announced yesterday that Dr. Walter Harris would again act as coach of the football team for the third year and that a freshman coach had not been decided upon.

The next meeting of the athletic council does not occur until January, when the committees for next year are elected. Until that time nothing official concerning possible changes in the coaching staff will be known.

Heisman arrived in this city last night from Pittsburgh and stated that he had nothing of the rumors that he was to be here, and that Glenn Warner would replace him. Concerning the schedule the coach said that he had nothing to say until he had received an official copy.

SCHAEFER TO PLAY HERE

Champion Takes On Conti, French Cuest. Monday

Young Jake Schaefer, world's billiard champion, and Roger Conti, the twenty-year-old cue titleholder of France, will meet in a 3200-point match at Allentown's Academy, beginning Monday afternoon. The bout will play 400 points each block and followers of the game are all set to see some new billiard records being up.

Conti has made a host of friends in this country by his display of gameness and ability to play the game and is looked upon as a dangerous contender for the crown now worn by young Jake. He has won 2200, 430, 478 and 530 to his credit in recent contests and will make the new billiard king play his best to register a victory.

This exhibition promises to be the best of its kind ever held in this city and followers of the sport can now get a line on the youngster against such a great player as the son of the wizard.

PENN BEATS SYRACUSE

Defeats Camden Catholic High by Score of 37-19

The Moorestown High School basketball team entertained Camden Catholic High School last night and sent "Samp" Campbell's team away with the sting of a 37-19 defeat.

Captain Brodie, right guard for Moorestown, was the individual star of the game. He scored ten of his team's field goals and netted eighteen out of twenty foul tries. Rexon, center, also played a crack-jack game. He scored three field goals during the fives.

The Moorestown team will come to Philadelphia Wednesday and play Friends' Central at Fifteenth and Race streets.

Cornell After F. and M. Game

Penn State, 17; Cornell, 17—Invitations for football games were received by wire at Franklin Field yesterday. Captain Fred Fazetti has arranged other bouts, as follows: Duke vs. Jimmy Duffy, Willie Doyle vs. Billy Williams and James Tracy vs. Eddie King.

Johnny Roche, Kingston, the management, in compliance with the twenty-four-hour rule of the local boxing rules, for his match with Tony Jeff, of the Palms, will be held Saturday evening at the Lancaster, an eight-round, and the Lancaster probably will be a rugged bather aggressively and he punches hard, too. Tony Capone vs. Gus Loughran and Jack Cleary vs. Joe Allison are to be other eight-rounders.

Young Jack Dempsey will break into the major wind-up class next Wednesday night when he takes on Johnny Krause at the New York Coliseum. The New York promoter Fred Fazetti has arranged other bouts, as follows: Duke vs. Jimmy Duffy, Willie Doyle vs. Billy Williams and James Tracy vs. Eddie King.

Johnny Roche, Kingston, the management, in compliance with the twenty-four-hour rule of the local boxing rules, for his match with Tony Jeff, of the Palms, will be held Saturday evening at the Lancaster, an eight-round, and the Lancaster probably will be a rugged bather aggressively and he punches hard, too. Tony Capone vs. Gus Loughran and Jack Cleary vs. Joe Allison are to be other eight-rounders.

Philadelphia Wednesdays and Friends' Central at Fifteenth and Race Streets.

QUAKERS-CANTON IN FINAL GRID GAME

Rival Pro Football Elevens Meet Again at Phillies' Ball Park

KILLINGER TO MAKE DEBUT

The final professional football game of the season in this city will be played this afternoon at the Phillies' Ball Park, Broad and Huntingdon streets, when the Union Quakers oppose the Canton Bulldogs. The game will start at 2:15 P. M.

The same teams met here several weeks ago and the Westerners won out in the final quarter on great air attack in the closing minutes. The score was 14 to 9 and the Quakers are confident of reversing the decision today and Manager Lee Conway predicts a win for his team.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of the State eleven, will be on hand, and Hugo Bezzel, coach, and Neil Fleming, graduate manager of athletics at State, will be spectators to see Killinger in his professional debut.

The line-ups of the opposing clubs will be much the same as in their previous test, with the Quakers' Gil Killinger, the All-American choice for quarterback this year and a member of