WEATHER Fair

Granite Walls and Wide Aisles Mean Safety and Comfort

They Say That the Hours of Christmas Week

fly faster than at any other time of the year, but it is really a fact that our most pleasant hours always fly the fastest.

"I will go myself and attend to it" and "I will see to it at once" always succeed in getting things done.

To believe you cannot do a thing is the way to make it impossible. Whoever does not improve today will grow worse tomorrow.

There is such a thing as avoiding the rain and getting into the hurricane.

Plenty of Presents in the Young Women's Store

What young woman would not love to receive one of the pretty new taffeta dresses, as fresh and dainty as Springtime? They are coming in every day now. Even at $22.50 they are charming, and the charm increases up to $95.

Or a delightful party dress of white or orchid Georgette crepe threaded with silver, for $28.50—or as high as $150.

Or one of the new silky crepe sports frocks with long scarf attached at $35.

Or a fine new coat, at $20 to $195. Or a smart raincoat or wet-weather cape.

There really are lovely things here for gifts in 14 to 20 year sizes. (Second Floor)

A Very Fine Collection of FUR NECKPIECES

remains yet to be chosen for holiday gifts, despite the pleasant fact that we have already sold more furs this season than last.

There are fine scarfs, stoles and collars in one or another of the following furs, each of the most carefully selected skins, beautifully and effectively made up:

Silver fox, Russian sable, ermine, natural blue fox, Hudson Bay sable, cross fox, white fox, platinum fox, dyed blue fox and the dyed black, brown and taupe fox, mole skin, beaver, lynx, mink, stone marten, baum marten, pointed fox, Japanese marten, fisher, skunk, Hudson seal (dyed muskrat), Australian opossum, kolinsky, raccoon, wolf and gray squirrel.

There are so many variations between a little scarf of gray squirrel at $15 and a fine Russian sable or silver fox scarf at $750 that any price intention as well as any fur preference is sure to find satisfaction.

Please tell us about what you desire to pay, and we will help you choose to your very best advantage. (Second Floor)

From Santa Claus to Feminine Feet

We see Santa in various forms in the Women's Shoe Store, and these are the things he (or she) is choosing as gifts:

Comfortable felt bedroom slippers in pretty colors and styles at $2.25 to $3.25.

Dainty quilted satin slippers and julets, from $2.75 to $5.50.

Silk, satin and brocade mules, $4 to $17.

Evening slippers of satin, silver or gold brocade, $8 to $19.

Sensible arctics for Winter snows, at $4.75, and rubber boots for next Spring's fishing trips, $5.50.

Carriage boots of velvet and leather, satine lined and fur trimmed, $10 and $12.

Riding boots of tan or black calfskin at $30; and puttees at $9.50 and $12.

Slipper ornaments and buckles of rhinestones, cut steel, bronze or jet, $3 to $60 a pair. These are among the nicest and most favored remembrances. (First Floor)

200 of the Prettiest Skirts Ever Here for $8.75

At a matter of fact, exact duplicates of these skirts are now hanging in our cases marked at two and even three times these prices.

They are odds and ends of some beautiful striped prunella cloth skirts, pleated in a way to show the stripes and in the colors that most women want to wear with sports coats or sweaters. Black-and-white, blue-and-white and all the tan, brown and blue combinations. (First Floor)

French Spangled Trimmings Now About Half

These are some in a pretty moonlight blue color with glints of silver. They are very much used on evening gowns and they are very effective, indeed.

The widths run from two rows wide (about a quarter of an inch) at 15c a yard up to 85 rows wide (36 inches) at $6.80 a yard. (Main Floor)

BOOKS

First, Last and All the Time

If the person you are considering is old enough to read at all, the chances are that you can't do better than in giving him a book. All you need is to hit upon the kind of book he really likes, and that is where a big Book Store like Wanamaker's is such a help. For here you will find—

Books in rich and rare bindings.

Books for little and bigger children and young people.

Books of science and philosophy and art, of history and biography.

Books of poetry. The latest fiction.

Books, in short, adapted to every imaginable type of reader. (Main Floor)

Gloves Are a Gift Every Woman Appreciates

They are something she simply has to have. They are one of the few articles of which duplicates are heartily welcome. And when they arrive in a Wanamaker box they are doubly welcome, because she knows then that they are the very best gloves that can be bought.

This applies whether they are the long gloves of French kid at $5 to $9 a pair; or the short gloves of a kind at $3 to $4 a pair; or the luxurious lined gloves and gauntlets with cozy wool or fur inside, at $3 to $10 a pair; or the warm wool gloves at $1.15 up to $4.50. And there are some other kinds not mentioned here. (Main Floor)

Suppose You Give a Wool-Filled Quilt

We mean a good wool-filled quilt, one of these:

$25—In silk brocade, with satin border and habutai silk back.

$18—One kind with plain habutai silk on both sides and one with figured satin top and back of sateen.

$15—Figured silk top, plain border of habutai and Florentine silk back to match.

$10—Fine figured sateen top, with plain back and border.

$7.50—Figured cambric top, with back and border of plain sateen.

$5—Figured silkoline top and back and plain sateen border. (Sixth Floor)

Children's Givable Footwear

Bedroom slippers of felt and satin, $1.25 to $2.50.

Rubber boots for girls, $4.50; for boys in hip-high styles, $4.50.

Riding puttees of tan calfskin, $9.50.

Leggings or corduroy, chinchilla, velvet or leather, $3 to $10. (First Floor)

Diamond Jewelry

The certainty of the pleasure that it is sure to bring is the strongest inducement for giving such a gift.

With so much diamond jewelry being worn today, it seems every woman's prerogative to own at least one or two handsome pieces, it may be a bar pin, or a couple of rarely fine rings, a La Valliere to wear with her afternoon or evening gowns, or an Oriental pearl necklace which she will hardly ever be without, and which goes with any kind of a costume.

Diamond rings... $76 to $2600

Diamond la vallieres, $3000 to $6000 $125 to $955

Diamond bracelets, $425 to $3000

Diamond earrings, $200 to $1050

Diamond bar pins, $150 to $1100

Oriental pearl necklaces, $3000 to $6000

(Main Floor)

A Signed Mezzotint in a Fitting Frame is a really charming gift for any woman who has a home or even a single room or two to beautify. It may reproduce a lovely painting of Raeburn, Pennycuik, Sir Joshua Reynolds, Nattier, Fragonard or some other French or English artist.

Its gray and delicate colorings are further enhanced by its well-chosen frame. Each is signed by a well-known modern mezzotint engraver.

Priced from $18 to $85. (Fifth Floor)

Savalan and Muskabad Rugs

—Note the Sizes and Prices

Those who are good judges of Oriental rug values will want these pieces for themselves, the prices are so low for rugs of such sound and desirable character and excellent furnishing quality.

But any one thinking of giving an Oriental rug as a gift, and who chooses one of these, will have the two-fold satisfaction of giving something of a splendid and enduring kind and of securing it at an advantage in price.

Savalan and Muskabad Rugs:

11x6.11 ft. $185

10.10x7 ft. $187

10.10x7.3 ft. $157

10.7x7 ft. $157

10.2x7.4 ft. $165

10.3x7.2 ft. $167

11.1x7.5 ft. $175

12.3x9.5 ft. $245

Among other lots in which gift seekers are finding just what they want are Mossals, size, 4x6 ft., approximately, at $45 to $65.

And Anatolian mats, about 2.8x1.8 ft., at $6.75 to $10.50. (Seventh Floor)

Lamps—Good Christmas Gifts

Fine one-light iron console lamps with rusty iron finish and candle tops, used with shields and shades, $10 each; shields, $3.50; shades, $8.50.

We have more of those little English "kandlets," or oil lamps, which created so much talk when they arrived. In a variety of finishes, $1 each.

Davenport and bridge lamps made of metal in a variety of finishes, prices $15 to $32.50. Shades, $3 to $18.50.

Mahogany-finished wood candlesticks, 25c, 50c, 70c each.

Fine Envelope Handbags at a Special Price

We have a limited lot of some wonderfully fine envelope handbags that we can sell at the special price of $16.75 each.

They are from one of the leading makers of such goods and are beautifully finished and in the newest styles, most of them great, roomy affairs with inner compartments.

Made of selected leathers, including bright and dull pin seal, polished morocco, cobra-grain seal, and khaki, alligator and spider calfskin. In black, brown, blue, gray and tan, and some with gun-metal trimmings for mourning wear. (Main Floor)

A Strip of Lovely Color

in the shape of Chinese embroidery, a little lacquered box, a carved ivory bead or a tiny elephant charm, are among the inexpensive trifles to be found in the Oriental Store. Between such things and the precious vase of mutton-fat jade at $5500 there are thousands of answers to Christmas problems. (Main Floor)

The Gay and Merry Christmas Card

is here in its thousands, ready to do yeoman's duty as a holiday messenger. It may be had for 5c to $1.25. Calendars are 15c to $6.50. (Main Floor)

A String of Pearl Beads

—imitation pearls—which it seems is such an indispensable article of feminine adornment, is here in many forms. Strings are from 16 to 30 inches long, the beads are all graduated and the prices $2.75 to $35. (Main Floor)

Joyful Singing Canaries

Hartz Mountain canaries may be had for only $6; St. Andrewsburg rollers for $8. Gilt cages are $3.50 to $25. Cage stands of white enamel are $8.25; of brass, $16.50 and $18.50. (Fourth Floor)

Music of the Old Masters

Music-loving households will get much pleasure from these bound volumes of Chopin, Grieg, Schubert, Brahms, Schumann and others of the old masters. Some of them contain vocal and some instrumental music.

Two favorite books of modern music are MacDowell's "Woodland Sketches," price $1.15; and Nevin's "Venezia," price $1.35. (Second Floor)

Baskets, Baskets, Who'll Buy?

Baskets of every conceivable kind and from all parts of the world, from the weest thimble cases of sweet grass costing 15c to the big willow hampers at $25. There are baskets for fruits, candies, sewing, wastepaper and all other basket purposes. Also, if asked, we will trim baskets for the cost of the materials. (Fourth Floor)

Nickel-Plated Trivets

are handy things for hot plates and very acceptable presents. Prices $2.75 to $6. (Fourth Floor)

Red Wreaths for Decoration

For Women—Silk hose for sport and evening wear in all the shades and weights. Silk-and-wool hose in fancy or plain designs and a variety of colors.

Give Her Handkerchiefs That Is the Answer

And should you be puzzled seeing such an almost endless variety in the Handkerchief Shop, these would prove a safe choice: French hand-embroidered initial handkerchiefs with rolled hem and colored border, $1 each, or $5.50 for a box of six.

Dainty white hand-embroidered initial handkerchiefs, very fine quality, 50c each, or $5.50 a dozen.

French colored handkerchiefs, many colors and styles, $1 each. (Main Floor)

Nine Tables of Gifts in China and Glassware $1.50 to $20

An arrangement that makes selection as easy as can be. Each table is given over to a number of different things from the various divisions of the stock all of which are at one price—anywhere from $1.50 to $20.

There is a $2.50 table, a $3.50 table, a $5 table and so on. The variety of things to be chosen from is remarkable.

There is pottery of many kinds; there is quite a collection of fancy china, including chocolate, berry, cake and sugar-and-cream sets.

There is cut glass, etched glass and glass in various decorations, and statuary in marble and bronze and useful novelties of just the kind that appeal peculiarly to gift-seekers. (Fourth Floor)

There Are Two Reasons Why So Many People Are Giving Furniture

One is the tendency to give things of a permanently valuable kind.

The other is the assortment of furniture that we are showing.

This is the kind of furniture one likes to give. And this is a collection in which it is easy to find the very thing that is best fitted to be the vehicle of one's good wishes and best suited to one's pocketbook.

Here are thousands of valuable and appropriate things and scarcely less than twenty different styles of any one item. (Fifth Floor)

There are women's writing desks all the way from $14 to $205.

These are being very much given. So, too, are tea wagons at $20 to $65, the one at $20 being very exceptional.

Great upholstered easy chairs and rockers are going out to take ease and comfort into many a home, and these are priced at $37.50 to $200.

And the number of people who are choosing hanging mirrors is the surest indication that we have here a very remarkable showing of these pieces—$19 to $260.
