

BEAUTY AND FASHION IN SWITZERLAND. Wouldn't you like to be enjoying the snow sport? Note the cozier is wearing an aviator's helmet. She's a Londoner.

RELEASE OF IRISH POLITICAL PRISONERS. Some of the men as they left the barbed wire inclosure at Rath Camp, in Curragh, Ireland, under provisions of treaty Underwood & Underwood.

BETTY CADBURY scored only goal for All-Scholastics against All-Philadelphia girls at hockey.

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA? THIS BUILDING IN USE NEARLY 200 YEARS. It stood at Delaware avenue and Race street, where the Philadelphia Fire Department's high-power station is now located, and was built in 1705. Not until 1901 was the structure torn down. This picture was sent in by Charles F. Grace, 1201 Lindley avenue. Have you an old Philadelphia photograph? Send it to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.

CHRISTMAS DINNER FOR CADDIES. Boys and girls of the Huntingdon Valley Country Club ate much turkey. At the left are Carrie Liberty and Edna Fenstermacher. Edith Neils is busy on a turkey leg.

OLDEST AND YOUNGEST CADDY. John Warden, sixty years, and George Fletcher, nine, guests at Philmont Club's Christmas meal.

BARONESS MASAKO SHIDEHARA, Japanese Ambassador's wife International.

CITY NURSES TREAT DOWNTOWN CHILDREN. Their Santa Claus was very busy, as toys, food and things to wear were handed to children and mothers.

MISS BEATRICE ALEXANDER, daughter of William C. Alexander, Media, makes opera debut.

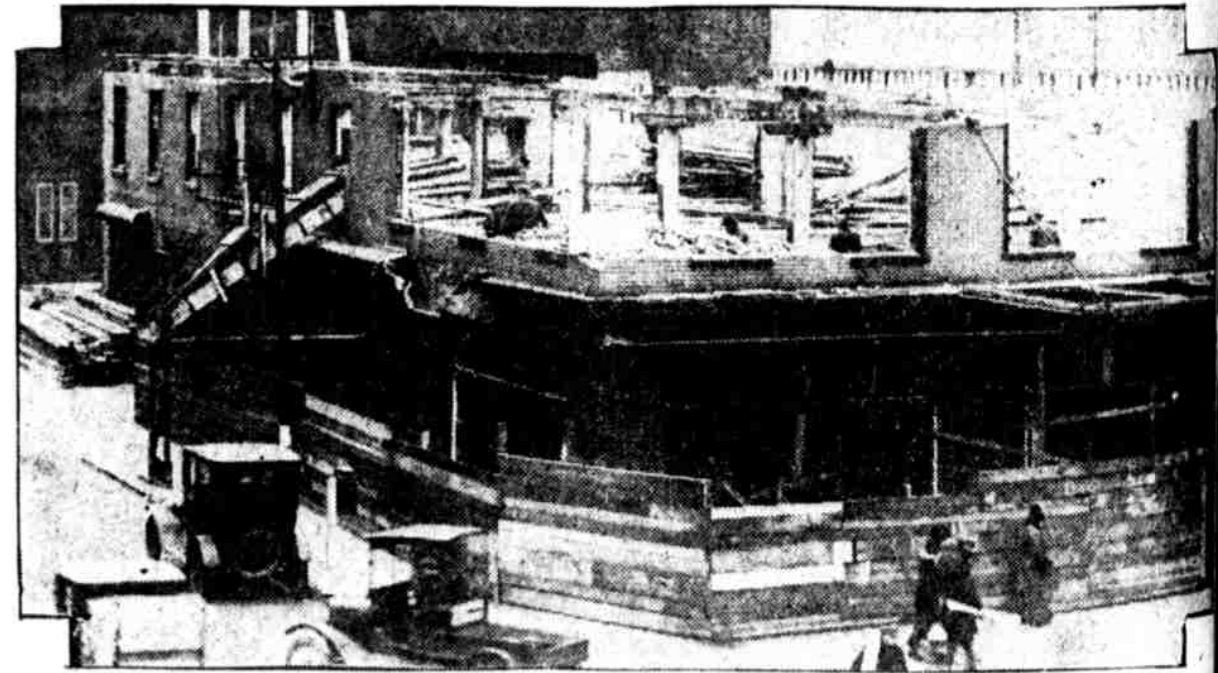

TREES CHECK FLIGHT OF BUFFALO DWELLING. One of the homes wrecked in the cyclone of Sunday morning. It was about the same time that Philadelphia and vicinity were hit by a storm of wind and rain.

RAYMOND T. BAKER, Director of the U. S. Mint, accepts design of silver dollar for 1922 from Anthony de Francisci (left), a New York sculptor.

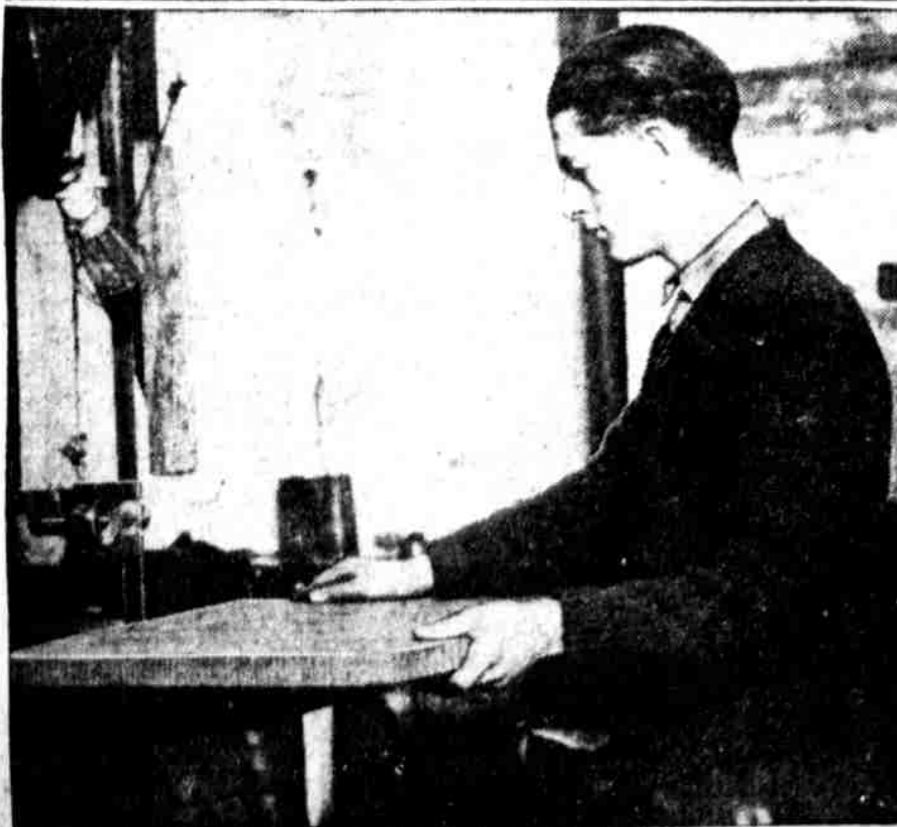

MISS EMMA NORRIS, of the All-Scholastic field hockey team, was in game against All-Philadelphia.

SITE OF CITY HALL ANNEX. The structure at the southeast corner of Broad and Race streets is being torn down to make way for the new municipal building. Work on the foundation will be started at once. The new building will house Central police station.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

OPERATING A HAND SAW. J. F. McGrath, of 6628 Leeds street, cutting vulcanized fiber for electric insulating and machine parts, at the factory of J. Spaulding & Sons Co., 141 North Fourth street.

E. K. CHAPMAN, known to his friends as "Chris," is a New Yorker. He has been overseeing the shipping of Christmas trees for more than fifty years.

DR. S. P. ROSS talks on welfare work among prisoners in an Editorial Page interview.

SKATING IN NEW YORK. This tot is Joan Stagg, of London.

WILLIAM A. LAW, president of the First National Bank. He lives at 440 West Chestnut avenue, Chestnut Hill, is married and has two children. Golfing and hunting are his hobbies. Clubs: Racquet, Rittenhouse.

BUSY PHILADELPHIANS