

FATHER PENN'S CHRISTMAS TREE. Decorated with stars and covered with a white substance, it makes a beautiful picture, with the Arch street buildings as background

ONE OF HUNDREDS. A busy postoffice clerk of the station at Twenty-second and Market streets doing his best to see that all get their Christmas mail

HELEN MORTON, of Swarthmore, does her bit to help the Delaware County Children's Christmas Cheer Association make many happy

CHESTNUT STREET WEST OF TENTH STREET IN 1892. The northwest corner was about the same as it is today, but you'd be startled to see a horse car, as is shown in shown in etching. There is not an automobile in sight to break any city parking rules. The patrolman has no traffic semaphore. Note the street paving and overhead wires. Have you an old Philadelphia photograph. Send it to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER

SUE HARVARD, who will be the soprano soloist at the twelfth annual Philadelphia Elsteddfod, to be held on January 2 at the Academy of Music

SEASONABLE HEADGEAR. Miss Jacqueline Logan, of movie fame, had it all fixed up for a Christmas party Underwood & Underwood

DORIS E. YOST, treated well by the Bellevue-Stratford Santa Claus as children of the hotel employes are entertained

PHILADELPHIA SCHOOLBOYS, TRY THIS. The big trick is for the rider to hang on to the inside of the shoe as the roller makes speed to win the tire race. Get all the old tires you can from Dad and his friends. Maybe a league could be formed! Underwood & Underwood

FRED K. BEAUVAIS, poet, Indian guide and promoter, co-respondent in the Stillman divorce suit, is starring himself in a movie, of which he is the author. Miss Christina McNulty is leading lady. Wide World Photo

DR. JEAN B. BECK talks on elementary training in Editorial Page interview

IN CHRISTMAS PLAYLET. Jennie Mardone, Gertrude Wasserstron and Sadie Steiner (left to right) carrying candles at the Nathaniel Hawthorne School, Twelfth and Fitzwater streets

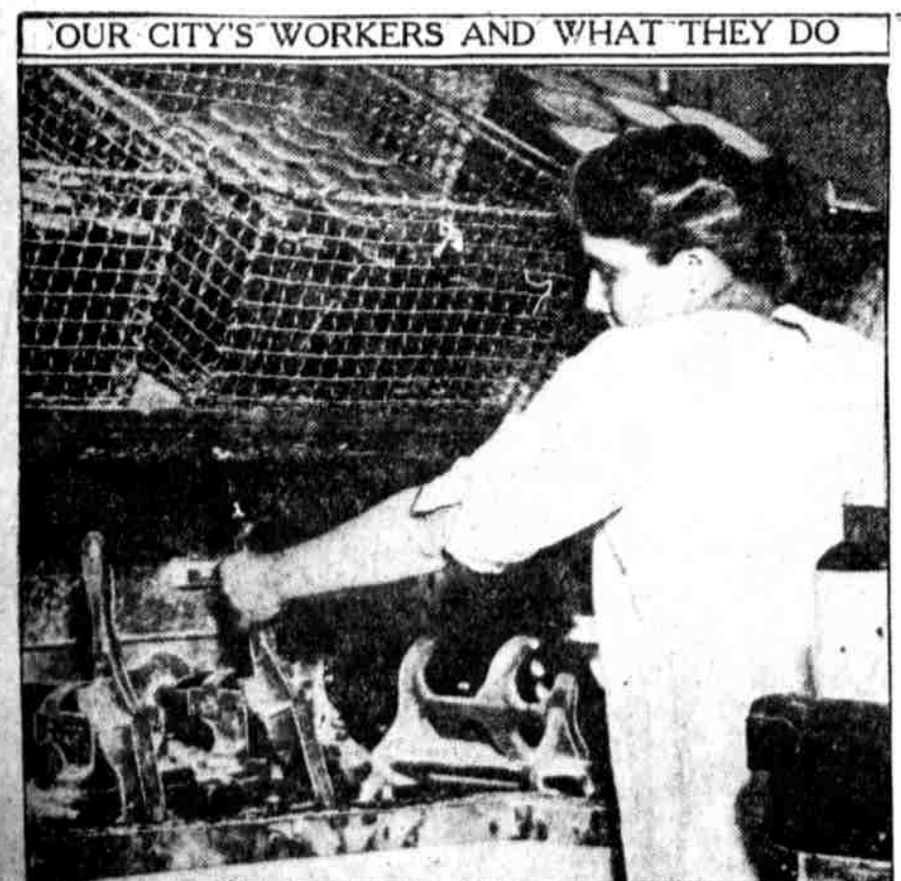

IN NEW YORK. Mrs. Arturo de Heeren, of Philadelphia, shopping. A. A. Brown

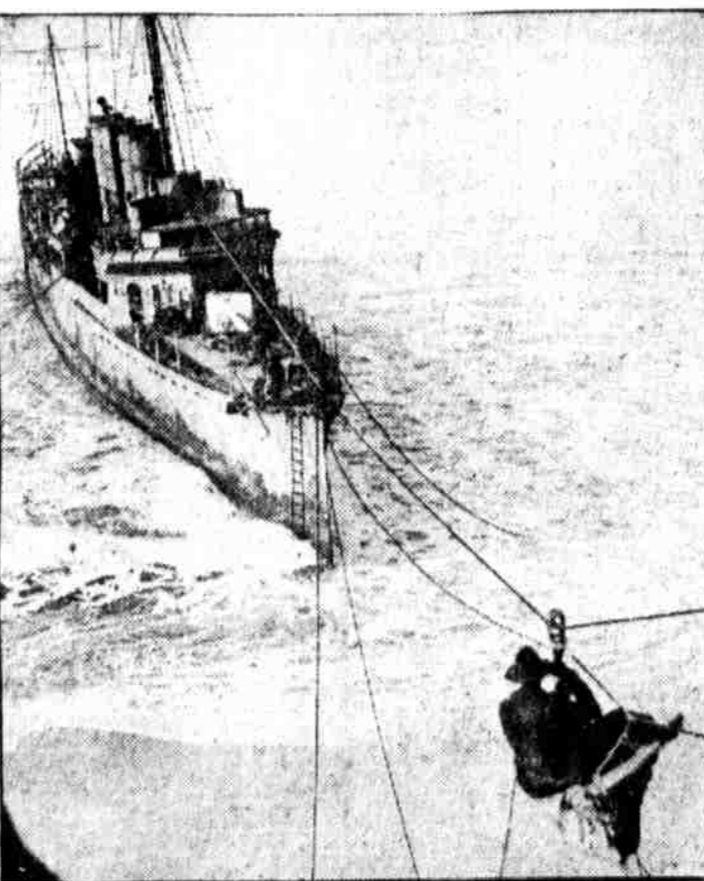

BRITAIN'S MODEST VIOLET. Lord Riddell, Lloyd George's publicity man at Arms Conference, sails for home. U. & U.

MISS RUTH PRITCHARD appeared in Philadelphia Masque Club's Christmas entertainment

MARY TROUTMAN, 2410 Mutter street, operating automatic bottle-filling machine at the Smith, Kline & French Company, Front and Poplar streets. The machine handles forty different types of bottles

NAVY WINS BATTLE AGAINST SAND AND WAVES. The U. S. destroyer DeLong aground at Halfmoon Bay, Calif., is saved. One of crew, 'ing aboard in basket. U & U

MISS CAROL CUMMINGS, of William Penn High School, helps to deliver toys to Philadelphia children

HIS CHRISTMAS HOME. Yes, they do celebrate Christmas at the Philadelphia Zoo. The keepers provide extra food

TRUST OFFICER. Harry A. Mankin, of the Ninth National Bank. He's married and lives at 6223 Webster street. Tennis and baseball are his hobbies

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

BUSY PHILADELPHIANS