Wants Unbiased Tariff Condition

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:

Sir-Commenting upon President Harding's message to Congress devoted to the tariff and the American valuation plan, the President has stated very clearly that a grave danger would accompany the adoption of the American valuation plan, which is now part of the Fordney tariff bill. His suggestion of an elastic tariff would remove the control if this were done, it would be necessary to select commissioners who were unblassed non-partisan, and of an open mind.
