Nancy Wynne Talks of the Large Entertainments of the Week—She Tells of the Benedict's Ball Tonight and Some Pretty Frocks

THE Hecklers' ball on Monday night was the largest affair of the season, and there were 1000 guests and that means that people of all ages beyond the debutante stage were invited.

That is really the difference between a ball and a dance. A dance is usually confined to 500 guests and only the debuts, second and perhaps third, include the younger, more folk and men are invited. At a ball the parents and sometimes the grandparents are also asked, and the affair is much larger in every respect.

TONIGHT we will have the Benedict's Ball, and it is to be held this year in the ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton. The Benedict's is not one of the largest balls of the season, the invitations seldom going beyond 500 or 600. It is very exclusive and delightful, however, and lucky is the bud who receives an invitation to it in her own right.

The ball is given by a number of gentlemen, usually from twenty to thirty-four in number, and some four or five of them form the special committee which is in charge of arrangements.

Tonight the patricesses, who have been invited to receive, will be Mrs. John Hamm, Barnes, Mrs. Edward P. Bell, Mrs. Beaurean Bellor, Jr., Mrs. William Struthers Ellis and Mrs. Charles Wheeler. And the gentlemen who will act as supper hosts to the patricesses are Dr. Richard Hart, Mr. Clement Buckley, Venetia, Mrs. William Williams, Mrs. Walter Frazee, Eleanor Hart, Logan Starr, Rosemary Howe and several others.

THE Christmas party of the Saturday Evening Dancing Class will be held tomorrow night, and lots of extra boys and girls who are home from boarding school will attend, so it will be a very gay meeting.

The committee has decided not to have a formal ball, but will have a committee of boys to help the receiving party. They will be Fredrick Morris Swope, Robert Holmes Page, Jr., John Stenhouse, Joseph Taylor and Stuart Alcorn.

The class will start promptly at 9 o'clock and you know it's in the foyer.

This year the committee includes Mrs. Margaret Clegg, who is Mrs. Dr. D. Moreau Barringer, Mrs. Percy H. Barringer, Mrs. George McFadden, Mrs. Paul Denckin Mills, Mrs. George Stuart Patterson, Mrs. B. Franklin Pepper, Mrs. Robert Leaming Montgomery, Mrs. John J. Newbold, Mrs. Montgomery and Mrs. Newbold, who will not receive at any of the meetings this year as they are both in Italy spending the winter there with their families.

THE super-dance last evening after the opera was certainly crowded. There must have been at least 200 there, and the room did look too beau- tiful. Most of the orchestra, auxiliary strings from Delaware, was in charge, and some of those who entertained were Mrs. John B. Thayer, Dr. Arthur Hardig, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Morgan, Mrs. W. D. Sheppard, Mrs. Alexander Van Rensselaer, Mrs. J. D. Foukner and a number of others.

Mrs. Bertha Shayatz, of 4256 Parkside avenue, in charge of the holidays in her home, is returning home and will go on an extended motor trip down the Virginia.

Mrs. Morris May, of New York City, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. A. E. Kirschbaum, at the Hotel Majestic.

Mrs. L. Newton, of 2312 North Park avenue, has announced the engagement of the daughter, Miss Elizabeth M. Miller, of 1226 North Franklin street, Mr. Stephens was in Camp Meade and Louisville training schools during the war. Her mother graduated from High and Muhlenberg College, where he starred in football and track.

Mr. George F. Kempen, Miss Georgena Kempen and Miss Dorothy Ryan, who have been spending a few days in Chestnut Hill, are returning home.
