

BEAUTY ON HAVERFORD POND. Josephine Williams, Joy Fletcher, Wilburta Horn and Mary Lea enjoy a big afternoon. Lots of skating and no school are a great combination.

MISS ALICE MANN, Washington debutante, who christened U. S. S. West Virginia.

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

THE NORTH SIDE OF MARKET BETWEEN SEVENTH AND EIGHTH STREETS. This is now the site of Lit Brothers' store. The tall building was formerly 711 Market street. It is included in the Lit Brothers' Building. Buildings to the right and left were improved in 1870, but were torn down in 1900 to make way for the enlarged department store. The photograph was contributed by Charles Willis, 528 Arch street. If you have an old-Philadelphia photograph send it to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.

DELAWARE COUNTY GIRLS ENJOY SKATING. The ice on the pond at Haverford College was in wonderful condition yesterday. The girls are Dorothy Rittenhouse and Helen Cochran.

IT WAS A BIG DAY FOR THEM. Children from all sections of the city were guests yesterday of Philadelphia Elks at their clubhouse, Juniper and Arch streets. The photographer caught some of them as they waited for the doors to open.

WASHINGTON AND JEFFERSON MASCOT, Miss Estelle Taylor.

CAN YOU PICK THE WINNER? On the "home stretch" the camera caught these horses of metal and wood in a factory where they are made for the joy-producing merry-go-rounds. There is a big field to choose from.

A HAPPY DOZEN. The photographer took the photograph from the balcony of the John B. Stetson auditorium while children of the Union Mission Sunday school were enjoying a Christmas treat.

ALFRED SOUDER, captain of detectives, talks on Editorial Page on protecting Philadelphia.

IN CINCINNATI. The Flood Relief Committee did a big job. Christmas food was taken to the homes that were surrounded by water from the Ohio River.

CHRISTMAS DAY AT COVINGTON, KENTUCKY. The Ohio River flood forced the people of this town to vacate their homes or move to the upper floors. Rowboats were the only means of transportation. Most of the people have returned to their water-soaked homes.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

MISS CATHERINE WILLIAMS, Westmont, N. J., making a final inspection of spectacle and eyeglass lenses at Wall & Ochs, 1716 Chestnut street. She is using a lensometer, a very delicate instrument.

BROTHERS. J. Guest, of the Pomona team (left), and A. Guest, of the Tigus team, appeared in the twelve-hour bowling marathon at the Keystone alleys.

LADY LEE, wife of Lord Leo of Fareham, member of the Arms Conference.

CARDINAL LOGUE leaving Dublin Conference.

WILLIAM H. REIFF, 138 West Gorgas street, paying teller at the Corn Exchange National Bank, where he has been for twenty years. He is married and has three children.
