

A TREAT FOR THE CHILDREN. This "Arm-strong" flivver gives the Dutch father a chance to make use of the Holland ice. The chauffeur handles two spiked sticks. Stout wooden shoes do the steering.

CADDIES AT ANNUAL HOLIDAY DINNER. Expert golfers and club officials turned waiters last night at the Bala Golf Club. They served a holiday dinner to seventy-two bag toters. Jack Calvert, Hampton Mayers and Gerald Dearie are in the foreground of the etching.

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

WE'D LIKE TO MAKE YOU GUESS THIS ONE. View of the southwest corner of Fifteenth and Market streets, taken in 1881. It shows the Devine, Brady & Co. grocery store. The Harrison Building now covers the site. Bernard F. R. Devine, of 802 North Twenty-first street, a member of the old-time grocery firm, furnished the photograph. Have you an old Philadelphia photograph? Send it to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.

DR. HAWKING, secretary-general of Chinese delegation, at Arms Conference.

MISS NEVILLE JOHNSON. A most popular debutante of the holiday season, entertained extensively by Washington society.

AIDES AT ANNUAL EISTEDDFOD. The Misses Edith Williams, Irene Lewis, Edith Evans and May Thomas will appear in Welsh attire on Monday.

DR. AMY KANKONEN, Mayor-elect of Fairport, O. She will make chemical analysis of all home brew taken in Faids.

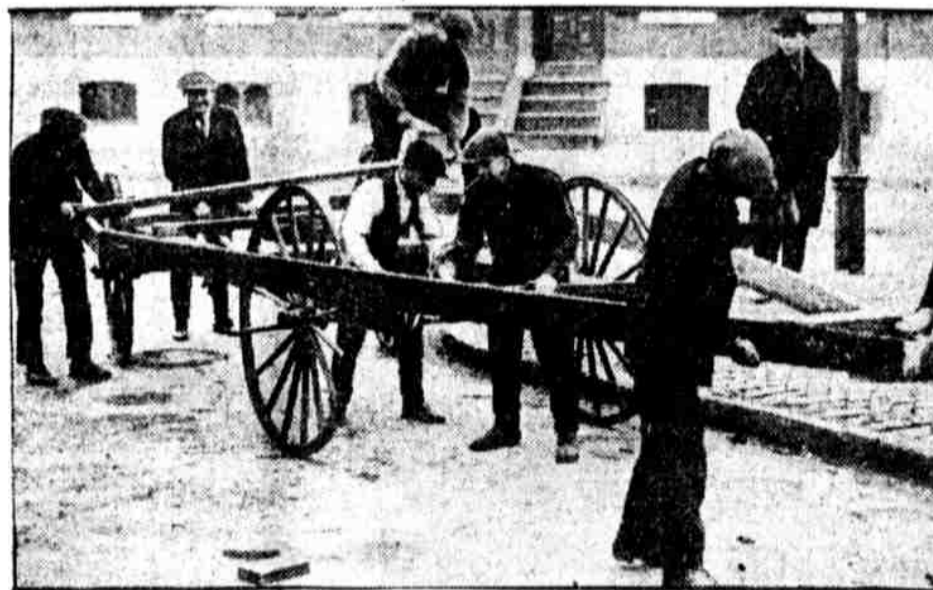

A PASSENGER ON THE NEW AMSTERDAM. Miss Gloria Heller returns to New York, following long European tour with her mother.

JOHN MacNEILL, of Ireland's Dail Eireann, photographed on a Dublin street.

HEALTH DIRECTOR FURBUSH talks on anthrax in Editorial Page interview.

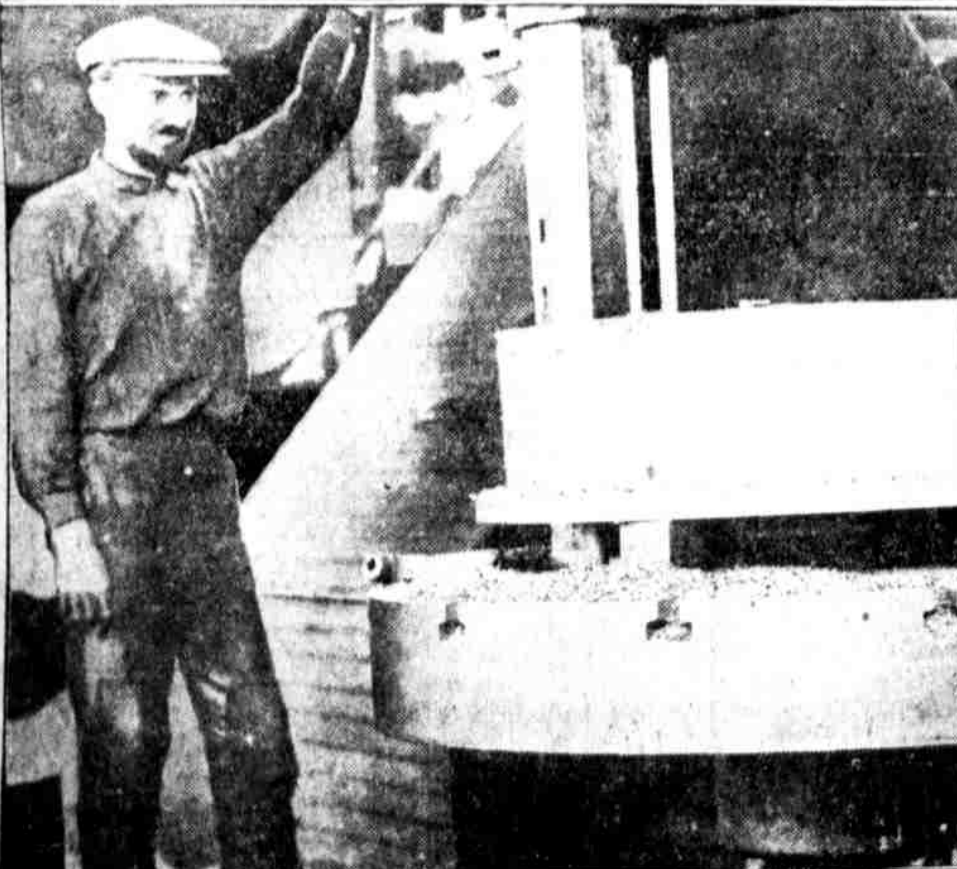

PREPARING FOR THE NEW YEAR'S PARADE. Members of the League Island Club at work on one of their floats. Rocco Marinucci, at the right, is standing on float that he will appear on in the mummer's procession. This float won prizes in 1920 and 1921.

MARCHIONESS OF QUEENSBERRY as "Bacchante," at Three Arts Ball, Covent Garden, London.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

OPERATING BORING MILL. A. Redick, 254 West Thayer street, in the foundry of the Albro-Clem Elevator Company, D street and Erie avenue. He was working on an elevator sheave when the camera clicked.

TWO OF THE BIG-LITTLE MEN. Lawrence Hurshman and John Coll took part in Christmas festival at the Central Y. M. C. A. last night.

SIGNORINA ITALIA ANITA GARIBALDI, granddaughter of Italian patriot, visits Mrs. Harding.

LEWIS, former member of the Metropolitan hockey team, now playing goal for Quaker City.

BUSY PHILADELPHIANS

CHARLES R. HORTON, manager of loan department of Fourth Street National Bank. He has been there twenty-four years. Lives at 14 North Fifty-sixth street. Music is his hobby.