

Evening Public Ledger
PHILADELPHIA
PUBLISHED DAILY AT 1000 WALNUT STREET
BY THE PHILADELPHIA LEDGER COMPANY

Member of the Associated Press
THE ASSOCIATED PRESS is a syndicate of newspapers and news agencies operating in the United States and other countries.

REPORTS THAT A VARE-MAGEE COMBINATION
IS IN THE MAKING IN ORDER TO CONTROL
THE NOMINATION OF THE NEXT GOVERNOR

KEEP WATCH OF THIS REPUTATION THAT A VARE-MAGEE COMBINATION
IS IN THE MAKING IN ORDER TO CONTROL
THE NOMINATION OF THE NEXT GOVERNOR

A CLEAN CIVIC RECORD
THE MOMENTUM OF ANY GREAT CORPORATE ENTERPRISE, GOVERNMENTAL OR PRIVATE, IS NOT EASY TO OBSERVE.

TITLE AMONG THE SOVIETS
IT WOULD BE interesting to know what Christmas and the New Year season have been like in Russia.

WHAT WORDS CAN DO
MANY thousands of men and women set their hearts on the acquisition of Woodrow Wilson's birthday to tell the world of his tremendous forces which this one American set in motion after the war and to prefer for him a shining place in the estimation of all future generations.

SPROUL AND ALTER MUST ACT TO PROTECT STATE'S MONEY
There is Evidence Enough of Illegal Use of State Funds to Justify Vigorous Legal Proceedings by the Attorney General

GOVERNOR SPROUL and Attorney General Alter are faced with the duty of beginning at once a vigorous investigation, into the way former Auditor General Snyder spent public funds.

There is evidence in the Auditor General's office that the law has been disregarded.
Documents there show that Lieutenant Governor Biddleman received $5000 for legal services which the Attorney General is directed by law to perform.

And now comes Samuel S. Lewis, the present Auditor General, with the definite statement in a letter to a man whose name was on the payroll of Mr. Snyder, his predecessor, that he knows of "quite a number of cases" of the payment of money beyond the salary fixed by law, and that in some cases the money was paid illegally.

BY-PRODUCTS OF EDUCATION PUBLIC school teachers' associations of New Jersey have again passed resolutions opposed to the continuance of secret fraternities in public educational institutions.

MANNERS AND MOTORS
JUDGE BARRATT has just praised the action of a jury which awarded $30,000 to a man permanently injured by a motor-car recklessly driven on Broad street.

AS ONE WOMAN SEES IT
The Good Bryn Mawr Has Done in the Past and the Lies Told About It That Can Easily Be Refuted and Lived Down

By SARAH D. LOWRIE
LAST summer for over a week-end I was in a small community on the coast of Maine, where nearly every cottage camp on the "rock-bound shore" was the summer home of a college professor.

NO ISSUE IN "HOMELANDS"
THE difficulty of making a political issue of the "homeland" interpretation of the Four-Power Treaty for mutual protection in the Pacific is not lessened by the Japanese aversion to an implied position of wardship.

It WAS considered a triumph of democracy on the part of Bryn Mawr College that the radical type of students who had accepted the teaching of that summer school had been made to feel as at home within its classrooms as the students of the regular college courses.

When I WAS in Bryn Mawr I had been very close to that school, and that I knew a good deal from those responsible for its reputation abroad, and that I had seen scholarships and the choosing of the students from the trades union and other labor and industrial organizations and the industries themselves had been accomplished.

DR. C. LINCOLN FURBUSH
On Anthrax and Its Cause
THE cases of anthrax which have occurred in Philadelphia recently have given the health authorities much concern, and Dr. C. Lincoln Furbush, Director of Public Health of the City of Philadelphia, says that every possible precaution is being taken.

What CHINA wants is a Chinese tariff
for China only.
Money, it may be noted, is not always
effective as a gag.

When CHINESE delegates to the Washington Conference gave a luncheon for the Japanese delegates, there was a Shantung cocktail on the menu. Yes, naturally, there was a kick to it.

When GENERAL Diaz, at home again,
expressed himself as being delighted with the reception he got in America he probably made one notable exception, his reply to victorious hand-shaking naturally went to the strainer. He learned how to relax between exuberances.

SHORT CUTS
What CHINA wants is a Chinese tariff
for China only.
Money, it may be noted, is not always
effective as a gag.

When CHINESE delegates to the Washington Conference gave a luncheon for the Japanese delegates, there was a Shantung cocktail on the menu. Yes, naturally, there was a kick to it.

When GENERAL Diaz, at home again,
expressed himself as being delighted with
the reception he got in America he probably
made one notable exception, his reply to
victorious hand-shaking naturally went
to the strainer. He learned how to relax
between exuberances.

When GENERAL Diaz, at home again,
expressed himself as being delighted with
the reception he got in America he probably
made one notable exception, his reply to
victorious hand-shaking naturally went
to the strainer. He learned how to relax
between exuberances.

When GENERAL Diaz, at home again,
expressed himself as being delighted with
the reception he got in America he probably
made one notable exception, his reply to
victorious hand-shaking naturally went
to the strainer. He learned how to relax
between exuberances.

When GENERAL Diaz, at home again,
expressed himself as being delighted with
the reception he got in America he probably
made one notable exception, his reply to
victorious hand-shaking naturally went
to the strainer. He learned how to relax
between exuberances.

When GENERAL Diaz, at home again,
expressed himself as being delighted with
the reception he got in America he probably
made one notable exception, his reply to
victorious hand-shaking naturally went
to the strainer. He learned how to relax
between exuberances.

When GENERAL Diaz, at home again,
expressed himself as being delighted with
the reception he got in America he probably
made one notable exception, his reply to
victorious hand-shaking naturally went
to the strainer. He learned how to relax between exuberances.

LET'S GO!
PUBLIC ENTHUSIASM
Miles

NOW MY IDEA IS THIS!
Daily Talks With Thinking Philadelphians on Subjects They Know Best

DR. C. LINCOLN FURBUSH
On Anthrax and Its Cause
THE cases of anthrax which have occurred
in Philadelphia recently have given
the health authorities much concern,
and Dr. C. Lincoln Furbush, Director of Public Health of the City of Philadelphia, says that every possible precaution is being taken.

What Do You Know?
QUIZ
1. When did the title Prime Minister first refer to a British minister in England?
2. What American war veteran was named for a society of war veterans?
3. What was the name of the "Victorious Army"?
4. What was the name of the "Victorious Army"?
5. What was the name of the "Victorious Army"?
6. What was the name of the "Victorious Army"?
7. What was the name of the "Victorious Army"?
8. What was the name of the "Victorious Army"?
9. What was the name of the "Victorious Army"?
10. What was the name of the "Victorious Army"?
Answers to Yesterday's Quiz 1. Edmund Randolph of Virginia, was the first Attorney General of the United States.
2. A "Red" is an extinct cigarette brand.
The name is from the Greek "rhodon," terrible, and "smoke," "rhodon," 3. "Call money" is money loaned which must be paid back upon immediate demand.
4. Jade is a silicate of lime and magnesia, a hard, green, blue or white stone.
5. Ostrich is the duty levied in some European countries on foreign goods. It is often foodstuffs, entering the country or the tax is levied.
6. Sir John Hare was a distinguished Englishman, especially noted for his characterization of the "Victorious Army" types. He died in London in 1921 at the age of twenty-seven.
7. Psyche was the Greek deity personifying the soul.
8. The Princess Queen of Italy is a native of Montenegro, daughter of former King Nicholas.
9. The "Grand Old Man of the West" is General Sherman, who formed a system of military and territorial divisions in the old western boundary of Montana.
10. Strasbourg is the chief city of Alsace, France.